WASHINGTON COLLEGE TO MAKE DRIVE

The article published in the Baltimore American last week and copied in The Transcript stating that Washington College was in debt $250,000 should have read "the college is going to make a drive to raise $250,000 as a contingent fund." The debt of the college is $60,000. The drive, we understand, will start in a short time with Dr. M. Bates Stephens as the financial secretary, with offices at Denton. A committee will serve with Dr. Stephens. This move on the part of the authorities of Washington College will give the friends and alumni an opportunity to come to the assistance of the college in a substantial way.

WEDDINGS

One of the prettiest weddings of the year took place on Thursday afternoon when Miss Aldie Frances Clements, daughter of Mrs. Alday Clements, became the bride of W. Rogers Wilson, Jr., of Ingleside, Md. The house was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums and palms, in the dining room the color scheme being yellow and white. Promptly at 3 o'clock the bridal party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, rendered by Miss Sarah Townshend, of Prince Georges county. During the ceremony "I Love You Truly" was very softy rendered. The bride was attired in a handsomely embroideerd gown of king's blue satin and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lily of the valley. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Ruth Clements, and Miss Louise Wilson, sister of the groom. Both wore pretty satin gowns and carried beautiful flowers. Mr. F. M. Benson, of Baltimore, and Mr. Geo. Clements were the groom's attendants. The wedding knot was tied by Rev. A. E. Owens, of Annapolis, a former pastor of the bride, who used the ceremony of the M. E. Church, of which church the bride is a most active member. After a reception, the couple left by automobile for a tour of northern places of interest. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will reside at Ingleside.

The following marriage licenses have been issued recently at the office of the Clerk of the Court for Kent County: A. M. Foote, of New York, and M. E. Fenico, of Brooklyn; Chas. Ireland and Elsie V. Dickinson, of Kent county; Frederick Allen and Ellen Jane Yates; Melvin Leon Glenn and Mary Susanna Kelley, of Rock Hall.

A marriage license was issued Monday in Elkton to Jerry I. Husfelt, of Cecilton and Florence M. Cleaver, of Chestertown.

The Baltimore Sun of last Thursday contained a marriage license issued for Norman V. Collison and Mary E. Blucher. Mr. Collison is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Collison, of Baltimore, formerly of Piney Neck.

Musical Notes

Every Columbia Grafonola is scientifically designed and built up to round out every musical note that the record carries. Every tone shade, soft or brilliant, is picked up and carried to you accurately by the

Columbia Grafonola

You get reproductions of exactly what the artists themselves produced on the original wax.

The straight metal one-piece tone arm allows the music to develop fully and naturally. Distorted tones are impossible. Pure, clear, well-rounded music comes to you with all its original harmony and tonal richness.

And when the last musical notes fade away, then and only then the Columbia Grafonola stops, for the Non Set Automatic Stop found exclusively on the Columbia Grafonola makes it stop. Never stops before it should. Always stops at the very end. Nothing to move or set or measure. Come in and let us demonstrate the stop that needs no setting.
