THE LEGISLATURE

The Senate has passed to a third read ing the bounty bill, which involves the expenditure of several millions of dollars and creates an additional tax of 5½ cents on every hundred dollars of taxable property in the State. A special committee was appointed to report on the propriety of taxing National Banks twenty cents on the $100 of their capital Stock. The bill ap propriating $5.000 to compensate P. F. Thomas for his services in trying to get into the U. S. Senate, was passed.

In the House, a bill was reported authorizing the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, and the County Commissioners of Washington county, to waive their liens and the mortgage heretofore execu ted to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore by the Western Maryland Railroad Company in favor of a mortgage or mortgages, to be executed by said Company, not exceeding the sum of one million dollars. Another bill was also reported amending the charter of the Wesern Md. Railroad Company, authorizing the President and Directors to issue the bonds of the said Company for an amount not exceeding one million dollars, in addition to the sum now authorized by the charter of said Company, bearing not more than six per cent. interest, redeemable in the year 1890, and convertible into the stock of said Company at the option of the holders. A bill changing the existing Sunday laws was read the first time. It provides that "it shall be lawful for any person whose religious faith and practice is to keep the seventh day of the week, commonly called Saturday, as holy time, and who does not labor or work on that day, to carry on his usual business or avocations on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, within his own premises."—The sale of spirituous or fermented liquors, or the keeping open of places of amusement on Sunday is prohibited. The bill repealing the Funeral law came up on the third reading, when on motion, it was indefinitely postponed, virtually killing the bill.

Bills fixing compensation of Court Crier and amending law in relation to County Commissioners of Carroll County, read a second time in the House.

Bill reported to the House to incorporate the Western Maryland College.

Bill incorporating Pipe Creek and Taneytown turnpike Company passed the House.

CONGRESS.

The House of Representatives having prepared the Articles of Impeachment, they proceeded to the Senate and presented them. The Senate having adopted rules to govern them, and made the other necessary preparations, sent for Chief Justice Chase who came to the Senate Chamber and took his seat as presiding officer. The Chief Justice then proceeded to swear in the Senators as members of the Court. On Friday last the Court was fully organized and next Friday was fixed as the day for the appearance of Andrew Johnson at the bar of the Senate to answer the Impeachment for high crimes and misdemeanors. The Impeachment proceedings have principally occupied the time of both houses of Congress during the past week. A bill has been introduced in the House providing that in case of a vacancy in the office of Chief Justice, the duties shall devolve on the oldest commissioned Associate Justice, until a new Chief Justice shall be appointed.

ELECTION OF A SENATOR

The Maryland Legislature, on Friday last, elected Hon. George Vickers of Kent County, as United States Senator to take the place of the Hon P F. Thomas, lately refused admission. Mr. Vickers was a strong Union man during the early part of the war, but has been acting with the Democrats since the Emancipation proclamation. Though Swann made another effort but he was again unsuccessful, and is now quietly waiting for something to turn up.

THE House of Representatives have adopted two additional articles of Impeachment. The first charges Andrew Johnson with trying to bring contempt and ridicule on the Congress of the United States, and the second charges him with denying the validity of Congress and its acts, and in pursuance of that denial endeavoring to set them aside. These articles were presented with the others to the Senate.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

The Republican Convention, of which Hon. John E. Smith was President, met in Baltimore on the 6th inst., and elected the following gentlemen as Delegates to Chicago and as Presidential Electors:

Delegates at Large.—Hon. J. A. J. Cresswell, Hon. John L. Thomas, Col. E. F. Anderson and C. C. Fulton.

District Delegates.—W. D. Burchinal, Col. Samuel Graham, Gen. H. Richardson, J. H. Longnecker, Gen. A. W. Dennison, Henry Stockbridge, Col. G. W. Z. Black, Caleb Douty, Francis Millar and George W. Sands.

Electors.—Hons. H. H. Goldsborough and John E. Smith for the State at large. From the Districts—David Blocksome, Wm. M. Marine, Wm. J. Nichols, Capt. H. C. Naill and Wm. J. Albert.

The following are the resolutions as adopted:

Resolved, That the Union Republican party of Maryland hereby affirms its devotion to be principles of justice and impartial manhood suffrage; that it declares its approval of the reconstruction measures adopted by Congress and its unalterable purpose to maintain untarnished and inviolate the public faith and national credit, to lessen the burden of taxation by cutting off all useless expenditures, and insisting upon the most thorough economy in the administration of the Government and confidentially anticipate that at an early day the Union will be completely restored on the solid basis of liberty, loyalty and genuine republicanism.

Resolved, That feeling assured that Ulysses S. Grant is in full accord with the loyal people of the country upon all the political issues that have sprung up between a hostile Executive and a patriotic Congress; regarding his splendid military record with unfeigned admiration; having full faith in his wisdom, integrity, prudence and firmness, and believing him to be emphatically the man for the times, this Convention declares its preference in favor of his nomination for the office of President of the United States.

Resolved, That the delegates elected by this Convention are authorized to fill all vacancies that may occur in their numbers. And they are hereby instructed to vote as a unit in the Chicago Convention, and are requested to employ all honorable and proper means to secure the nomination of Gen Grant and Mr. Creswell for the offices of President and Vice President.

Resolved, That the reverses of 1867, with the formidable attempt now everywhere making to disseminate and commend the principles of rebellion and repudiation, admonish us that our adversaries are preparing for the most vehement and desperate efforts to regain the control of the Government, and virtually reverse the triumph consummated at the Appomattox Court House; and we exhort our fellow-Republicans throughout the State to organize forthwith for the systematic diffusion of intelligence, by journals and otherwise, and for a vigorous persistent and efficient canvass henceforth to the close of the polls in November next.

Resolved, That Hon. John A. J. Creswell be presented to the National Convention by the Republicans of Maryland as the choice of the Republicans of this State for the Vice Presidency. His consistent identification with the cause of human freedom, his patrotic services in Congress, the fidelity and sagacity he has displayed, as well as his great prudence and firmness, has endeared him to every Republican in the State as one who will stand firm in the future as he has been immovable in the past.

Resolved, That the Republicans of Maryland heartily sustain the course of Congress in bringing Andrew Johnson to the bar of the Senate to answer for the manifold transgressions against the Constitution and the laws for his degradation of his high office, and for his attempt to stir up discord in the country by denying the constitutionality of the legislative branch of the Government, and that in case he be removed by the Senate we are satisfied that the Republicans of the country can repose the utmost confidence in the patriotism of the Hon, Benjamin F. Wade, and the faithful execution by him of the constitution and the laws.

Gas is bound to pay, else how would men get to Congress. Let our citizens think seriously of this very important, notwithstanding it is a Light matter.

Among the many restoritives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity, there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe to relieve and to cure, is enchanced tenfold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists to a remarkable degree in whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection, and Incipient Consumption is inestimable.

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry

Strong Testimony.

From Benjamin Wheeler, Esq Depot Master of South Royalston, Mass

"In the spring of 1858 I was most severely afflicted with a hard, dry cough, with its usual accompaniments of night sweats, completely prostrating my nervous system and producing such a debilitated state of health that, after trying medical aid to no purpose, I had given up all hopes of ever recovering, as had also my friends. At this stage of matters I was prevailed upon through the influence of a neighbor to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and before using two bottles, the effect was almost magical. My cough entirely left me the night sweats deserted me, hope once more elated my depressed spirits, and soon I had attained my wonted strength and vigor. Thus has this Balsam, as has often been remarked by persons conversant with the above facts, literally snatched me from the yawning grave.

You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted."
