Engines ! Shellers ! Grinders !

Three very necessary things at this season of the year. Most farmers have found out long ago that it does not pay to feed whole grain to stock. Ground feed is worth about 25 per cent more than the whole grain.

We have a complete line of Engines, Shellers and Grinders and we will be pleased to have you come in and talk the matter over with us. A few hours work on a rainy day now and then gives a supply of nutritious stock food that adds many dollars to the farmer's yearly profits. Prices are right.

—Thanksgiving Day is next Thursday, Nov. 30.

—Mr. Stockton Startt is advertising for turkeys and guineas in this issue.

—Rabbits continue to be reported scarce in practically all the covers of the county.

—Chestertown merchants are receiving their Christmas goods and will have fine displays of the same.

—Mr. Harry Rouse, of Chestertown, has secured a lucrative position at the Aberdeen Proving Grounds and is residing in Havre de Grace.

—The Milton P. Crew farm, near Kennedyville, was sold at public sale last week by W. B. Copper, trustee, to Mr. Dudley Orem for $9150.

—Kenneth Wheatley, an employee of the Marvil Package Co., at Snow Hill, was caught in a belt and killed last week.

—Mr. W. B. Strong's fine residence on Queen street and Riverside Terrace is nearly completed. They will move into same before January 1.

—The woods of Kent county are full of beautiful holly. This holly is covered with pretty red berries. It will be rememberd that last year holly had few, if any, berries.

—By making many improvements at various times during the past few months Mr. Wm. T. Hicks has greatly improved the appearance of his undertaker building on Church street.

—Messrs. Duyer Brothers began the erection of Mr. Lawrence Brown's residence on Washington avenue Tuesday morning. Several other Chestertown people will build on the same plot in the near future.

—County Commisioner J. Spencer Lapham, of near Goldsboro, Caroline County, one of the largest fruit growers on the Peninsula, is said to have cleared in the neighborhood of $5000 on grapes this year.

—The French are trying out a new fuel composed of a mixture of alcohol and gasoline. We doubt the success of this experiment, as we have seen the mixtuure fail in Chestertown quite frequently during the past few years.

—The Daughters of America on Friday afternoon presented a Bible to Flatland School, Mrs. Anna Duyer Brown, teacher. They also recently presented a Bible to the school taught by Miss Edna Kirby.

—Jerome McCauley's car and a large Nash machine, bearing a Pennsylvania license, collided Sunday in front of Dr. Thomas Williams' residence fronting the state road, about four miles from Rock Hall. Both cars were badly damaged.

—Two autos collided on the state road between Chestertown and Fairlee Sunday, forcing one of them over a three-foot embankment, causing it to turn over, making a complete wreck of the machine. The other car escaped injury.

—Approximately 93,000 persons last their lives in this country from cancer in 1921. Maryland's deaths from cancer in 1921 were somewhat higher among white people than colored people, the total white people being 1203 and colored people 169.

—Radio outfits are becoming more and more popular. There are now four in Chestertown, those having them being: Messrs .L. B. Russell, W. E. Newnam, George Baldwin and S. W. Granberry. Mr. D. W. Ingersoll has a most successful one in the county.

—Mr. George Satterfield, the well-known driver, who formerly resided here, was badly injured recently while trying out one of his racers. It seems that he collided with an auto and is now being confined to the hospital.

—Geo. E. Bullock, has in his home a grandfather clock over 200 years old. The clock has wooden wheels and keeps perfect time. Mr. Bullock, lives at Ridgely; he has refused several offers for the clock.

—Dr. Louis C. Hess, formerly of Chestertown, but more recently of Ridgely, will return to Chestertown and will have his office in Gill Bros. Building on Cross street. Dr. Hess has produced a system of excavating teeth for filling which can be reduced considerably. The system will be of considerable benefit to patients. Dr. Hess and family had many warm personal friends in Chestertown, who will be pleased to see them return to live among us again.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

Hettie Thompson
versus
Naomi Starling Martin and Levy Martin, Cora Rolston and Harry Rolston, Vermadella Wilson and Elwood Wilson, Oliver Starling, Jr., and Bertha Starling.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland, In Equity No. 2207.

The object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain property in Kent County, Maryland, belonging to William T. Thompson, deceased, in order to divide the proceeds of sale among those interested therein.

The bill states, first, that William T. Thompson, late of Kent County, deceased, was in his life time and at the time of his death seized and possessed in fee simple absolutely of real estate, situate in the First Election District of Kent County, Maryland, on the East side of the road leading from Chesterville to Shadenrich, adjoining the lands of Wayman Thomas and Perry Henry Brown, and containing about six acres of land, more or less; the same property purchased from Charles T. Westcott about twenty-five years ago.

2nd. That being so seized the said William T. Thompson departed this life on or about April 24th, 1919, leaving a widow surviving him, the said Hettie Thompson, who is over twenty-one year of age and resides in Millington, Maryland, and at times employed at Wilmington, Delaware.

3rd. The said William T. Thompson, deceased, left the following heirs at law:

(a) Cora Thompson, who was a daughter by Georgia Thompson, the first wife, who died about the year 1902; and who intermarried with Harry Rolston, and both are over 21 years of age, and reside in Millington, Maryland.

(b) Naomi Starling Martin, granddaughter of the said William T. Thompson, and a daughter of Mary Starling, who died about twenty years ago. She intermarried with Levy Martin, and both are over twenty-one years of age, and reside in Camden, New Jersey.

(c) Vermadella Wilson, a granddaughter of the said William T. Thompson, and a daughter of Mary Starling, who died about twenty years ago. She intermarried with Elwood Wilson; both are over twenty-one years of age, and reside in Millington, Maryland.

(d) Oliver Starling, Jr., a grandson of the said William T. Thompson, and a son of Mary Starling, who died about twenty years ago. He intermarried with Bertha Starling; both are over twenty-one years of age, and reside in Millington, Maryland.

4th. That the said real estate will not admit of being divided among the parties entitled thereto as aforesaid, without material loss or injury to said parties, and that it would be for the benefit and advantage of all the parties interested therein to sell the property and divide the proceeds among them.

It is, thereupon, this 22nd day of November, 1922, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, In Equity, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 18th day of December next; giving notice to the said non-resident defendants, Naomi Starling Martin and Levy Martin, of the object and substance of this bill, warning them to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 2nd day of January next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
