THE PRIMARY ELECTION

Friday next, Sept. 9, will be primary election day throughout the state. We urge upon our voters, both men and women, to go to the polls and express their choice between the various candidates, contesting for position on the regular Democratic ticket. If you do not vote in the primaries on Friday, and some candidate is nominated contrary to your wishes, don't complain about him. The primary is the place to select candidates for nomination to office and if you do not avail yourself of the privilege of helping to nominate the candidates, that is your fault. If you have any choice between the candidates seeking nomination go to the polls and exercise the rights given you by the primary law and then, like a good citizen, and a true Democrat, abide by the results of the primary. By all means attend the primary on Friday next.

CHAUTAUQUA IN PROGRESS

Tenth Annual Series Of Entertainments Attracting Unusual Interest This Year

The tenth annual Chautauqua began on the Court House green, in Chestertown Thursday afternoon and will continue until next Wednesday evening. Unusual interest is being manifested in it by our people.

A sufficient number of season tickets have been sold to make the entertainments a success.

In spite of the sweltering heat of Thursday afternoon, the tent was well filled and the program well enjoyed.

Senator Wm. F. Russell, the chairman of the guarantors, in a short address gave the Chautauqua a hearty welcome to Chestertown, which was responded to by Mr. Harry J. Schulman, Supt. of the Chautauqua, who will lecture on "The Town That Keeps Well," "Hidden Possibilities," and "The Parable of the Automobile." Four musicians rendered good vocal and instrumental selections during the afternoon.

Preceding the evening's entertainment, Chestertown was presented with a banner and a certificate showing that we have had Chautauqua here for ten years. The first guarantors of the Chautauqua were Messrs. L. B. Russell, A. L. Sparks, H. F. Jefferson, C. C. Jones and T. Kemp Bordley, the latter deceased.

Following the presentation of the above, the Four Artists entertained the crowd, which was followed by a fine lecture by Mr. Elliott A. Boyl on "The Advantage of a Handicap."

Yesterday, Friday, the following program was rendered: 9 a. m., Junior Chautauqua; 2.30 p. m., lecture, Chautauqua Supt.; 3.15 p. m., concert, Boston Musicians' Quintet; 8.00 p. m., concert, Boston Musicians' Quintet; 8.45 p. m., lecture, "All the World and Ourselves," Dr. Frank Bohn.

The following is the program for the balance of the week:

Saturday—9 a. m., Junior Chautauqua; 2.30 p. m., entetrainment, The Pilgrim Entertainers; 3.15 p. m., illustrated lecture, "The New Power in Southern Europe," Drew Pearson; 8 p. m., A Feature Program, comedy-drama, "Nothing But the Truth."

Sunday—Special services at the tent in the evening.

Monday—9 a. m., Junior Chautauqua; 2.30 p. m., lecture, Chautauqua Supt.; 3.15 p. m., concert, McGrath-Knox Entertainers; evening, same entertainers; and lecture by Dr. Gregory Zilboorg, "Russia in Revolution."

Tuesday—9 a. m., Junior Chautauqua; 2.30 p. m., concert, Operatic Orchestral Club; 3.15 p. m., lecture, "News Headlines—An Interpretation," Dr. Jesse H. Holmes. Evening, the "Bohemian Girl" will be rendered with a full cast, chorus and orchestra.

Wednesday—9 a. m., Junior Chautauqua; 2.30 p. m., Junior Chautauqua Pageant; 3 p. m., "Punch and Judy," Will H. Smith. Evening, The Dunbar White Hussars. Vocal and instrumental music.
