Political.

No Diminution.

There seems to be no diminution in the stream of Democrats turning to the support of Harrison, Morton and Protection. Among recent examples are the following:

Robert Dunlap, hat manufacturer, of New York. Mr. Dunlap employs a large number of hands, and found, upon a recent comparison of the wages paid by him with the earnings of the workmen in a large factory in London, that the American rate was more than double that of the English. He voted for Cleveland in 1884, but believes in protecting the American wage-earner and will now support Harrison.

R. E. Monaghan, a leading lawyer, of the Chester county, Pa., bar, who was prominently mentioned in connection with the Democratic nomination for the Governorship of Pennsylvania, announces in an open letter that he will vote for Harrison, Morton and Protection.

At Sharon, Pa., numerous Democratic desertions are recorded. Among them are Jesse Hoagland and his son, both hitherto very strong partisans; C. J. Heydrick, who not long ago was a Democratic candidate for the Legislature; and J. L. Fry, another strong Democrat. They are all hostile to free-trade, and on that account have determined to vote for Harrison and Morton.

Sergeant E. B. Bennett, of East Berlin, Conn., a veteran Democrat of 44 years standing, has determined to vote for Harrison, Morton and Protection. The last word tells the story of the change.

Robert Schrader, one of the most prominent citizens of Denver, Colorado, and a leading man in the Democratic party of that State, has become an active supporter of the Republican ticket, and assigns as a reason for his action that he is in favor of protecting America from foreign intrusion.

H. S. Marcy, traffic manager of the Delaware and Hudson Railroad, voted for Cleveland four years ago, but has parted from him on the tariff issue and will vote for Harrison.

Rev. E. B. Lewis, an ex-member of the Prohibition State Committee, of Ohio, has concluded that in the present crisis he can best serve his country by voting for Harrison and Morton.

Mr. Durand, ex-speaker of the Connecticut Legislature and an ardent Democrat, has written a letter to the Republican committee of Ansonia, announcing his intention to vote for Harrison and support the principle of Protection.

In Bridgeport, Conn., there is a Democratic stampede to Harrison. Among those who have announced that they cannot support Mr. Cleveland and free-trade are James Sexton, proprietor of a large granite yard; Martin Sykes, a Democratic alderman, of the Fourth ward; Abraham Peck, a Democratic leader in the Fifth ward; Wm. S. King, a Sixth ward Democratic magnate; Morris Barton, heretofore a prominent Prohibitionist; James Gilbert, an Independent who supported Cleveland in 1884; and Thomas Ronan, an ex-alderman, of the Fourth ward.

At Bath, Maine, seven ship-builders, recently, who have always been Democrats, issued an address to the mechanics of the place denouncing the course of the Democratic party on the tariff and declaring that they will not support Cleveland. Their names are J. R. Kelley, Joseph Varney, Joseph M. Varney, J. B. Perkins, Wm. Liberty, Fred. Wright and Fred. A. Willis. The address has created quite a stir among the Democratic politicians and is felt as a terrific blow to their prospects.

In Richmond, Va., a Harrison and Morton Club, composed of Democrats, has been organized. John S. Bethel, late President of the Common Council of Richmond, is chairman of the Club. J. C. Smith, late city sergeant, of Richmond, has declared for Harrison.

Jefferson McLean, of Pittsburg, Pa., who is 80 years of age and has never but once voted any other than the Democratic ticket, intends to vote for Harrison. He voted for his grandfather in 1840 as the solitary break in his Democratic record.

D. A. Hopkins, of 113 Liberty street, New York, has been a leader of the Greenback party since 1879, but is an ardent Protectionist and says that at this juncture the welfare of the country demands the election of Harrison.

Capt. Anderson, a prominent and well-known railroad official, of Kansas City, has been an independent in politics, and went to Europe recently undecided as to how he would vote on the Presidential question. He has returned thoroughly in favor of the election of Harrison. He says that all that need be done is to send Democrats to Europe and they will come back Republicans. The scenes of poverty he witnessed in England under the free-trade cheap labor system converted him thoroughly.

From Oneida county, New York, comes the news that not only are the stalwarts and independents who abstained from voting, or voted for Mr. Cleveland, in 1884, back in the ranks and solid for Harrison, but many Democrats are with them. The Republicans are making a preliminary canvass of the county and find a large increase in party strength. In the town of New Hartford, where the canvass has been completed, the additions equal fully twenty per cent. Among the Democrats, who are working for Harrison, are Wm. Wiltsie, a prominent bricklayer; Wm. Long, a Justice of the Peace; James F. Harley, an Ex-Justice; and Mr. Buckley, an Ex-Mayor of Utica. It is not deemed wise to make the names public, or a list of more than a hundred prominent Democrats, in Utica, could be given who intend to vote for Harrison.

Of the 147 members of the James A. Beaver Harrison Club, of Dauphin, Pa., 15 are Democrats.

Samuel Wallace, an ex-member of the Pittsburg City Council, who was a delegate to the Democratic Congressional convention of his district, last week, has deserted Cleveland and intends to vote for Harrison.
