Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over thirty years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

Never attempt to relieve your baby with a remedy that you would use for yourself.

What is CASTORIA

INTERESTING EXERCISES MARK CLOSING OF 139th YEAR OF THE INSTITUTION

The annual commencement exercises, marking the close of the academic year at Washington College, were held this week. A good crowd was in town at the different events and considerable interest was manifested throughout the week.

The commencement exercises began with the baccalaureate service at Wm. Smith Hall on Sunday morning last. Rev. Alexander G. Cummins delivered the baccalaureate sermon to a large crowd. The scripture lesson was read by Rev. Omar E. Jones, pastor of the Chestertown M. E. Church, and the Rev. N. I. Gibson, pastor of Christ M. P. Church, offered prayer and benediction. The choir was selected from the choirs of the Chestertown churches and was under the direction of Mr. William Walter Chapman, with Miss Louise Russell at the piano. The work of the local singers was of a high order, while the sermon was instructive and to the point.

The annual debate for the Rogers prizes was held on June 13. The question was "Resolved that Ireland should have total independence." T.F. Healey, Esq., and E. H. Lewis represented the affirmative and O. H. Gray and W. D. Gould represented the negative. The negative side won the debate and Gould and Healey received first and second prizes respectively as the two best debaters. The judges were: Mr. E. W. Corwin, Chestertown; Mr. S. C. Coursey, Centreville; and Dr. T. H. Fowler, Chestertown.

The Declamation Contest fo rthe Simpers' medals was held on Tuesday. There were seven participants. Mr. E. K. Reed and Mr. Townsend Howes received the first and second prizes respectively. The judges were: Mr. A. H. Covey, Rev. Omar E. Jones and W. F. Russell, Jr., all from Chestertown. Excellent music was furnished by Hilcher's Orchestra of Baltimore.

The Dramtic Association presented "The New Boy" on Tuesday at 8 p. m. This probably establishes a record in the history of the Dramatic Association. Under the competent instruction of Dr. C. P. Gould and Mrs. J. W. Jones the cast was enabled to learn its parts in the short period of ten days. Learning the words was not the only thing. The cast mastered the stage directions wonderfully well. The cast, with one exception, was the one that took part in "What Happened To Jones." Due to the fact that the actors have had some previous practice in the early part of the year, they were in this last play at their best. There was a large and appreciative audience that made the cast feel at home. After the play the members of the show, on behalf of the Dramatic Association, presented to Mrs. J. W. Jones an order on Baltimore for a flower dish, in appreciation of the services she rendered the association in presenting its plays. The cast included: Archibald Rennick, Austin P. Wheeler; Dr. Candy, LL. D., Conrad M. Wingate; Mrs. Renmick, Grace Nickerson; Felix Roach, Samuel Jenness; Nancy Roach, Mary Simpers; Theodore de Brizac, Earl Reed; Susan, Louise Leaverton; Bullock Major, Morris Levy; and Mr. Stuffer, Clarence Bankard.

The Commencement proper was held on Wednesday morning at 10.30. The academic procession consisted of the Board of Visitors, distinguished guests, factulty and graduates. Honorary degrees were bestowed on Rev. Alexander G. Cummings, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; Rev. J. Wilson Sutton, of New York; and Rev. Arthur S. Walls, of Narbeth, Pa. The procession was in full academic costume. The following were the graduates: Frank Ayres, Jr., B. S.; William D. Gould, Jr., A. B.; Otis H. Gray, B. S.; Grace Nickerson, A. B.; Harry R. Rasin, A. B.; Stanley G. Robins, B. S.; Emory T. Roe, B.S.; Harry M. Seigenfuse, B. S.; W. David R. Straughn, B. S. Master of Arts degree was conferred upon Rev. Chas. L. Atwater and John Eisele Davis.

The degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred upon Rev. Alexander G. Cummins, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; Rev. J. Wilson Sutton, of New York City; Rev. Arthur S. Walls, of Narberth, Pa.

The following is the complete program for the Commencement proper on Wednesday:

Academic Procession; march, Le Prophet, Meyerbeer; invocation, Rev. Arthur S. Walls; overture, Bells of Scotland, orchestra, St. Saens; Second Honor Oration and Salutatory, William Dunbar Gould, 3d, Cambridge, Md.; selection, Il Trovatore, Verdi, orchestra; First Honor Oration and Veledictory, Stanley Godman Robins, Crisfield, Md.; selection, Lohengrin, Wagner, orchestra; address to graduating class, Rep. Otis Wingo, of Arkansas; conferring of degrees and awarding of prizes; selection, Lucia Di Lammermoor, Donizetti; benediction, Rev. J. Wilson Sutton. Hilcher's Orchestra, of Baltimore, furnished the music.

After the commencement exercises the Alumni held one of the greatest gatherings in the history of the college. Great interest was shown in this meeting.

In the evening one of the greatest W. C. alumni balls ever held took place in the College gymnasium. Five hundred invitations were sent out and, the night being an ideal one, the gymnasium was crowded.

The following prizes were awarded at the College:

Philadelphia Alumni Medal for best all-around Senior, Stanley Godman Robins.

Visitors and Governors Medal for highest average in the Junior Class, Helen Beck Rasin.

Simpers Medal for Declamation, first honor, Earl K. Reed; second honor, Townsend Howes.

Samuel Towner Rogers Prizes for debating: first honor, W. D. Gould; second honor, Thomas Francis Healey.

Francisco Hevia Chemistry Cup, A. P. Wheeler.

Helen Blanche Jones received an average of over 90 in all studies for year and was distinguished in scholarship.

The following students received an average of between 80 and 90 for the year and were meritorious in scholarship: Frank Ayres, Anthony Bischopf, Albert Edwin Goodrich, William Dunbar Gould, Morris Zachhary Levy, Elmer L.
