LOCAL MATTER

—Efforts are being made by the Kent County Chamber of Commerce to establish better telegraph service in Chestertown.

—Mr. William Medders has made arrangements with Mr. Faulkner to continue on his farm, and will therefore not sell his personal property which was advertised in this paper last week. The sale has been withdrawn.

—The Chestertown Volunteer Fire Co., won a handsome cup at the Rising Sun carnival for being company coming the longest distance.

—The Church Aid and Sunday School picnic of Bond M. E. Church will be held at Fairlee Farm on Wednesday, August 10th.

—As a result of a bee getting into the Chevrolet Coupe which she was driving, Miss Marian Collins crashed the car into an electric light pole in Church Hill on Thursday of this week. The car was badly damaged.

—Kent white schools will open their fall session on Monday, September 12. The colored schools will open September 19.

—Mr. Thomas W. Perkins, president of the Kent County Chamber of Commerce gave a talk before the Rotary Club at their weekly meeting Monday evening.

Mr. J. Waters Russell sold two lots this week off the H. P. Skipper track in Queen Anne's county near the Chester River bridge. The purchase was made by Mr. W. T. Elliott, of Philadelphia.

—The chewing of tobacco is being introduced into the upper circles of society of Chestertown, by some of the young bloods who have been away to school. They claim it is much cheaper than smoking.

—The Transcript received a postal card this week from Dr. Paul E. Titsworth from Switzerland. Dr. Titsworth is directing a tour through Europe and reports a very pleasant trip.

—About twenty-five boys from Camp Gunston, on the Corisca River, near Centreville, camped opposite Chestertown on Tuesday evening. The boys made the trip to Chestertown in six canoes, paddling out of the Corisca and up the River.

—The Greenbury Marshall farm, located on Leeds River, in Talbot County, and owned by J. Waters Russell, of Chestertown, was sold this week to Miss Caroline Wilson, of Kansas City, Mo. The property consists of about 27 acres. The sale was made by L. Herbert Griffith.

—Two suits have been filed in the Circuit Court for Kent County for divirce: one by T. F. Healy, attorney for Wm. B. Stafford against his wife, Emma E. Stafford and the other by Herbert E. Perkins, attorney, for Mrs. Myrtle Mann Loud against her husband, Mr. E. C. Loud.

—Members of the Medical Detachment, 1st Maryland Infantry, report a very pleasant encampment at Camp Albert Ritchie. Members who were unable to ramain for the full two weeks have returned to Chestertown state that the encampment this summer far exceeds any encampment of past years.

—Major Harry C. Butler is to take command of the State police of which he was recently appointed captain on August 10, E. Austin Baughman, Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, announced Saturday.

—Mr. Harry Busick, formerly of Chestertown, is president of the six million dollar organization which will build an immence up-to-date hotel on the site of the present Caswell hotel, Baltimore. The organization also controls a number of hotels in that city. Mr. Busick, when a young man, was a clerk in one of Chestertown's stores, later going to Baltimore.

—A clinic for diseases of the chest will be conducted in Health Center, Chestertown, on Monday, August 8, at 10 30 a. m. Individuals complaining of any of the following: cough, expectoration of blood (spitting,) tired feeling, loss of weight and appetite, indigestion, hoarseness, etc., should see their family physician and obtain permission to attend clinic at the place announced above.

REBUILDING AT CHURCH HILL

Clearing in preparation of rebuilding the fire swept area in Church Hill is well under way.

The first definite steps being taken are the Church Hill Bank and the Church Hill Motor Company.

Mr. Harry D. Massey, proprietor of the Church Hill Motor Co., has purchased the lot of Dr. Dudley which adjoins the garage property and it is understood that a larger garage will be built than the one destroyed.

A building committee has been appointed by the Church Hill Bank of Maryland to make a complete survey of the situation before deciding upon the character of building that they will have erected. They will rebuild on their former site, but the new banking building will be most likely, a fire-proof structure, with every modern banking convenience.

HORSE SHOW ON JULIAN JONES FARM

The third annual Kent County Horse Show, which will be held on Wednesday, August 24th., will be held on the farm now occupied by Mr. Julian Jones. This is a very fortunate location as the field is a good one near town, and right on the main highway.

An added attraction at the Show this year will be the Chestertown Fire Company Band which will play at the Horse Show between the classes. This is expected to draw even more than the usual crowds which attend.

A portion of the earnings of the Horse Show will be given to benefit the Band, according the custom of the Association of dividing the profits with some worthy organization.

The list of the classes for entry is not yet complete but there will be classes for Kent and Queen Anne's horses only; classes open to all and classes for children.

The officials for the show are Messrs. William Toulson, William French, Grover Coleman, Frank Coleman, Harry Nichols and Edward Hurtt.

MRS. NEHUS ACCUSED OF ARSON

Mrs. Marie Nehus, wife of Mr. Henry Nehus, of Eastern Neck Island, is charged with starting the fire which destroyed a large part of the business section of Church Hill recently.

She kept a small store near where the fire is reported to have started and according to evidence submitted, she was seen near the spot where the fire started shortly before it was descovered.

It is stated that Mrs. Nehus had been threatened by creditors and that she had made the statement that "they would never close her out" as there would be nothing left to close out.

Mrs. Nehus has been in the Centreville jail where Centreville doctors examined her mental condition. She is now in Baltimore where a more thorough examination will be held.

According to Detective Dougherty Mrs. Nehus was under arrests in 1922 in Baltimore on a charge of shooting at a woman and was charged a short time later with beating a man. No penalty was opposed in either case.

McCormick-Deering Spreaders

The time and labor you save by using a McCormick-Deering spreader amounts to cash equivalent to a substantial payment. The increased crop production you can get by spreading manure evenly and thinly over more acres will lower production costs so much that you cannot afford to continue hand spreading.

The patented widespread spiral on the McCormick-Deering accounts for the exceptionally wide spread. It is never necessary to drive over freshly spread manure.

The light draft of McCormick-Deering spreaders increases their durability and makes possible spreading full capacity loads without overloading teams. Their durability extends the purchase price over years of continuous usage.

Now is the time to spread manure and today is the day to ask us for prices.

WHEAT?

Here is the experience of a wheat farmer with his Fordson tractor. His savings are typical of thousands of Fordson-owning farmers.

—he breaks up his land in about half the time it used to take with horses . . . and saves 71c on every acre.

—he disks in half the time and saves 27c an acre. He pulverizes in a little over a third the time . . . and saves 53c an acre!

—he drills in his seed in half the time . . . and saves 44c an acre?

—he harvests with his binder and Fordson in practically half the time . . . and saves 35c an acre!

By the time the crop is in, he has saved $2.30 an acre over what it would have cost had he used horses or mules.

His Fordson is paying for itself all right. He is averaging about 15c a bushel more profit on all his wheat.

Let us give you a demonstration with the new Fordson that will give you seven more horse power than the old ones.
