PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

Misses Harriet and Ann Welch visited in Philadelphia this week.

Mrs. John Roberts was a Baltimore visitor for several days this week.

Mrs. M. C. Ringgold, of Salisbury, is a Chestertown visitor.

Mrs. Simon Westcott and Miss Estalena Derringer spent some time in Baltimore during the past week.

Baseball Notes

Washington College will line up again Western Maryland College today on Washington Field. A big attendance is desired and looked for. On next Tuesday Washington College will play St. John's on Washington Field. A big crowd always attends this game. Both should be hard-fough baseball games.

A team of Chestertown baseball players gave the Washington College baseball team a good practice game on Saturday last, with the result in doubt almost to the last. C. Usilton was on the mound for the town team and did exceptionally well, being followed by Messrs. Woodland and Archibald, both of whom it may be said also did well. The final score was 4 to 2 in favor of W. C. The running catch by H. Usilton of a long foul fly was easily the feature of the game and showed that the star first sacker in still in good playing form. He will probably play in the Shore League this summer.

Washington College took a big stride toward the state baseball championship on Thursday at Annapolis by defeating St. Johns College by the score of 5 to 2. The teriffic batting of first-baseman Duffy, for W. C., who made a triple, a double and two singles, in four times at bat, was the feature of the contest. Wright was in fine form and held the Cadets at bay at all times.

He has followed the water for 57 years. He was proprietor of the Riverview Cottage for a great many years. He leaves a wife, who was Miss Ida Moore. His funeral was held at his late residence in Betterton on Friday afternoon at 2 p. m., conducted by Rev. Truman Smith and Rev. S. S. Hepburn, interment in Still Pond cemetery. The pall bearers were: Mr. James Crew, Capt. Geo. Moore, A. E. Horsey, Ellwood Bramble, Thos. Silcox, Charles Brice. Undertaker B. R. Fellows.

Capt. McDade was the uncle of Senator A. D. McDade and Councilman J. G. Blain McDade, of Marcus Hook. He was born in Marcus Hook Feb. 9, 1844, and was in his 79th year. His late brother, Capt. Joseph Walker McDade, and a former select councilman of Chester and he were twins. The resemblance to each other was so striking that it was with difficulty that they could be distinguished and many amusing incidents in their lives necessarily followed. Both were well known in all the seaports of the United States as the twin captains.

COMMISSIONERS OF CHESTERTOWN

Program of Photo-Plays To Be Shown At The
LYCEUM THEATRE
CHESTERTOWN
Showing Only The Best In Motion Pictures

Friday and Saturday, April 28 and 29—Jackie Coogan in "PECK'S BAD BOY." Hooray Kids! The baddest boy in the world is coming to town. Little Jackie Coogan was a good youngster in "The Kid," thereby endearing himself to millions of theatregoers; but oh my, how he has changed! They say you will like him just as much however. Grownups will enjoy this picture as well as the younger folk. Don't miss it—Come early. Two shows Saturday night starting at 7.15 and 8.45.

Monday and Tuesday, May 1 and 2—Eugene O'Brien in CLAY DOLLARS. A mose amusing and absorbing play of life and big events in a small town. Also Selznick and International News reels.

Wednesday and Thursday, May 3 and 4—NORMA TALMADGE in "THE WONDERFUL THING". It's something new for Norma. To find comedy in drama—to find her at one moment a lovable madcap, at the nest a wife who knows her money buys her husband's kisses—to find smiles to banish your tears—those are the wonderful things you'll find in "The Wonderful Thing." It is one of the cleverest combinations of humor, comedy, pathos and tragedy that has found its way to the screen in a long time. It was taken from the stage play of the same name, written by Lillian Trimble Bradley and Forrest Halsey, which had a wonderful success on Broadway and on tour.

Friday and Saturday, May 5 and 6—MABEL NORMAND in "MOLLY O". Here is the photo-play that brings the joy of living, the happiness of music. Human as humanity itself. A picture that will please everyone. Father, Mother and the children. The best picture Tantalizing Mabel ever appeared in. Better even than "Mickey".

Don't Miss This One.

Two shows Saturday night starting at 7:15 and 8:45.

☞ Children must occupy front seats or pay full fare.

☞ COMING— "WAY DOWN EAST."
