THE TRANSCRIPT

Entered at the Postoffice at Chestertown, Md., as Second Class Matter.

CHIEF JUSTICE WHITE, of the Supreme Court of the United States, died Thursday. Ex-President Taft and Secretary Hughes are spoken of as probable succesors.

THE public announcement of Hon. E. Brooke Lee, stating that he would not be a candidate to succeed himself as State Comtroller, necessitates the nomination by the Democrats of a new candidate to fill this important office.

THE Maryland and the Del-Mar-Via Press Association will meet in Salisbury Monday and Tuesday, May 23 and 24. The Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary Club of that town have arranged a program of entertainment for the two associations.

THE efforts of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Co. to raise necessary funds to advance the usefulness of the company in protecting the property of our citizens by giving, through Manager L. B. Russell, movie picture shows Monday and Tuesday next, should be duly appreciated and should be well patronized—not one seat should be allowed to be vacant. The Fire Co. receive not one cent for their services and their task is not an easy one. To be called out of bed a cold night by the fire alarm to save your property from destruction, often times at great personal suffering and sacrifice, should be duly appreciated by you. If you value the company's service and appreciate what they are doing for you, buy a ticket or tickets for the movies Monday or Tuesday. If you cannot attend yourself, give the ticket to some worthy person less able to buy. Your home or your business place may be the next place in town to catch fire. If it should, you will need the Fire Company and need its services badly. Then remember its movie show Monday and Tuesday evening and patronize it.

Maryland Bankers Meet—The annual meeting of the Maryland Bankers Association was held at Atlantic City this week. The representatives of the Chestetrown banks were as follows: Third National Bank, Messrs. Hope H. Barroll and W. B. Copper; Chestertown Bank of Maryland, Messrs. W. B. Usilton, A. A. Harris and C. E. Crane; Kent County Savings Bank, J. D. Bacchus.

John Barrymore IN

"DR. JEKYLL and MR. HYDE"

JOHN BARRYMORE and MARTHA MANSFIELD in a scene from 'DR JEKYLL and MR HYDE' A PARAMOUNT ARTCRAFT PICTURE

The greatest drama of dual identity ever written.

The greatest piece of character acting ever filmed.

Dr. Jekyll—a lover and a gentleman, Mr. Hyde—a roue and a brute. Both of them one man!

He wanted to yield to all that appeals to the flesh, yet leave his soul untouched. So Dr. Jekyll concocted the potion that him him Mr. Hyde.

See—before your very eyes—the most amazing change of character ever achieved by a modern actor.

Two famous beauties in the cast. MARTHA MANSFIELD as the sweetheart of Jekyll. NITA NALDI as the music hall victim of Hyde.
