REPUBLICAN PROSPECTS.

The Situation Clearly Outlined and the Probabilities of Success Shown.

From New York SUN, Ind. Dem.

The Republican presidential ticket is a ticket shrewdly and skillfully selected, and when its points of political excellence are perceived the Democrats will find themselves obliged to make a more vigorous and active fight than they now seem inclined to do. General Harrison's nomination depends for success in November on a very simple electoral calculation.

In 1884 Blaine and Logan, despite Mugwump defection, carried the following States by pretty substantial majorities:

		Electors			Electors
Nevada	1,615	3	Nebraska	22,512	5
Oregon	2,256	3	Massachus'ts	24,372	14
N. Hampshire	4,063	4	Illinois	24,827	22
Rhode Island	6,639	4	Ohio	31,796	23
Colorado	8,563	3	Minnesota	41,620	7
California	13,128	8	Michigan	42,834	13
Wisconsin	14,608	11	Kansas	64,274	9
Iowa	19,773	13	Penns'lvania	81,019	30
Maine	20,060	6	Total Electors		182
Vermont	22,183	4

There are in all 401 electoral votes, and the winning ticket must get not less than 201. Mr. Blaine was just 19 short in 1884, and should General Harrison do as well in the Republican States, he will need just that number. Of these Indiana, Harrison's own State, is counted on to furnish 15. Cleveland, with Hendricks running for vice-president, carried it in 1884 by 6,512, but there was then a Greenback vote of 8,293 and a Prohibition vote of 3,028. Harrison will certainly be stronger in Indiana than Blaine was four years ago, and the death of Mr. Hendricks has deprived the Democracy of that State of its most conspicuous, respected and efficient leader. At the last State election in Indiana, that of 1886, the Democrats were beaten by 3,324.

The 15 electoral votes of Indiana would leave the Republicans within four of the number required to elect. These are expected from the State of Connecticut, which has always been remarkably close and which was carried by Mr. Cleveland in 1884 by a meagre plurality of 1,282, with a Prohibition vote of 2,489, the greater portion of which will probably fall back into the Republican column this year. Connecticut is a high tariff State, and went against Hancock in 1880 by 2,656. Should the Republicans succeed, either by good management or by the projection of the tariff issue, in securing the electoral votes of Connecticut, they will have more than a majority and will be entirely independent of New York.

Under ordinary circumstances, and especially with a candidate like Gen. Harrison, whose record on the Chinese question is not popular, there would be considerable doubt of the ability of the Republicans to maintain their ascendency in the three Pacific States of Nevada, California and Oregon. But the recent election in the last-named State, when the same questions as will affect California and Nevada swelled the normal Republican majority of 2,000 to 7,000, gives a pretty fair indication of the result to be expected in November.

It will not do for the Democrats to underrate the political importance of the Harrison and Morton ticket. While its nomination makes Indiana and Connecticut, from this time on, the veritable battle-ground, New York is not withdrawn from the question, for while it is absolutely indispensable to the success of Cleveland and Thurman, its loss would by no means deprive the Republicans of their chances, or render the fight hopeless for them. They won the election of 1868 without New York and might be able to do it again.

Underlying this all is the fact that General Harrison, like General Garfield, is an Ohio man, a native of the Buckeye State, and that Morton, like Arthur, the vice-presidential nominee of the ticket of 1880, is a New Yorker. Indeed, the Republican ticket of 1888 has many points of resemblance to the Republican ticket of 1880, and, as all Democrats well remember, the latter won.

The Mugwumps are highly displeased with the re-election of William H. Barnum as chairman of the National Democratic Committee, but we would urge them not to be alarmed. If Mr. Barnum buys any mules this year he will go to some other market.

* * *

Stick a lead pencil into the sea and then suddenly pull it out. The hole it leaves gives an absolutely correct picture of the hole which the average Mugwump organ leaves in the Republican party by withdrawing from it.

* * *

The Canadian pirates and their defenders in the State Department at Washington find no comfort in the Republican platform. This is not the pirates' year. It is a Republican year.

* * *

Speaking calmly and in view of recent events we are bound to say that as a campaign banner the snuffy bandana of Bourbonism is badly off color.

* * *

The Old Roman has formally consented to ride in the Cleveland cart. He will either have to crawl under the seat or be pinched and crowded.

* * *

Pardon us for repeating it—This is a Republican year.

New Windsor, Md.

Another spring has opened its contrasting beauties before us, and with it comes the whirl and excitement of spring trade. The ladies are on the alert looking for the novel and cheap. Our line of goods to-day stands unsurpassed. Everything was purchased in New York and from first hands. Buying on a spot cash basis, and from the commercial centre of the United States, if we do not sell you cheap it is our fault. To-day we can show you the handsomest and cheapest line of

DRESS GOODS

in Carroll county. We fear neither pioneer nor prestige. No one can show as pretty a line of Armure Cloths, Henrietta Cloths, Tricots, Cashmeres, Plushes, Felts, as low as ours. Get samples elsewhere and compare. We have money to squander that our $1 Black Silk is not equaled, never has been, and times must be worse than now if it ever will be. Yard-wide Satines at 11½c. ever seen, New York styles. Remember Slesinger's Shoes for Tender Feet. They have taken the lead here. As a crusher, we have a lot of Women's Button Shoes that we intend to mark down to a starvation price of $1. Another lot, bought in New York, at $1.25, sold everywhere at $1.75.

HATS! HATS! HATS!

Newest styles, lowest prices.

We have a job lot of CORSETS at 50c., sold everywhere at $1. They will soon be gone. Verily, I say unto you, Ball's Corsets lead the world for comfort and durability.

Don't forget Thompson, the tailor. He is now putting up Spring Suits that take your breath. He is making havoc of our fancy styles of Cassimeres, which maketh glad the hearts of the young.

TOBACCO AND CIGARS.

Here is the best Navy Tobacco at 30c. per pound. Cigars that will soothe your care and brighten the fancy at $1 per hundred.

In fine, we ask you to call on us, look around,—we will all be glad to see you. If you don't see the sledge-hammer bargains, one of us must pay the penalty.
