Political.

Seven Tickets in the Field.

There are seven tickets in the field to be voted for at the ensuing presidential election, as follows:

Republican Party.—For President, Benjamin Harrison, of Indiana; for Vice-President, Levi P. Morton, of New York.

Democratic Party.—President, Grover Cleveland, of New York; Vice-President, Allen G. Thurman, of Ohio.

Prohibition Party.—President, Clinton B. Fisk, of New Jersey; Vice-President, John A. Brooks, of Missouri.

Union Labor Party.—President, A. J. Streeter, of Illinois; Vice-President, Charles E. Cunningham, of Arkansas.

United Labor Party.—President, Robert H. Cowdrey, of Illinois; Vice-President, W. H. T. Wakefield, of Kansas.

Industrial Reform Party.—President, Albert E. Redstone, of California; Vice President, John Colvin, of Kansas.

Equal Rights Party.—President, Belva A. Lockwood, of Washington; Vice-President, Alfred H. Love, of Pennsylvania.

To these will be added the nominations of the American party to be made at the convention which will be held at Washington, D. C., in August.

A Short Talk with Workingmen.

From New York Sun.

Free-trade means putting all the laboring men of the world upon one level of competition.

Protection means restricting the competition among laborers to those living in our own country, and the consequence of such restriction is that wages remain at a high level; whereas, if the competition of all the laborers in the world were allowed to operate here, they would steadily fall to the lowest level.

That is the reason why the workingmen of this country are better paid, are prosperous, live in a better manner, are better educated, and bring up their children with more of hope and ambition than belongs to workingmen in any other country.

This is why the workingmen of the United States like the American system of protection, and dislike the British system of free-trade.

Harrison and Cleveland.

HARRISON'S CAREER.	CLEVELAND'S CAREER.
1861. Lawyer.	Lawyer of small practice. Remained at home,' spending his time loafing and playing ward politician all through the war. Hired a substitute.
1862. Entered the army, served to close of war, being promoted step by step from Second Lieutenant to Brigadier General.
1865. Elected Supreme Court reporter while in the service in 1864, served from 1865 to 1868, and declined a re-election.	1870. Elected sheriff, an office he sought, as he had no law practice.
1876. Was Republican candidate for Governor and defeated.	1880. Elected Mayor of Buffalo.
1880. Elected to the United States Senate.	1882. Elected Governor of New York.
1887. Defeated for a second term by outrageous Democratic frauds.	1884. Nominated and elected President.
1888. Nominated for President.	1888. Re-nominated for President.

Tariff Reform Fallacy.

The supporters of free trade do not always like to acknowledge the colors which they are flying. They hide behind "tariff reduction" or "tariff revenue," "surplus reduction," and things of that sort, which they claim does not mean free-trade, but only what will make duties less and foreign productions cheaper, so that the laboring man's condition will be improved. They also claim that they would not break down protection, but simply procure a reform in the tariff laws. This is following in the footsteps of President Cleveland who disguised his free trade message after that fashion. He declared that Congress had to deal with a condition, not a theory; and that it must reduce the revenue in order to prevent commercial disaster, and the only way was by reducing protection duties.

A Campaign of Brains.

From the New York Herald.

We respectfully call the attention of the Democratic party to an old adage which is peculiarly appropriate to the present political situation:

Unlaid eggs are uncertain chickens.

This is to be a unique campaign. To sum the matter up in a single phrase, it is to be a campaign of brains. Both of the candidates are personally above reproach. They are men of acknowledged ability—practical, executive, administrative. There should, therefore, be no abuse in the canvass, but a clean and hand-to-hand fight on principles.

The people will do a good deal of hard thinking between now and November, but many of them lack the materials on which to base a sound judgment.

Here are a few choice extracts from the Democratic creed as interpreted by the Louisville Courier-Journal in March, 1882:

"The conflict between Free-Trade and Protection is irrepressible."

"The Democrat who is not a Free-trader should go elsewhere; he should join the Republicans."

"The Democratic party, except in the persons of imbeciles hardly worth mentioning, is not on the fence. It is a Free-trade party or it is nothing."

This is Democratic doctrine from headquarters. Democrats who don't like it should go elsewhere; they should join the Republicans.

Spring Has Come

AT

F. J. DEVILBISS',

New Windsor, Md.

Another spring has opened its contrasting beauties before us, and with it comes the whirl and excitement of spring trade. The ladies are on the alert looking for the novel and cheap. Our line of goods to-day stands unsurpassed. Everything was purchased in New York and from first hands. Buying on a spot cash basis, and from the commercial centre of the United States, if we do not sell you cheap it is our fault. To-day we can show you the handsomest and cheapest line of in Carroll county. We fear neither pioneer nor prestige. No one can show as pretty a line of Armure Cloths, Henrietta Cloths, Tricots, Cashmeres, Plushes, Felts, as low as ours. Get samples elsewhere and compare. We have money to squander that our $1 Black Silk is not equaled, never has been, and times must be worse than now if it ever will be. Yard-wide Satines at 11½c. Good Dress Goods 5c. Good Calico 4c. and 5c. Ginghams, good, 5c. All Linen Toweling, 6½c.

DRESS GOODS

CARPETS AND MATTING.

Splendid Matting at 12½c. per yard. Splendid Brussels at 60c., worth 75c. Rag Carpet at 20c., 23c., 27c. No one can meet these prices.

The prettiest line of SHOES! SHOES! SHOES!

ever seen, New York styles. Remember Slesinger's Shoes for Tender Feet. They have taken the lead here. As a crusher, we have a lot of Women's Button Shoes that we intend to mark down to a starvation price of $1. Another lot, bought in New York, at $1.25, sold everywhere at $1.75.

HATS! HATS! HATS!

Newest styles, lowest prices.

We have a job lot of CORSETS at 50c., sold everywhere at $1. They will soon be gone. Verily, I say unto you, Ball's Corsets lead the world for comfort and durability.

Don't forget Thompson, the tailor. He is now putting up Spring Suits that take your breath. He is making havoc of our fancy styles of Cassimeres, which maketh glad the hearts of the young.

TOBACCO AND CIGARS.

Here is the best Navy Tobacco at 30c. per pound. Cigars that will soothe your care and brighten the fancy at $1 per hundred.

In fine, we ask you to call on us, look around,—we will all be glad to see you. If you don't see the sledge-hammer bargains, one of us must pay the penalty.

Very Respectfully,
FRANK J. DEVILBISS.

N. B.—We want 10,000 pounds Lard, 10,000 dozens Eggs, 10,000 pounds Wool. Will pay you highest price. oc-8
