COURT ADJOURNS

Supposedly Long Session Concluded In Short Order By The Court

The fall session of the Circuit Court was concluded Tuesday.

The report of the Grand Jury was as follows:

To The Honorable Judges, Circuit Court of Kent County, Maryland.

The Grand Jury having begun their sitting Monday, October 17, 1921, beg to report as follows:

We have examined two constables and eighty-three witnesses. We have found thirty-three presentments and thirty true bills.

We visited and inspected the jail and wish to call attention to unsound condition of the locks, floors and ceilings. We spent considerable time investigating the sale of intoxicating liquor in the county and while we were unable to find but one true bill we would suggest that the attention of the federal authorities be called to the fact that it is our belief that intoxicating liquor is being manufactured in this county.

Our investigations and business in general have been greatly retarded by the fact that witnesses are often not present when we need them.

We thank the Court and their officers for the courtesies extended during our session.

MERRICK CLEMENTS, Secty.
HARRY GRIFFITH, Foreman.

The following cases were tried after we went to press last week:

State vs. John Byrd, charged with assault; verdict not guilty.

State vs. James Smallwood, presented for larceny; plea of guilty entered; paroled for 2 years in custody of Lawrence Stevens.

State vs. Stewart Johnson, presented for larceny; plea of guilty entered; sentenced to 60 days in county jail.

State vs. Maurice Foster, presented for larceny; plea of guilty entered; paroled in custody of Miss Louise Maloy for one year.

State vs. Edward Johnson, presented for larceny; court trial; verdict guilty; paroled in custody of Edward G. Johnson.

State vs. Charles Morris, presented for attempt to rape; court trial; verdict not guilty.

State vs. Rosie Rodgers, presented for bigamy; jury trial; verdict guilty.

State vs. Ivory Johnson, presented for receiving stolen goods; verdict guilty; sentenced to 12 months in the House of Correction.

State vs. Ottis Wesley, presented for receiving stolen goods; court trial; verdict guilty; sentenced to House of Correction for 12 months.

State vs. Henry Johnson, presented for larceny; plea of guilty entered.

State vs. Maryland Redding, presented for larceny; plea of guilty entered; paroled in custody of Harry W. White for three years.

State vs. Oscar Warrick, presented for jail breaking; verdict not guilty.

State vs. Bothwell Towson, presented for larceny; court trial; verdict guilty; sentenced to 12 months in the House of Correction.

He was about 60 years of age and leaves three children, also one sister and two brothers. Funeral was held on Sunday at Union M. E. Church, conducted by Rev. G W. Stallings, and interment in Union cemetery. The pall bearers were G. L. and J. T. Bowers, Charles Mench, Alonzo Fowler, H. P. Smith and Joe Fowler. Undertaker C. L. Dodd.

Martha Isabel, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jacquette, died of acute paralysis at 1 p. m., Oct. 20, at their home at Rock Hall. The funeral was held Saturday noon at Wesley Chapel where the little girl was a member of the Sunday School. At Elementary School she was in the second grade. Beautiful floral tributes were received from both schools and many warm friends. The sermon was preached by Rev. A. F. T. Raum and the deceased interred. John A. and Charles Jacquette, of Kent, and Curtis Medcalf, of Baltimore, and Elwood Burgess, of Kent, acted as pall bearers. T. H. Casey undertaker.

Mrs. Ida Thompson, widow of the late Lemont Thompson, and daughter-in-law of Judge Henry Thompson, and Mrs. Thomposn, died at her home in Rock Hall Tuesday morning, at 3.30 o'clock, after a long illness of tuberculosis. She leaves a daughter, Alice, her mother, Mrs. Mary E. Warner, and a number of brothers and sisters. The funeral was held on Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, at the M. E. Church, conducted by Rev. T. C. Smoot. Interment in Wesley Chapel. Undertaker C. L. Dodd.

Thomas Dunn, the oldest white man in Kent county, died at his home near Massey, Monday, in his ninety-seventh year. He had been a regular patron of the creamery and up to within a few months went to the village regularly. He loved to cut wood and kept up his active habits on the farm to the end. He died sitting in his chair. He leaves five sons and a daughter.

Enoch Pleasanton, W. High st., says: "I was in a bad condition with kidney complaint and my back gave out and ached so I couldn't get around. There was no let up to the constant aching and every move I made caused me to suffer. My kidneys were disordered and very irregular in action. Doan's Kidney Pills soon brought relief from the distressing ailments. My back is now well and strong and my kidneys don't trouble me. I give the credit to Doan's and advise anyone having kidney trouble to try them.
