THE TRANSCRIPT

Entered at the Postoffice at Chestertown, Md., as Second Class Matter.

A HAPPY and prosperous New Year to our friends and patrons is the sincere wish of The Transcript management.

THE year 1920 passed out at 12 o'clock last night and the new year, 1921, entered upon a twelve months' voyage. Impressive watch night services were held in Emmanuel P. E. Church, Chestertown. We are deeply grateful to Him for our many blessings during the year just past and we ask his blessings and guidance for the coming year to us, to our friends, to our patrons and to all of His people.

WEDDINGS

Cards have been received in Chestertown announcing the marriage of Miss Sinah Eldredge Noble to Mr. Alberto Linwood Ferguson, of Philadelphia. Mrs. Ferguson is well known here, being a former teacher of Domestic Science at the High School.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Ahern, of Millington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marguerite, and Noah Lorian Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Majors Walker, of Baltimore.

Miss Ruby J. Graham, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Graham, of Chestertown, became the bride of Lieut. Victor H. Doushkess, of Easton, Pa., at Sacred Heart Catholic Rectory Tuesday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Urner, pastor of the church. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for a short trip north, after which they will reside in Easton, Pa., where the groom has a professorship at Lafayette College.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Jarvis announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Mable Anna, to Mr. D. Raymond Hill. The ceremony will take place at their home near Blacks station, Saturday, January 8, 1921, at 6 p. m. Mr. Hill is the son of Register of Wills and Mrs. R. R. Hill, of near Kennedyville.

STILL POND

Miss Inez Russell of Chestertown, visited Miss Lucille Parr this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Medders entertained a number of friends at their home on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Penn Toulson and daughter, Helene, of Vineland, N. J., spent this week with his mother, Mrs. Susie Toulson.

Miss Lucille Parr visited in Baltimore this week.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies Aid Society will meet at the home of Mrs. S. B. Parrott on Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 5. There will be an election of officers so a full attendance is desired.

Mr. Earl Thompson has accepted a position with his brother at Rock Hall.

The Christmas entertainment was held in the Sunday School room on Monday evening. A good crowd attended. After a good entertainment, Old Kris made his visit.

The Epworth League social will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Price on next Thursday evening, Jan. 6.

We were sorry to loose by removal some of our citizens this week. Mr. H. G. Anthony and family moved to Turner's Creek, while Mr. Earle Jewell and family moved on a farm near Worton.

Mrs. R. D. Moore entertained her Sunday School class on Wednesday evening.

DEATHS

The funeral of Mrs. Eunice Pearce, widow of late Judge J. A. Pearce, was held in Emmanuel P. E. Church, Chestertown, Monday at noon, conducted by Rev. Charles L. Atwater, assisted by Dr. H. B. Martin. Interment was made in Chester cemetery.

Daniel F. Copeland, father of Dr. H. P. Copeland, died at the residence of his son on Queen street Thursday night at 9.30 of apoplexy, aged 76 years. He leaves three children, Dr. H. P. Copeland, of Chestertown; Dr. G. L. Copeland, of Kritzmiller, Md.; and Mrs. J. H. Bowers, of Pittsburg, Kansas. The remains will be carried to Cumberland, Md., for interment on Sunday. Mr. Copeland came to spend Christmas with his son here and was taken ill a few days ago.
