THE Del-Mar-Via and the Maryland State Editorial Associations will meet at Easton Monday and Tuesday next. The associations will be the guests of the Easton Star-Democrat and the citizens of Easton. A fine program has been arranged and a pleasant and profitable meeting is anticipated.

THERE is no doubt as to what the Democratic platform stands for which was adopted at the convention in Baltimore Tuesday. The women of the state were prominent in the convention and had much to do with making the platform upon which the party is to stand. The platform is broad, constructive, conservative, economical and fair. Wm. S. Gordy, Jr., candidate for Comptroller, was heartily endorsed. He is the unanimous choice of the party for this important position, for which, in experience, ability and high character, he is pre-eminently fitted. A strong appeal is made to the voters of the state to elect a Democratic General Assembly, in order that the pledges for constructive legislation made in this platform may be faithfully carried out.

In the United States District Court for the District of Maryland, in the matter of Harry T. Richardson, bankrupt No. — in bankruptcy.
