Cards are out announcing the marriages of two young ladies of this city, next week, and one young gentleman.

A heavy rain fell in this vicinity on Tuesday. At times it came down in torrents, making it very disagreeable to be out.

We are glad to say that the attendance of sellers and buyers at our market has increased largely within the past few weeks.

Miss Annie Cassell, who was visiting friends in Baltimore, returned home on Wednesday evening after a pleasant visit.

On Saturday last Mr. E. O. Grimes, agent, sold the huckster route and fixtures of the late Wm. A. Grimes, to Mr. J. N. Simmons, for $915.

Dr. J. J. Weaver, Jr., of Uniontown, has returned home after an extended trip through the South. His family is expected home next week.

Messrs. N. I. Gorsuch & Son are erecting a large building in the rear of their warehouse, in which they propose to pack hay and straw for market.

Mount Airy, on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, is having quite a boom at present, and gives promise of rapid development into a good-sized town.

The newly-elected officers of Carroll Division, S. of T., of this city, will be installed on Monday night, at which time the lady visitors are invited to be present.

On Tuesday Messrs. James Blizzard and Geo. L. Stocksdale, trustees, sold 53 acres of land with improvements, near Carrollton station, to Mr. F. W. Bennett, of near Finksburg, for $700.

Mr. Jos. A. Waesche, of East Main street, has remodeled and repaired his dwelling, adding much room and more conveniences. Mr. M. Luther Lantz, did the carpenter work.

On Saturday, the 21st inst., Mr. David Stone and other gentlemen, of Baltimore city, will visit this city in the interest of the Iron Hall, a branch of which order is about to be started in this city.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Rebecca Roop, on Saturday afternoon last, was attended by a very large concourse of relatives and friends. Elders Solomon Stoner and E. Babylon officiated.

Mr. David Rinehart, of Union Bridge, was in town on Wednesday. Mr. Rinehart has been confined to his residence for two weeks from illness, but we are glad to say is slowly recovering.

Mrs. Jacob Worley, of Baltimore, but formerly of this city, has purchased of Postmaster Joseph B. Boyle thirty feet of land adjoining the property of Henry Monathan, on Green street, at $11.00 per running foot.

The issue of April 7th of The Illustrated London News (American edition) is perhaps the best number of this periodical that has yet reached our table. The subject of the late Emperor of Germany is treated at considerable length. His last hours, his death, lying in state, are all ably presented and well illustrated. A double page cut of Frederick III. is among the more striking illustrations of the number. The price of the News is 10 cents.

Mr. John Marsh, of the Central Hotel, East Main street, has remodeled and repaired the bar and sitting-room attached thereto. The bar has been moved into the adjoining room and fitted up in a handsome manner. A new floor has been put down in the sitting-room, which has been enlarged and is now very comfortable. In the room adjoining a pool table has been added. Mr. Marsh has spared no pains to make the Central first-class in every respect, and to give the public home comforts.

Wisner's Sunday school was reorganized on Sunday, April 1st. The exercises were opened by singing "Lost But Found." Mr. N. T. Houck was chosen as chairman and Mr. Henry Troxell as secretary for the time being. Houck; assistant, Orestes Feeser; president, Larkin Belt; treasurer, J. J. Feeser; male managers, Wm. Lippy, Wm. Belt; female managers R. Hettie Houck, Ellen Lippy.

Accident.

On Friday afternoon of last week Mr. Ezra J. Yingling, of this city, met with a very painful accident at the new building of Mr. Huff, on Pennsylvania Avenue. He was at work on the second story, and stepped upon a board, which tilted and precipitated him to the cellar, a distance of about 18 feet. He was picked up in an insensible condition and Dr. M. L. Bott summoned who found no bones broken. Mr. Yingling was badly bruised about the head and body. He is now able to be out again.

Attempted Escape from Jail.

Geo. Blakesley, who was committed to jail here on a peace warrant for threatening to set fire to the property of Mr. Jacob Sellers, near Snydersburg, tried to escape on Saturday morning by sawing through the iron bars in the bath-room. This is the second attempt he has made to escape since he was committed, about six weeks ago. Deputy Sheriff Tyler was suspicious and watchful of him, and managed to detect him in the act after he had succeeded in cutting through the bars, but before he had effected his escape. He has been placed in irons since then and seems to be very much hurt at having them on.

Death of a Former Resident of This County.

George Garner, formerly of this county, died at the residence of his son, Duffield Garner, at Lowden, Cedar county, Iowa, on the 4th inst., in the 76th year of his age.

The deceased in early life lived on a farm near Taneytown, where he was well known and highly respected for his integrity. In 1853 he sold his property and moved to Iowa. He there bought a large tract of land, upon which he settled. He was one of the pioneers of that portion of the West, and endured many of the privations of frontier life. He was a close bible student from childhood, professing conversion over sixty years ago. The prophecies and their fulfillment were his great theme. He is the last but one of a family of nine children; a younger brother is still living on the old homestead, near Linwood.

Shipley Items.

The long days and the bright sunshine are having a telling effect upon our physical rest; and since the busy season has commenced we have heard more than one complain of being tired.

In the very midst of life, we are in death. Such was our sad experience this week. Our entire community was scarcely, if ever, more completely shocked than on Tuesday last, by the report of Mrs. Lemuel A. Cook's almost sudden death. Mrs. Cook was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Haines, near Winfield, and was taken sick on Monday, the 9th inst., and by 3 o'clock Tuesday, April 10th, she lay a corpse. Drs. Jas. P. Summers, of Warfieldsburg, and J. H. Billingslea, of Westminster, were present at the time of her death and did all in human power to save life, but in vain. The deceased leaves a kind and affectionate husband, a dear little son, and a host of friends and relatives too mourn their loss. In her death the husband has lost a devoted wife, and the community a kind friend and good neighbor. Mrs. Cook had only been married two years this spring. The remains were buried at Deer Park cemetery on Thursday, April 12th. READY.

City Council Proceedings.

The Mayor and Councilmen were all present at the meeting held last Monday evening. The collectors reported receipts during month of March $224.15. Mr. Fink stated that an application for a re-hearing in the Shipley case, in the Court of Appeals, had been made, and it was ordered that no costs be paid until further orders. The street commissioner reported that he had opened Carroll street on west side. It was ordered that all work be stopped on Carroll street after grading is completed until the assessments are collected, and contributions toward further necessary expense are received. A letter from one of our citizens, in which complaint was made against a family causing a nuisance by throwing slops, etc., into the alley adjoining their residences, was read, and the street bailiff was instructed to abate the nuisance, if still continued, by the usual legal process. The clerk was ordered to give the proper notice of the election for a mayor and five councilmen to serve for one year from May. The election is to be held the first Monday in May, at the residence of Mrs. Grumbine, beginning at 12 M.

Messrs. Rinker, Anders and Sullivan were appointed judges of said election. It was ordered that the Westminster Water Company be notified to repair or replace the fire plugs at Court House, at Washington and Green, at Union and Main and on Green, near Church streets.

Morgan Items.

Business is not so brisk since the shutting down of the mill. Mr. J. C. White, the superintendent of the Woodbine mill, has just returned from a trip to Washington, where he spent a very pleasant time sight seeing.

Our farmers are kept busy plowing and caring for their cattle.

Grain looks exceptionally well in our district.

Miss Maggie Koenig, of Baltimore, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Fillmore Geipe. Miss Ida Olivett is visiting her friend, Miss Lillie Chaney. Miss Ida is a pretty and accomplished young lady.

A good tenant has not yet been found for the hotel.

Health of community—good.

J. G. B.

Watch Club.

Our enterprising jeweler, Mr. Allen H. Wentz, yielding to the desire of some of our people, has determined to start another watch club, similar to that he conducted two years ago. The plan is to secure a certain number of subscribers, each of whom binds himself to pay a certain regular sum, say a dollar a week, and every week there is a drawing at which one watch is drawn and given to the person whose name is drawn at the same time. With the last watch drawn a chain and charm worth $15 will be given. A number of our young men secured gold watches in this way on easy payments in the former clubs. All who wish to do likewise will now have a fine chance, and it is hoped the enterprise will be well patronized.

Double Pipe Creek Items.

We notice some improvements going on in town.

Mr. Burkley Burhman has dug a well and built a wash-house on his property. Mr. John S. Weybright has built a large shed for his machine business. Mr. James Mirely is building a new fence on his property. Mr. John Eyler is having his orchard trimmed.

Mr. William F. Cover was badly bitten by his dog while attempting to kill him.

Mrs Washington Shorb has been confined to her room for the last two weeks by sickness.

Mr. John Kurffman, who was so badly hurt, is able to walk again.

Miss Sadie L. Sayler is visiting friends in Union Bridge.

Miss Florence Nusbaum, of Sam's Creek, was visiting at Messrs. John and Samuel Weybright's last week.

Misses Ollie and Etta Snader have been visiting Mrs. Laura Myers, of Keysville.

K. Z.

Stonersville Items.

Rev. J. U. Asper, of the Lutheran charge, administered the Holy Communion to 109 persons at Krider's church on Sunday morning.

On Tuesday of last week while Mr. Lewis Wantz and wife were returning home, a limb of a tree caught in a standard of the wagon in which they were riding, which, in rebounding, struck Mrs. Wantz in the eye, cutting it and causing a very painful wound.

Mr. Joseph Rosenberger, of Baltimore city, spent several days of last week with his brother Thaddeus.

Mr. N. L. Bixler had the misfortune to run the prong of a pitchfork through the palm of his right hand, while working in his barn one day last week.

Several flittings passed through the village during the week.

Mr. Abraham I. Geiman has repaired his fish-pond, which had been damaged by the recent heavy rains. Mr. Geiman says if those fishermen should again pay his fish-pond a visit they should please leave a few more fish for him.

Mr. John E. Stonesifer is now upon our sick list.

Tyrone Items.

The weather at this writing is very cool and wet. Our farmers are at last permitted to do their spring work.

On Good-Friday the following officers were elected at Baust church to serve two years: Reformed congregation—for elder, Joseph Myers; for deacon, J. T. Babylon; for trustee, Jesse C. Bankert. Lutheran congregation—for elder, Lewis Myers; for deacon, David Nusbaum; for trustee, Dr. J. Rinehart. Mr. George C. Harman, who has been choir leader of this church for nine years, resigned, the resignation to take effect immediately. Mr. Harman will be the tenor singer of the Reformed congregation at Westminster.

On Sunday last, at 12 o'clock, the following were elected officers of the Sunday school at Baust church: President, U. M. Bowersox; vice-president, H. Sell; superintendent, Wm. H. Nusbaum; Geo. C. Harman, the secretary for nine consecutive years, refused a re-election, and Wm. U. Marker was made secretary; librarians, John Sell and C. P. Welk; lady superintendents, Mrs. Marker and Mrs. Sell. After the retiring secretary read his report the school was found to be in a prosperous condition. About $47.00 were reported in the treasury and no debts. Mr. Jacob Sell was continued treasurer.

College Notes.

Dr. Lewis attended the M. P. conference held in Baltimore last week, and made several speeches which were highly commended by the local press. He was elected as a delegate from the Maryland conference to the general conference which meets at Adrian, Mich., about the middle of May.

Jas. A. Diffenbaugh, County Examiner, delivered a fine half-hour lecture in the Auditorium Thursday, at 1.30, P. M., on "Pedagogics." He will favor the students with discourses on the same subject every other Thursday afternoon at the same hour till the close of the school year.

Prof. Schaeffer entertained the school with a very interesting lecture Friday of last week on "Primary Education."

The Base Ball Association has reorganized and will begin active operations immediately. They have secured permission to use the lot directly behind the Seminary for the location of their diamond. A challenge came in the mail Wednesday evening from New Windsor, which will no doubt be accepted.

The ladies, not to be outdone, have organized a lawn-tennis club and will use the grass plot in the angle of the main building as the arena of victory and defeat.

A Ward Hall inmate, Mr. Bennett, has been suffering seriously from neuralgia for several days but is recovering.

Mr. John Driscoll is making preparations for a base-ball team this coming summer, composed mostly of home material.

Westminster Republican Club.

The Republican club of this district met at Bowers' Hall on Tuesday night, and after the adoption of a constitution and by-laws the following gentlemen were elected officers of the club: President, W. L. Seabrook; vice-presidents, Grove A. Shipley, John G. Shunk and D. L. Farrar; recording secretary, Julius Hebbel; corresponding secretary, Jos. H. Krichton; treasurer, Alex. Kleindinst; sergeant-at-arms, Geo. E. Lippy; executive committee, W. L. Seabrook, Grove A. Shipley, Julius Hebbel, Alex. Kleindinst, J. Edwin Weaver, J. E. Nicholson, Jno. H. Mitten and Wm. Anders.

The following gentlemen were elected delegates to the meeting of Republican clubs of this State held in Baltimore on Thursday last: I. E. Pearson, Grove A. Shipley, H. M. Clabaugh, Samuel Shunk and Jos. D. Brooks.

The club will meet every Tuesday night, and a cordial invitation is extended to all Republicans to attend. The Hall will be furnished comfortably. The club already has a large membership.

Sweet Air Items.

The weather at this writing is very pleasant, and the roads are again in a fit condition to be traveled upon.

Mrs. H. A. Ways is having her garden paled in, Mr. L. W. Grim, carpenter.

Mrs. M. V. Jenkins, who has been visiting friends near Daniel, has returned home.

Mr. U. G. McLeary, of Baltimore, accompanied by Mr. P. L. W. Gorsuch, spent several days last week with his cousin, Miss Cora Ways.

Miss Sarah E. Mullinix is visiting in Frederick and Montgomery counties.

Miss Kate Palmer, who has been suffering with sore throat, is better.

KINDANDTRUE.

Harney Items.

The frequent rains have been very beneficial for the wheat and grass, although the wheat in many places was badly injured by the cold weather in March and is not coming on as was expected. Farmers are busy sowing oats and hauling manure preparatory to plowing their corn-ground.

The masons have completed the wall for the cigar factory of Eckenrode & Newcomer, and the carpenters are now at work. The building will be completed as soon as possible. The room now occupied is very much crowded.

Messrs. Harner and Witherow have purchased a new well-drill and will no doubt do a good business through this neighborhood.

Jonas Harner will build an addition to his barn this spring and otherwise repair it. He has been doing a great deal of work on his farm, this spring, by way of putting up new fences.

Edward Flohr, of Sykesville, was here on a visit to his wife's parents and friends last week. He reports the wheat looking well in Freedom district.

T. J. Hess, our coach repairer and blacksmith, was confined to his house and bed last week with measles, but is able to be out and at work again.

Our merchant, S. S. Shoemaker, went to Baltimore this week to lay in his spring stock of goods.

Mrs. Shellman, residing near here, had a stroke of apoplexy last week. At present she is able to be about again.

Irving M. Bush moved to Gettysburg last Monday, where he will locate, occupying the field vacated by the former veterinary surgeon. Mr Bush is an indefatigable student, an energetic, persevering young man, and takes with him the best wishes of the citizens of Harney and vicinity for his future prosperity.

Some very fine fish have been caught in the Monocacy the past few weeks—the largest we ever saw.

A. L. BERT.

Woodbine Items.

The Morgan Chapel Sunday School will organize next Sabbath. There should be two superintendents, male and female, and they should each have an assistant. Schools can be operated better in this way; the children can more readily be encouraged to attend the school.

Mr. William B. Gosnell and Miss Emily Gartrell were joined in matrimony on the 8th instant. The happy pair have our best wishes.

A Dunker Elder will preach at Morgan Chapel on the 22d instant at ten o'clock, A. M.

Mr. Thomas B. Gosnell will erect a barn the coming summer; Mr. Jackson Shipley, carpenter.

The large sale of the late Nicholas Hutchins, of Woodbine, came off on the 4th instant, and goods were knocked down at fair prices. Big Joe Berrett was auctioneer, and a better than whom cannot well be found.

Mr. Amos Gosnell has moved to Major Steel's farm at Watersville. Mr. William Harrison will occupy the house vacated by Mr. Gosnell.

The planting of the oats crop is well over, and corn will be next in turn, a large crop of which will be planted. Formerly a mist went up from the earth to water the ground, but now the water pours down almost every day. But it is all coming right after a few more years.

Will some one tell us what style of plow and whose patent it was that Elisha used which required twelve yoke of oxen to pull through the soil? We feel assured that it was not the Oliver Chilled patent. The Arabs plow by attaching a rope to the plow and to the tail of their donkeys; but Elisha had better sense than this, although oxen must have very strong tails, for we have often heard it said that the Democratic party could not be trusted in politics any further than you could throw a bull by the tail. And the legislation that has just been given us from Annapolis is ample proof of the fact.

W. D.

The foundation walls for the new store-house of Mr. David Englar, Jr., at Medford station, are up. The frame work is being sawed upon the premises by a force of workmen, and it is expected that the building will be ready for occupancy early the coming month. For the accommodation of his customers, Mr. Englar has opened a stock of groceries, etc., in a car at the station.

Gamber Items.

The large dwelling of Col. Wm. Norris, between here and Reisterstown, was destroyed by fire on Saturday last. Nearly everything was consumed in the flames. The building was insured. Several valuable articles, including gold watches, were lost in the burning building. The loss upon the house was from $6,000 to $8,000, upon which there is insurance for $4,000 in the Merchants' Union Company of London. There is also a policy of $2,000 in the same company upon the furniture, which will nearly cover the loss.

Mrs. Frank Vincent Smith, of this place, paid a visit to Mrs. Frank Barnes on Sunday, April 1st, and whilst there was taken sick with pleurisy. She is now convalescent, but unable to return to her home.

Edmondson & Pool will move their steam saw mill to T. J. Miller's place on Friday next, for the purpose of sawing timbers for his barn, which he is pushing to completion as fast as the weather will permit.

The Republican club, of this place, met on last Saturday night, the 7th inst., at Gamber's store, and elected five delegates to attend the convention in the city of Baltimore on the 12th inst., for the purpose of organizing a State Republican League. The next regular meeting of the club will be held on the Saturday of May agreeable to the constitution of said club.

Finksburg Items.

Finksburg Division, S. of T., at their regular meeting last Saturday night elected the following officers: W. P., J. L. Stocksdale; W. A., Miss Bettie Horner; R. S., A. Horner; A. R. S., C. Woods; T., G. N. Benson; F. S., Miss Jessie Leister; C., D. R. Hering; A. C., Miss Mary Stocksdale; I. S., Will. Buckingham; O. S., Charlie Shreeves. There will be a public installation to-night to which everybody is invited. This is a worthy institution and one in which everyone who is interested in the overthrow of rum should encourage.

On last Monday night there was a serious cutting affray at Louisville, in which Alfred Dutten, colored, was seriously cut in the abdomen by Joseph Robertson, also colored. It seems both parties had been drinking some so-called cider, when, as usual, there were some words, which ended as stated above. The affray took place at the store of Kinzer Williams, postmaster at Louisville. The wounded man is attended by Dr. S. N. Gorsuch, of Gamber.

The Mt. Zion Sunday school was reorganized last Sunday by electing Charles N. Stocksdale superintendent and Murray Shreeves assistant.

The oyster supper recently held by the members of Mt. Zion church netted them about forty dollars.

Growing wheat and rye are looking very well at present. Farmers are busy preparing ground for oats.

April 5th, 1888.

The officers recently elected by Finksburg Division, S. of T., were installed on Saturday night last.

The last Legislature, like all of its predecessors, proved conclusively that it is an impossibility for the people to vote on a constitutional amendment prohibiting the manufacture and sale of the accursed demon rum.

Dr. VanBibber performed an operation on Minnie DeMoss for hip disease, with satisfactory results. While she will be a cripple for life, yet she has improved a great deal.

Some of our farmers have finished sowing oats, but the majority have not yet commenced.

The teacher of our public school has gone to Philadelphia, consequently our school is closed.

Mr. Ryland has taken charge of the toll-gate, Mr. J. Zahn having moved opposite the hotel.

Mrs. Jacob Knight, residing near here, fell down several steps, rendering her unconscious for some time. Dr. Moores is in attendance.

Mr. Daniel King expects to move to New York, where he has obtained a lucrative position.

On last Saturday morning a large fire was seen from here. The fire proved to be the residence of Col. Wm. Norris.

Carroll Chapter, No. 31, Royal Arch Masons, had a very interesting convocation last Tuesday evening and conferred the degree of Most Excellent Master on two candidates. At the meeting, next Tuesday night, the 17th inst., the Royal Arch degree will be conferred, an event which never fails to ensure a full attendance of the members.

Burns Post, G. A. R., will meet this Saturday afternoon at Odd Fellows' Hall, at 2 o'clock, for muster and general business. A full attendance is urged.

Union Bridge Items.

On Saturday last one of our most worthy and respected citizens, Mr. Reuben Saylor, departed this life at the age of 70 years. He had been in ill health for the past forty years. The deceased was a native of this county and lived on his farm, a few miles from this city, until the latter part of his life, when he moved to this city. His remains were interred at Beaver Dam burying-grounds on Monday last, in the presence of a large concourse of relatives and friends. He leaves a widow and five sons—Reuben, living in Frederick county, Daniel, in Union Bridge, Samuel, in North Carolina, John, in Kansas, and Walter, in New Orleans. Mr. Thomas Reisler has been appointed administrator on his estate, which is valued at $30,000.

The Union Bridge Fire Company held a special meeting on Monday night and elected five new members to the company. The company expects to visit the exposition to be held in Chambersburg in May. Meetings are held in the rink on Monday and Thursday nights for drill.

Mr. Carl Pfoutz, of the firm of Pfoutz Bros., has withdrawn from the firm and will go to Philadelphia in a few days to engage in business with a wholesale house.

The yearly classis of the Reformed Church will be held in this city the last of May, continuing one week.

Missionary services will be held in the Reformed church this coming Sunday at 3 o'clock P. M. All are invited to attend.

Mr. John Stoner has sold his interest in the elevator at this city to Messrs. Miller & Son, of Double Pipe Creek.

Mr. Stoner expects to go south and engage in the feed business.

Miss Nellie Hall returned to her home in Baltimore on Sunday last after a visit of several months to friends in this city.

Quite a number of improvements have taken place in this vicinity.

The late rains have brought forth the grain and grass.

Bird Hill Items.

After a long, dreary winter, spring has at last made its appearance, and the husbandman, taking advantage of the weather, is hauling out manure and preparing his ground for seeding and planting.

The public sale of horses and farming implements of Wm. Yeager was well attended on Thursday last, and everything offered sold at fair prices. Several cords of oak wood were sold on the ground at $1.85 per cord.

The Easter services held in the Deer Park chapel on Monday night last were well attended and the best of order prevailed. The pulpit of the church was handsomely decorated with magnificent flowers of many varieties. The singing was ably conducted by the choir, with Miss Fannie Buckingham presiding at the organ. An interesting address was delivered to the congregation by the pastor of the church, Rev. J. D. Corbin.

The prayer meeting held at the residence of J. T. Smith, on Sunday night last, was well attended.

Mrs. Richard Barnes and Mrs. John Evans left on Saturday last for Baltimore on a visit to relatives and friends.

J. N. Shanck lost a valuable cow last week.

L. K. Markel recently purchased of Joel Gutman a strip of land for a road from his farm to the Perry Barnes road, which will be in a traveling condition in a few days. REGULAR.

April 15th, 1888.

On Monday night, April 2, a social hop was given at the residence of Frederick Megins, which was well attended by the young people of the surrounding neighborhood. Good music was furnished and dancing was kept up until a late hour.

One day last week, while Thomas Edmonson and wife were returning from Westminster in a buggy, their horse was suddenly seized with a fit. While in this state he made a total wreck of one of the front wheels, but fortunately the occupants escaped injury.

On Thursday of last week J. G. Cook moved in with his son-in-law, John L. Shipley, of this place.

On Tuesday last we were visited by a heavy rain, which soaked the ground to such an extent that the planting of peas and potatoes will be delayed for a few days. A large acreage of peas and sugar-corn will be planted in this section this season for the Westminster and Mechanicsville canning-factories.

Report says a man residing near here ate for his breakfast, on Easter Sunday morning, twenty hard-boiled eggs and one fried. We consider this a square meal.

The grain fields in this section look very promising at present.

Emory Zepp lost a very fine mare on Sunday night last.

William Bloom moved onto his farm near here on Wednesday last.

Our singing-school, which meets regularly every Tuesday and Friday night at the residence of Elias Ogg, is progressing finely.

The prayer meeting held at the residence of Wesley Barber, on Sunday night last, was largely attended. Let the good work be continued.

Manchester Items.

At the corporation election on Saturday last there was but a slight contest for councilmen, that caused a little ripple for awhile, but upon the whole the affair was a quiet one. The officers elected will no doubt do their duty and administer the affairs of the corporation with prudence and economy, and, if supported by the citizens as they should be, will give an administration of much credit and satisfaction to all. The following were elected: Chas. A. Myers, Mayor; Messrs. Luther Trump, E. A. Ganter, Chas. H. Everhart, E. G. Sellers, and Chas. Warner, Councilmen; of the latter Messrs. Myers, Trump, Ganter, Sellers and Everhart were also elected trustees of the Manchester Academy, which we hope will receive the attention for repairs it so badly needs. In a few weeks our citizens will again be called upon to cast their votes in a matter involving the future of the town—namely for or agains the branch railroad from Maple Grove. It is true the question has two sides with good debatable ground, yet we think the affirmative has the stronger, even giving the negative the advantage of the opposition produced, and we believe will be sustained by a good majority.

The death of Mr. John Beir on Sunday, at 3 o'clock, A. M., has considerable of sadness connected with it; sickened and dying among strangers, with no relative to speak one word of comfort or administer to his wants. This gentleman came here about Christmas and secured employment in the cigar factory of Becker Bros. He was quiet and unassuming, and soon gained the respect of his fellow workmen and those with whom he came in contact. He was indisposed for some weeks, but it was only during the last seven days that his indisposition took a serious turn and confined him to the house. He was unable to lie down and died in his big chair, at the above hour, at the house of Mr. John Lawson, with whom he was boarding. He was about 45 years of age. His parents died many years ago, a wife and two children also preceded him to the spirit world, leaving an only brother in California surviving him. His remains were nicely laid away to rest in the cemetery here, surrounded by a large concourse of sympathizing people. Rev. C. M. Eyster officiated.

Mr. Nelson Warehime and family, with effects, left on Monday evening for Baltimore, their future home. Mr. Warehime is keeping a restaurant at the old Jordan stand, on the corner of Franklin and Paca streets.

The early mail arrangements now give us the Baltimore papers and mail about 7.30 A. M, thus furnishing us three mails from Baltimore daily.

Oats are pretty generally sowed, and the potato and corn ground is receiving attention.

Messrs. Theo. Tracy and Wm. Zepp, of this district, are arranging for the building of new barns during the early summer.

Our cattle dealers are shipping many fine cattle that have been fed in this section during the winter, and farmers are realizing remunerative prices.

On Friday last a hatchet glanced and imbedded itself in the left hand of Mr. E. J. Crumrine, almost severing the thumb from the hand.

Mr. Henry Steffy, of Cape Horn, is again convalescing.

DECIMUS QUINTUS.

Manchester, April 12, 1888.

Hampstead Items.

The funeral services of Mrs. Keziah Murray were held last Sunday in Hampstead Methodist Episcopal church; fully 600 persons were present. Rev. T. Marshall West preached an able funeral sermon from II Tim. I: 10. Mrs. Murray was aged 64 years, 6 months and 12 days Five children survive her: Mrs. Mary L. Strickland, of Texas; Mr. Winfield T. Murray, of Illinois; Mr. Charles E. Murray, of the U. S. A., California; Mrs. Chas. M. Murray and Mr. Wm. A. Murray, of Hampstead. Interment at Hampstead cemetery.

Mr. F. R. Krebs, of Hanover, Messrs. L. C. and Wm. Caltrider, of Miller's, have moved here, to engage in the manufacture of cigars. Mr. E. R. Sparks from New Freedom, to engage in tailoring. We trust the change made by the newcomers has been one for the better, for themselves and the people of Hampstead. And while we, in behalf of our citizens, bid them welcome, we would prescribe for their happiness a subscription to the Westminster SENTINEL and to Hampstead's Enterprise. To live without papers is to place a plaster over the eye and cotton in the ear and use one nostril for breathing and a clam shell for residence.

At an examination of all the Sunday school scholars of Hampstead Methodist Episcopal church on the catechism and discipline, W. Weldon Wooden, son of Calvin C. Wooden, received an average of 99.44, and T. Marshall West, Jr., son of Rev. T. M. West, an average of 99.37.

Rev. Edwin T. Mowbray paid a visit to Hampstead on Monday and Tuesday and was royally received. Although he gave but short notice of his coming, yet successful plans had been made for receptions to him on both evenings. He is an ex-pastor at this point and occupies a warm place in the hearts of all his parishioners.

Mrs. Kate Merriman is very low with pulmonary consumption. Her friends have been telegraphed for.

Mrs. John Quail, who has been very ill, is convalescing.

Rev. J. B. Hall is also convalescing from a severe attack of nervous prostration.

Mr. Wm. E. B. Tipton has baffled very successfully with an attack of pneumonia and is again out.

Mr. W. Winfield Murray has left to enter the spring term at Pennington Seminary, Pennington, N. J.

Mr. R. Frank Rutledge has moved to Jefferson Place, Baltimore.

Mr. Emanuel Shaeffer has moved to Snydersburgh. Editor J. S. Cornman, of the Enterprise, from the house of J. B. Bush to opposite his office.

Misses Lida and May Richards and Elva C. Jackson have gone to Baltimore.

Mr. Chas. M. Murray has removed the partition in his store and thus extended his shelf-room.

Work on the new school-house has been commenced.
