How to Raise Turkeys.

George E. Barney, in the Country Gentleman. tells how he raises turkeys: The great trouble in raising young turkeys is in the first two weeks of their lives, providing they come from healthy, strong parents. As a rule they are overfed while young, with food not adapted to them, and not kept warm and dry, but allowed to get chilled and wet. I have no trouble to raise as large a percentage of turkeys as I can of any other domestic fowls. My method is to allow the hen to lay out her hatching, and let her sit as soon as she is disposed, restoring to her from seventeen to nineteen eggs, according to her capacity to cover them. As soon as she is through hatching I put her on the barn floor, with plenty of food for herself, but giving nothing to the young for the first twenty-four hours, and then only bread composed of one-half wheat and one-half Indian meal, mixed or softened with milk for a few days—then add curds one-third, and only a little at once—not leaving a quantity by them to gorge themselves upon. With this care I raise large flocks of turkeys, hard to beat.

Dr. J. A. Lintner, the well known entomologist, of New York, says there are in the world 320,000 species of insects; 25,000 of these belong to the United States, and about 25,000 prey upon the productions of man; 7,000 or 8,000 of these could be considered as being fruit pests. On the apple alone 210 species are known, and probably more extended investigation will increase the number to 300. The future successful fruit grower should study entomology, and be acquainted with insects and their habits, so as to be able to tell friends from foes. Professor Lintner recommends the study of feeding and habits as a guide to the use of insecticides, which should also receive notice.

A correspondent writes in the Scientific American that the worst toothache, or neuralgia, coming from the teeth, may be speedily and delightfully ended by the application of a small bit of cotton, saturated in a strong solution of ammonia, to the defective tooth. The same journal also suggests the following as effective in the extermination of rats: Soak one or more newspapers, knead them into a pulp, dip the pulp into a suitable solution of oxalic acid. While wet, force the pulp into any crevice or hole made by mice or rats. Result—a disgusted retreat, with sour snouts and feet, on the part of the would-be intruders. Probatum est.

If cotten is king, as one of the papers used to be fond of saying, surely paper is queen, for its reign is spreading over all the earth, and when some of the new inventions are perfected we shall find it taking the place of nearly every other material. Piano keys and knife handles are among the improbable uses of this apparently inappropriate substance, and it is said that a man is about to patent paper plates for false teeth.

As a green manurial crop sow four bushels of the Southern cow pea in May on an acre of ground. After it shall have begun to blossom, and become green and bushy, turn the crop under, using a two-horse plow, with a chain, for pressing down the vines. It decomposes quickly, and if twenty bushels of lime be then applied the land will be suitable for grass.

A burn becomes less painful the moment air is excluded from it. For simple burns, oil, or the white of an egg, can be used. One part of carbolic acid to six parts of olive-oil is found to be invaluable in most cases, slight or severe, and the first layer of lint should not be removed till the cure is complete, but saturated by the application of fresh outer layers from time to time.

As soon as the cabbages are well under way they will be visited by hundreds of white butterflies (the parent of the cabbage worm). Every farmer and gardener should endeavor to kill the white butterflies, either by employing some one to kill them as they alight or by trapping them in some manner. They are easily caught.

Go over the orchard at least once a month and search for the borers, or they will bore in too far to be reached. Remove the earth from each tree and examine the trunk carefully. The borer may be known by the exudations of the tree where it enters, and also by the "chips" it throws out.

In a severe sprain of the ankle immerse the joint as soon as possible in a pail of hot water, and keep it there for fifteen or twenty minutes. After removing it keep it bandaged with hot cloths wrung out of water, or rum and water.

There is always more or less dust, dandruff or filth on the udder of a cow, and no cow should be milked until the udder and teats have been carefully washed with warm water and wiped with a clean towel.

Peach trees that have been annually and heavily banked with wood ashes to keep out the borers have been more free from yellows than those not so protected.

Spring Has Come

—AT—

F. J. DEVILBISS',

New Windsor, Md.

Another spring has opened its contrasting beauties before us, and with it comes the whirl and excitement of spring trade. The ladies are on the alert looking for the novel and cheap. Our line of goods to-day stands unsurpassed. Everything was purchased in New York and from first hands. Buying on a spot cash basis, and from the commercial centre of the United States, if we do not sell you cheap it is our fault. To-day we can show you the handsomest and cheapest line of in Carroll county. We fear neither pioneer nor prestige. No one can show as pretty a line of Armure Cloths, Henrietta Cloths, Tricots, Cashmeres, Plushes, Felts, as low as ours. Get samples elsewhere and compare. We have money to squander that our $1 Black Silk is not equaled, never has been, and times must be worse than now if it ever will be. Yard-wide Satines at 11½c. Good Dress Goods 5c. Good Calico 4c. and 5c. Ginghams, good, 5c. All Linen Toweling, 6½c.

CARPETS AND MATTING.

Splendid Matting at 12½c. per yard. Splendid Brussels at 60c., worth 75c. Rag Carpet at 20c., 23c., 27c. No one can meet these prices.

The prettiest line of

ever seen, New York styles. Remember Slesinger's Shoes for Tender Feet. They have taken the lead here. As a crusher, we have a lot of Women's Button Shoes that we intend to mark down to a starvation price of $1. Another lot, bought in New York, at $1.25, sold everywhere at $1.75.

HATS! HATS! HATS!

Newest styles, lowest prices.

We have a job lot of CORSETS at 50c., sold everywhere at $1. They will soon be gone. Verily, I say unto you, Ball's Corsets lead the world for comfort and durability.

Don't forget Thompson, the tailor. He is now putting up Spring Suits that take your breath. He is making havoc of our fancy styles of Cassimeres, which maketh glad the hearts of the young.

TOBACCO AND CIGARS.

Here is the best Navy Tobacco at 30c. per pound. Cigars that will soothe your care and brighten the fancy at $1 per hundred.

In fine, we ask you to call on us, look around,—we will all be glad to see you. If you don't see the sledge-hammer bargains, one of us must pay the penalty.

Very Respectfully,
FRANK J. DEVILBISS.

N. B.—We want 10,000 pounds Lard, 10,000 dozens Eggs, 10,000 pounds Wool. Will pay you highest price. oc-8
