TRANSCRIPT'S MUSINGS

If it be my lot to crawl, I will crawl contentedly: if to fly, I will fly with alacrity but, as long as I can avoid it, I will never be unhappy.

—Sydney Smith

Some firms in London have forbidden their stenogs to powder their noses in office hours they estimate they spend several minutes in every half hour in that performance. Certainly hope such an order will not reach Lawyers row, for the workers there are up-to-date, and an unpowdered nose is a relic of a past age.

President Coolidge is busy telling the West Adieu.

"Adieu! Adieu! Kind friends adieu. I can no longer stay with you," but while he can hang his harp on a weeping wilow tree, if he wishes a bush to hang all the presents which have been given him, he will need California redwood.

Mussolina has done many drastic things, but the cruelest of all is to order that no flyer shall marry. Perhaps he wishes to cut down the number of those who wish to fly.

The public is filled with admiration for Al Smith because he has not had his picture taken with a hay rake in his hand.

Tolerance.

I wish that I might learn to laugh
At all of life's small terrors,
That I might chuckle, undismayed,
At my mistakes and errors.

I wish that I might learn to take
The second best more lightly,
That I might say: "What, broke my heart?
No! Only cracked it slightly!"

I wish that I might learn to be
More quiet—goodness knows
How far I'd go if I might gain
A little more repose!

—Times

Aha!

An old darky got up one night at a revival meeting and said: "Brudders an, sisters, you knows an' I knows dat I ain't been what I oughter been. I'se robbed hen roosts and stole hawgs, an' told lies, an' got drunk, an' slashed folks with mah razor, an' shot craps, an' cussed and swore; but I thank the Lord dere's one thing I ain't nebber done—I ain't nebber lost mah religion."

Mrs. John D. Rockfeller, Jr., has given $7,500 to make hot dog wagons more beautiful. This is going from wiener wurst to better.—Collier's.

The Mosquito's Buzz

Philadelphia Record: A bulletin from one of the Federal bureaus contains the startling information that when the mosquito makes his puncture he isn't looking for blood, but carbon dioxide. Presume, too, his buzz isn't an irritating noise, but a darn fine complicated symphony.

Prohibition loses a great leader in the death of Wayne B. Wheeler. He was a wonderful executive and through his efforts the Volstead Act went through. Though suffering from heart trouble for some years, his passing was hastened by the tragic death of his well beloved wife. Sen. Edwards of New Jersey's, one of his great opponents, says of him: "I always admired him for his earnest conviction and great endeavor to dry up America."

Have you been star gazing this month? Jupiles has never been more brilliant than now, watch for it in the eastern sky this evening.

Two circuses and a Firemens Carnival in prospect! and yet they call a country town sleepy." Sleepy indeed! We can treat one to a fishing trip, a weinie roast, a picture show, a firemen club, and even a golf course. What more can one want?

Ten Thousand Pardons

This happened on the Chunan road, near the residence section of Hankow. Said one, Hong Kew, a householder, pleasantly, over the bamboo fence that separated his tiny garden from that of his neighbor, Li Fen:

"Am I most sorry, illustrious neighbor who designs to reside to my north, and by the bones of my ancestors do I asseverate that I regret that my hen got loosened and scratched up thy heaven-designed garden."

Li Fen—Sayest thou no more words, neighbor of a thousand neighbors. My chow dog hath eaten up thy hen.

Hong Kew—Excellent. Coming back in my rickkshaw just now I ran over and killed thy chow dog.—Hankow Topics by American Humor.

Alas, when we sigh for the days "When Knighthood was in Flower" we should remember they had no bath tubs in those days?

EASTERN SHORE NEWS

Last month 270 cases were cared for at the Easton hospital. In the month there were free patient admitted to the Hospital 32 from Talbot, 13 from Queen Anne, 10 from Caroline, 7 from Kent, 52 in all. Of the 1,450 "hospital days" 715 were free. One half of the remainder were only able to pay part of the cost.

Hebron, Maryland, situated six miles west of Salisbury and twelve miles south of Laurel, the youngest and one of the most progressive towns on the Delmarva Peninsula is preparing for the largest and most spectacular event in its brief history on Saturday, September 10. Six thousand shiners from Boumi, Lu Lu, and other Temples are expected in Hebron on that day to participate in this big Shrine Outing.

Clyde Lloyd, of Queen Anne's County spent many hours swimming around in Wye river a few evening ago, He was helping to haul a seine on the shores of Major Harry Butler, when the pet bull appeared on the scene and started to dig a resting place for Clyde, but Clyde took to the river and remained there until the bull was safely chained in the barn. He is gradually returning to normacy, but it will be a long time before he will park on Major Butler's shore again.

Oysters of the Eastern Shore county are in receipt of a letter from the Conservation Commission, in which it was stated that the packers will be allowed to carry on their business pending the disposition of the proposed test case against giving ten per cent of the shells to the state.

Packers here stated first that they would not take out a license if they ha dto guarantee the state the ten per cent of this shells. They claim the greater profit from the oyster business is obtained from the shell pile and if this is curtailed it means still less returns for their work.

For the first time this season trucks of Talbot county were sent out by some of the canners to buy tomatoes along the roadside. These trucks paid 25 cents a basket and hauled them to the canning house. The farmer picked the tomatoes and placed them alongside the road, where the trucks gathered them up.

The new Hale type "4" 500-gallon triple combination fire engine, ordered some weeks ago, by the Elkton Volunteer Fire Company, from the Hale Fire Pump Company, of Conshokacken, Pa., was delivered on Tuesday last.

Henry W. Catlin, owner of the Carson Harris farm, on Still Pond Creek, in Kent county, has added to his stock a fine herd of Polled Angus cattle.

Packing houses throughout Queen Anne's County are in full swing on the annual autumnal canning season. Tomatoes and some sweet corn is being packed now.

A good run of taylors the past week has been profitable to a few fishermen at Tilghman. One boat came in with 600 pounds of these fish. They were shipped to New York. They ranged around three pound a piece, and were beauties.

Declared by steamboat officers to be the largest water-spout ever seen on Chesapeake Bay, a funnel-shaped column of water, running into the clouds, alarmed passengers as the Love Point ferry pulled out from its pier last Monday morning. The phenomenon lasted about 15 minutes and was observed by many residents of Kent Island who feared it might strike the Cambridge at the mouth of Chester River. But Capt. Washington Woodall held the vessel in readiness to dodge the waterspout, traveling 40 miles an hour, until it broke and vanished near the Kent County shore.

Work has started on the Pocomoke City Armory which will be erected on the vacant ground at the corner of Second and Maple streets.

The contract was $50,980, and the amount expended for the site approximated $6,000.

Paul McKenney, driving a big Cadillac machine, containing members of the Chautauqua circuit, failed to negotiate the turn on the narrow bridge at King's Creek, Somerset County, and the machine plunged into the water on the right side of the bridge going north. One of the performers, Miss Evarts, is in a serious condition at the Salisbury hospital.

A fishing party in the Nanticoke River caught a trout that measured 35 inches in length and weighed 8 1-2 lbs. It is believed to have been the largest fish of that kind ever captured in that locality.

EASTERN SHORE BANDITS USE SMALL GIRL AS LURE

A girl about 8 years old is being used as a lure for motorists by an unknown band of bandits who have been operating in Worcester and Semerset counties.

Joseph Humphreys, driver of a baking company's truck from Baltimore, is the latest victim. He was waylaid and robbed yesterday between Princess Anne and Pocomoke City. He is in the McCready Memorial Hospital at Crisfield recovering from injuries.

Humphreys said he saw a child standing by the road side who signaled that she wanted to buy some cakes. He stopped and, as he was descending from the seat, he was struck from behind with a heavy metal bar. He noticed three men in the group and was felled and knocked unconscious by a second blow. The bandits escaped with $154.

This is the second time bandits have waylaid truck drivers this week in this section. Last week Horace G. Payne, of Snow Hill, escaped after batting bandits.

HEALTH MEETING SEPT. 14.

Notice is hereby given of a special general meeting of the Public Health Association of Kent Co., Md., to be held at 8 p. m., on Wedneday, Sept. 14, 1927, at the Health Center, High St., Chestertown, Md. This meeting is being called for the purpose of taking action on the following proposed amendments to the constitution of the said association.

First Amendment—Section of Article IX reading as follows: "The execution committee shall consist of the officers of the Association and two physicians in Kent County, Maryland," to be amended as follows: The executive committee shall consist of the officers of the association and three physicians in Kent County, Maryland."

Second Amendment—Section of Article X reading as follows "In addition to the annual meeting and such other meetings of the members as may be called, there shall be regular monthly meetings of the executive committee on the second Thursday of the month" to be so amended as to provide for the date of the monthly meeting of the executive committee to be left to the discretion of said committee.

Mrs. A. Parks Rasin, Secretary.

$13,240.03 FOR SCHOOLS

The Kent County Commissioners received a check for $13,240.03 from the State last week, which is Kent's share of the old Free School Fund.

Years ago the state invested a sum of money in bonds as an endowment for free schools, the interest from same to be used for schools throughout the state. Free schools in Maryland have advanced to a point where the interest from this endowment is too small to be of any material use, and at the last session of the Legislature it was decided to sell these bonds and divide the amount received among the various counties of the state.

Kent counties share from the sale of these bonds is $13,240.03 and this sum is to be used for building school houses, buying equipment or purchase of school lots.

COMMISSIONERS ACCEPT SLAG ROAD PROPOSAL

The poproposition ofere by Mr. Morris Clothier that he will buy the material if the county will lay it for a hard surface road from the Turner's Creek road to Mr. Clothier's farms, a distance of approximately one mile, has been accepted by the Commissioners, and the work of laying the slag will start shortly.

The material used will be slag instead of stone, as stated in this paper last wek. This is the second proposition of this kind that has been accepted in Kent county, whereby property owners have agreed to bear part of the expense of slag roads, and may lead to the building of many slag roads in the county.

REASSESSMENT NEARING COMPLETION.

The re-assessment in Kent county is nearing completion in some districts in the county and as each district is finished the County Commissioners will sit as a Board of Review for that district.

Present indications show that the third and seventh district will be finished within the next ten or twelve days which will mean that the Commissioners will probably review one of these districts at their meeting on Tuesday, September 20th.
