TWO CIRCUSES COMING

Gone are the horses from the streets. Gone are the old time ways and methods of yesterday. Going also are are the obsolete wooden railroad cars and railroad circuses. Keeping abreast of the times Andrew Downie, owner of Downie Bros. Wild Animal Circus has for the past two seasons transported his entire circrs on a gigantic fleet of motor trucks. They will be seen here in their entirety one day only September 6.

In addition to the arge menagerie and many trained animals including the herd of performing elephants including "Tena" the smallest trained elephant in the world, there are Downie Bros. group of fighting, jungle bred African Lions put thru their paces ica's most fearless animal trainers. Also a mixed group consisting of a lion, leopard, bear goat, dog and lamb all performing in the massive steel arena. In this act the biblical prophecy is fulfilled as the gentle lamb lies down beside the large and ferocious lion. The brute creation that for time unreckonable have waged war, dwell in happy harmony and proudly show the proficiency of their intelligence. Lions that ride horseback, tigers that leap thru hoops of fire. Cats, bears, camels and monkeys performing peacefully in one grand group.

One of the most unique and strange animal acts is Carl Clarks trained pigs. Sr. Clark has a troupe of six Florida razorback hogs, known as the most stubborn animal. These "rooters" jump over hurdles, play leapfrog, roll barrels and shoot the chutes. Mr. Clark has the only hog in the world that sits up and walks on his hind legs. There are also many trained dog acts, riding and performing bears, shetland ponies, goats, riding dogs and monkeys funny baboons and in fact a veritable Noah's Ark of strange and curious animals.

With the arrival in Chestertown of J. C. Admire, contracting agent of the Walter L. Main circus, arrangements have been completed with city officials and local merchants for the parade and exhibitions of this old-time favorite in Chestertown on Monday, Sept. 19.

Mr. Admire carries letters from Chamber of Commerce organization Mayors and City Clerks of various cities where the show has exhibited this season, endorsing the entertainment offered, and commenting on high-class personnel of the organization; in many instances, welcoming the show back at its earliest convenience.

He is very emphatic in his denial that circus parades have been abandoned, and claims that while one circus has abandoned street parades, his managers have taken the opposite view and have increased the street pageant of the Walter L. Main circus until now it is the largest one in existence; they figure the parade is the show window of the exhibition, with exactly the same object in view that causes a merchant to display his wares; another object of the parade is to give joy to many poor children whose only glimpse of the world wonders is the time-honored circus procession; all dens and cages are wide open, so that all may see the many animals from every clime; five brass bands dispense real music; along with the largest steam calliope ever constructed, while twenty clowns furnish the comedy.

PRIZES FOR HORSE SHOW AT BORDLEY'S

The prizes for the Kent County Horse Show, which is to be held on August 24th, on the farm occupied by Julian Jones, have arrived and are on exhibition in the store window of Bordley and Son. They are similiar to the ones given last year, and consist of bridles, martingales, riding crops, sandwich cases, hunting horns, and other articles useful to horsemen and fox hunters.

These prizes make it worth while for those who have horses to put them in the show, and should bring out many horses.

Great interest and enthusiasm has been demonstrated in this year's Horse Show, because it is to benefit the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company Band, and because the Band will play at the Show.

The Judges for the horse show will be Mr. Louis Merryman, of Baltimore, and Dr. Gilfillan, of Galena. and Major McCune, of Wilmington, who is master of hounds of the Vicmiad Hunt Club.
