CHAPTER 295.

AN ACT to Incorporate the Town of Hampstead, Carroll County.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the inhabitants of the town of Hampstead, Carroll county, shall be and they are hereby made a body corporate, by the name and style of the "Mayor and Council of Hampstead," and by that name shall have perpetual succession. May sue and be sued. May purchase, hold, sell and dispose of real, personal and mixed property, for the use and benefit of said town, and may have and use a Common Seal, which may be broken or altered at pleasure.

Section 2. And be it enacted, That the limits of said town shall be as follows: Beginning at the corner on the northwest side of the Baltimore and Hanover turnpike, where the Baltimore and Harrisburg Railroad crosses said Turnpike at the north end of the village of Hampstead, and running with said Railroad southward to a point south of the Houcksville Road, opposite the lane running eastward from said Turnpike on the line of the properties of Charles Richards and Howard Kemp, and thence eastward to the centre of the Hanover Turnpike, along said lane, three hundred feet from the centre of said Turnpike; thence northward parallel with the said Baltimore and Hanover Turnpike to said Baltimore and Harrisburg Railroad; thence southwestward along said Railroad to the place of beginning.

Section 3. And be it enacted, That they, the Mayor and Council of Hampstead, shall be seven in number, and shall be elected on the first Monday in May, annually. On and after the first Monday in May, Anno Domini, Eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, all male inhabitants of said town, citizens of the United States, above twenty-one years of age, who shall have bona-fide residence in said town six months, next preceding the election at which they shall offer to vote. And all male citizens of this State, over the age of twenty-one years, shall be entitled to vote for said Mayor and Council of said town, and be eligible to the position of Mayor or Council.

Section 4. And be it enacted, That the said Mayor and Council shall, at least two weeks before the time herein fixed for the said Corporation Election of each and every year after the first Monday of May, Eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, give notice of the time and place of the Election of Mayor and Council for said town by printed notices, put up in at least three of the most public places in said town, and at some meeting prior to the first Monday in May in each year after the present year, shall appoint three persons, citizens of said town, to act as Judges of said election, who, before acting as such, shall qualify in same manner as Judges of Election for State and County officers in this State are required to qualify, before a Justice of the Peace, and shall open the Polls at two o'clock, p. m., on the first Monday in May in each year, after the present, and close the same at six o'clock, p. m., and the person voted for at the said election for Mayor, being a citizen of the State of Maryland, who shall receive the largest number of votes shall be Mayor of said town, and the six citizens receiving the highest number of votes respectively shall be Councilmen for said town for the ensuing year, and until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

Section 5. And be it enacted, If at any election for Mayor or Council it shall appear by the certificates of the Judges of said election, or a majority of them, that any two persons, voted for as Mayor or Councilmen have received the same number of votes, if there be one or more Councilmen elected, he or they shall immediately qualify as Councilmen and shall proclaim a new election to fill the vacancy or vacancies occasioned by the failure to elect, and shall give at least five days notice of said election, which shall be held in the same manner as the regular elections are held.

Section 6. Be it enacted, That in case of death, refusal to act, resignation or disqualification of any of the Council, the remaining Council shall direct an Election to be held to fill such vacancy, and the Council shall give at least five days notice of all elections by hand bill put up in at least three of the most public places in said town.

Section 7. And be it enacted, That the Mayor and Council, so elected, may meet and adjourn from time to time as they may think proper, and shall, at their first meeting, which shall be within one month after their election, choose a Secretary and Treasurer, not necessarily from their own number, who shall continue in office during the term for which said Mayor and Council are elected, unless sooner removed by said Mayor and Council, and require and take from the Treasurer a bond in a penalty to be fixed by said Mayor and Council for the faithful discharge of his duty as said Treasurer, and said Secretary and Treasurer shall receive such compensation for their services as said Mayor and Council shall determine, but said Mayor and Councilmen shall not receive any compensation for their services.

Section 8. And be it enacted, That the aforesaid Mayor and Council shall elect a Constable or Constables, an Assessor and Collector of taxes, and such other officers as may be necessary for the proper management of the corporate business of said town. The Mayor shall be President ex-officio of said Council, and the said Mayor and Council shall do and perform everything required or allowed by similar corporate bodies in the State of Maryland, and they are hereby invested with all the powers, and required to perform all the duties authorized or required to be done by or under this Act.

Section 9. And be it enacted, That said Mayor and Council, and all other officers of said town, shall, before entering upon the duties of their respective offices, severally take the following oath: "I do solemnly swear that I will faithfully execute the office of —— to the best of my knowledge and ability, without favor, affection or partiality."

Section 10. And be it enacted, That the said Mayor and Council shall have the power to pass ordinances to suppress all disorderly meetings, to prohibit the use of profane or indecent language, drunkenness, fighting and disorderly conduct; to prevent the running at large in said town of any horses, cattle, mules, swine, geese, ducks, goats and dogs; to prevent any immoderate driving through the streets of said town of any animal, either in harness, under the saddle or without harness or saddle, so as to endanger the lives, limbs or property of the citizens, or disturb the quiet enjoyment of the streets and thoroughfares, and to prevent indecent exhibitions of any kind in said town, and may impose fines, penalties and forfeitures for the violations of any of said ordinances; but no fine or penalty shall exceed the sum of $50, and all fines and penalties imposed by said ordinances shall be collected by suit before a Justice of the Peace, in the name of the said corporation, as other small debts are collected, and in case of default of payment of said fines and penalties, and costs attending collection of same, the offender may be imprisoned in the county jail for a term not exceeding sixty days, in the same manner that commitments are made for fines imposed by the Circuit Court of the Judicial district in which said town is situated, on conviction for misdemeanor, but the said Mayor, or a majority of said Council, shall have power to remit or release said fines, penalties, forfeitures and costs, or any part thereof, at their discretion; but any party fined, or subject to a fine or forfeiture, may, within five days after the same shall be imposed and judgment recovered, supercede or stay the same for thirty days by giving ample security to the Justice of the Peace; and said party shall have a right to appeal within five days thereafter to the Circuit Court for Carroll county, upon giving ample security for the payment of whatever fine and costs may be adjudged against him in said Circuit Court.

Section 11. Be it enacted, That the said Mayor and Council shall have full power to make all such regulations and ordinances not inconsistent with the laws and constitution of this State, as from time to time they may deem wise, equitable and expedient for the comfort, health, convenience and prosperity of said town and its inhabitant; for the prevention and removal of nuisances and the preservation of health, and the suppression of vice and immorality within the limits of said town; to provide by ordinance for the immediate arrest, without warrant, of any person violating any town ordinance by riotous or disorderly conduct, or driving or riding through the streets, where, in the judgment of the Mayor or constable of the town, the delay necessary to procure a warrant would be dangerous to the peace and quiet of the town, or the lives, limbs or property of the citizens.

Section 12. And be it enacted, That the said Mayor and Council shall have full power and authority annually to appoint a constable, whose duty it shall be to preserve the peace and good order of said town; and for this purpose he is hereby vested with the same power and authority as any constable may now have under the laws of this State, and shall receive such compensation for his services as the said Mayor and Council shall deem just; and the said Mayor and Council may, when they deem it necessary, appoint additional constables with like authority, at the discretion of said Mayor and Council.

Section 13. And be it enacted, That the Mayor and Council of said town shall have power to levy and collect taxes in said town, not exceeding in any one year twenty cents on one hundred dollars on the assessable property of said town; and they shall once in five years, or oftener if they think proper, cause a new assessment of the real and personal property within the limits of the town, and for that purpose shall appoint one of the qualified voters of said town, being a freeholder therein, to make such assessments, who, before proceeding in the execution of his duties, shall take oath of office herein prescribed; and he shall take as a basis of said assessment the market value of said property, according to his best skill and judgment; and the said assessor shall return to the said Mayor and Council a fair copy of his assessment, in a well bound book, within one month after his appointment, and shall receive for his work as assessor such compensation as the said Mayor and Council shall allow; and the said Mayor and Council shall have power to alter and amend the said assessment whenever they think that justice requires it; and the Mayor and Council may also appoint a tax collector, whose duty it shall be to collect the taxes on said assessment, and pay the same over to the treasurer of said town; the tax collector, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall, in addition to taking the usual oath of office, enter into bond in a sum to be fixed by the Mayor and Council, with two sureties, who shall be tax payers of said town, conditioned to discharge his duties as tax collector faithfully, and pay over all monies which may come into his hands by virtue of his said office, said bond to be approved by the said Mayor and Council.

Section 14. And be it enacted, That the Mayor of the said corporation shall, in virtue of his office, have and exercise within the limits of said town all the jurisdiction and power of a Justice of the Peace, except as to the recovery of small debts; he may call on any officer of the town intrusted with the receipt and expenditure of public monies for a statement of his accounts as often as he shall see proper; he shall see that the ordinances are faithfully executed, and report to the Council at their stated meetings the general state of the town, and may call special meetings of the Council whenever he may see proper.

Section 15. And be it enacted, That the said Mayor and Council shall have power to establish the limits and width of the streets of said town, and to improve the same, and to remove obstructions therefrom; and may open new streets, lanes and alleys, and provide for the payment of damages and expenses incurred thereby.

Section 16. And be it enacted, That the Justice of the Peace now or then resident in said town shall, immediately upon the passage of this act, or as soon thereafter as the fact may officially come to his knowledge, give notice, as thereinbefore provided for said Mayor and Council to do, of the holding of a corporation election for the Mayor and Council, herein created a body corporate; and such officers chosen at such election shall serve until the following first Monday in May, or until their successors shall be elected as herein provided.

Section 17. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

CHAPTER 302.

AN ACT, To empower and authorize the Mayor and Common Council of Manchester, Carroll County, Maryland, to Subscribe to the Capital Stock of the Manchester Branch Rail Road the sum of Fifteen Thousand Dollars or less; said Rail Road Branch to be built from Manchester to Maple Grove Station, on the Baltimore and Hanover Division of the Western Maryland Rail Road

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Mayor and Common Council of Manchester, Carroll County, be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to subscribe to the Capital Stock of the Manchester Branch Rail Road the sum of Fifteen Thousand Dollars.

Section 2. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of appropriating the said fifteen thousand dollars, the Mayor and Common Council may issue bonds upon the real property within the limits of said Municipal Corporation to the amount of fifteen thousand dollars or less, bearing interest not exceeding six per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, which bonds shall not be subject to taxation for State and County taxes, or municipal.

Section 3. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of paying the interest on said bonds as it may become due, the Mayor and Common Council shall levy by assessment on all the real property within the limits of said Municipal Corporation, such amount of taxes as may be required to pay the interest on said bonds, and also to constitute a sinking fund for the redemption of said bonds.

Section 4. And be it enacted, That the bonds which may be issued as aforesaid shall be payable in not more than twenty years from date, reserving the privilege of paying them at any time, and shall not be sold or disposed of at less than par value, and the citizens of said Corporation shall have the refusal of purchasing said bond.

Section 5. And be it enacted, That at any municipal election to be held in Manchester at such time and place as may be fixed by an ordinance of the Mayor and Common Council of Manchester, or at any especial election that may be called by the Mayor and Common Council, there may be written or printed on the ballots of the legal qualified voters at said election, the words "For Rail Road Subscription," or against "Rail Road Subscription," and if a majority of the ballots cast shall contain the words, "For Rail Road Subscription," then this Act shall become operative and binding, but if a majority of said ballots shall contain the words, "Against Rail Road Subscription," this Act shall be void and of no effect, and the judges of said election shall return to the Mayor and Common Council of Manchester the number of votes cast for "Rail Road Subscription," and against "Rail Road Subscription," respectively and the said Mayor and Common Council shall by their proclamation announce the result thereof.

Section 6. And be it enacted, That the assessment on said real property within the limits of said municipal corporation shall be made by five, not less than three, competent citizens, who shall reside within the corporation, and be possessed of real estate free from all encumbrance; and the said real property shall not be assessed higher than its cash value; and the said assessors shall be appointed by the Mayor and Common Council, and shall qualify before a Justice of the Peace before entering upon said duty, and after said assessors shall have performed their duty, they shall report to the Mayor and Common Council of said corporation, when the Mayor shall announce the amount of assessment to the citizens of Manchester, at a public meeting to be called by the Mayor.

Section 7. And be it enacted, also, That any person or persons living within the said corporation, who is not possessed of real estate, shall pay a tax on his or their personal property, at the same rate per centum as paid on real estate, which tax shall be used by said municipal corporation, same as that collected on said real estate; and the same assessors appointed by the said Mayor and Common Council to assess real estate shall also assess the personal property, owned by persons not possessed with real estate, within the said corporation.

Section 8. And be it enacted, That all of the above said taxes shall become due on the first day of January of each year, and if not paid when due interest will be charged until paid.

Section 9. And be it enacted, That the assessors appointed shall be empowered to administer oath to property holders, both real and personal, in the said corporation, whilst in discharge of their duty.

Section 10. And be it enacted, That the Mayor and Common Council shall assess any and all property, from time to time, which may arise in the said corporation after the said assessment has been made by said appointed assessors, which taxes shall be used for the same purpose as those obtained from the regular assessments.

Section 11. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

CASHMERE,

ever popular, and more so this season than ever before.

☞ We'll give you a 36-inch CASHMERE, HENRIETTA FINISH, at 25 CENTS. Just a quarter for a new and lovely Cashmere sold everywhere for 35 and 40 cents.

☞ WE'LL give you something finer—something distinctly our own—at 50 CENTS. In Philadelphia and New York the same goods are sold at 65 cents.

☞ And for a magnificent 46-inch Henrietta—something as rich as it is rare—will only charge for this week $1. You cannot buy the same anywhere else for less than $1.50, and we doubt if you get it at all.

☞ In Tricots, PLAIDS, LADIES' CLOTH CHECKS, and every description of Dress Fabrics, we'll make the same sweep during this opening week. We like to begin the season with low prices—the very lowest that can be made—so that those who buy early will get as much for their dollars as those who buy late.

☞ In Trimmings of every description we're going to give you your own way. It's hardly worth while quoting prices—when you buy the Dress of us for a trifle you can have the Trimmings for a mere song.

☞ We want you to call, if only to look around you and see what we've got. If you don't want to buy now you'll know where to come when you do want to buy. We want to meet you, and we assure you we'll treat you right—much better than any store in town. We have always done so and we shall continue to do so. Tell your friends who may not happen to see this that our SPRING OPENING takes place to-day, and be with us early and late. EVERYBODY is welcome.
