Fountain Said To Be Surrounded

Isaiah Fountain, who was in Easton Jail for criminally assaulting Bertha Simpson some time ago, and who escaped from that place Tuesday night after sawing a bar into, is said to be surrounded in a swamp near Easton, according to latest reports. Constable Jack Jester was at Easton on Thursday night and said that a pair of bloodhounds from Virginia were on hand and that it was thought to be only a matter of a few hours before the man would be taken. Fountain disclosed his whereabouts by going to a farm house and asking for food.

THE MORAL EFFECT OF BEING INSURED

Have you ever stopped to think that to be insured makes us better—morally better? It is the performance of a duty—the fulfillment of a natural desire—the protecting of our own. It calls for the payment of money—a sacrifice—and without sacrifices the world would be a desert. Nothing is more uplifting or has a greater moral effect upon our daily life than the knowledge of duty done, and the greater the sacrifice, the greater the blessings that will surely follow.

The moral effect of being insured, with everything guaranteed and made certain, is often greater than the policyholder realizes.
