NEXT FRIDAY, November 11th will be Armistice Day. While there is to be no special celebration in the county on that day, yet we hope that the citizens of this county will remember what this day, nine years ago meant to the intire world and give a thought to those who gave their lives that we may enjoy the peace and prosperty which we now enjoy.

THE YEAR 1927 can well be called a progressive year for Kent County. While the price of farm products has not been fair yet many progressive farmers have branched out in new agricultural endeavors which is a mark of progress. Betterton has voted to bond that town for a large street improvement program. Rock Hall voted to bond the town for a town water system. Chestertown voted a large bond issue for street, sidewalk, and sewer improvement. An active Kent County Chamber of Commerce is functioning. A yacht and country club is being built. Indications are very bright for an eight mile bridge across the Chesapeake Bay from the Western Shore to Kent County. Approximately six miles of slag road has been built in the county. Testing of Kent's herds with the idea of making every herd in the county a tested herd has been started and is well underway. A drive is being made to build up certified poultry flocks throughout the county. The M. E. Church, Chestertown, has been remodeled and is now one of the most beautiful churches on the shore. A new theatre for Chestertown is being built. Approximately $300,000 has been paid by non-residents for water front property. Many new homes have been built and the general improvement in the appearance of homes and business houses shows that we are moving forward. Kent county now boasts one of the largest turkey farms in the state. Hogs are being raised on a large scale. While there is still a large opportunity for progress, yet the county as a whole is progressing.

COMMISSIONERS ACCEPT ROAD PROPOSAL

The development company, which has purchased 1000 acres of waterfront property between Still Pond and Betterton, appeared before the Commissioners of Kent county on Tuesday of this week with a slag road

The road referred to extents from the Still Pond—Betterton concrete road at Bonwell's corner three miles to the John H. O. Stokes property.

The development company has offered to buy 3000 tons of slag for the road at a cost of $60000 if the county will lay the slag.

After going into the matter thoroughly the County Commissioners accepted the offer and work will start shortly. The slag is to be laid twelve feet wide and four inches deep.

When this road is finished there will be over five miles of slag road built in the county this year on this plan of adjoining property owners bearing part of the expense.

3 of these are first calf heifers, all fresh.

3 Guernsey heifers under 1 year old.

1 Yearling Guernsey heifer.

1 Yearling Holstein heifer.

1 Pure bred Holstein Bull, S X King Cornucopia Colantha, born August 21, 1922. This bull was bred by Mr. John M. Dennis at Essex Farms. His dam sold for $455.00 in one of the Montgomery County Holstein Breeders sales and is at present in the herd of Dr. Kelley, of Montgomery County. He is sired by the famous white show bull of Essex Farms, S X Cornucopia Vale Korndyke, which for a number of years was a consistent winner at Timonium Fair. This bull will make anyone an excellent herd sire.

1 Pure bred Holstein bull calf, 5 months old. This calf is a nice individual sired by S X King Cornucopia Colantha and is out of a very promising heifer.

The cows described above are Federal accredited and were tested last June 15th, 1927. They have all been raised on the farm and are excellent grades.
