RED CROSS ROLL CALL

A Roll Call for membership in the Red Cross has been called for November 11 to 24. This is a society for the relief of sufferers caused by pestilence, famine, fire, floods and other disasters. It is a society that should appeal to every one, because of its great relief work. When any section of the country is in trouble, the Red Cross is among the first to give relief in a most substantial way meeing the situation as the necessity requires. If medical aid or trained nurses are required they are hurried to the scene. If finances are needed they are supplied, therefore it seems to us that it is a privilege as well as a duty for us to enroll in this great National Relief association and thus help a cause whose sole object is for the good of humanity.

JAMES H. HEPBRON ADDRESSES ROTARY

A very interesting and instructive address was made by Mr. James H. Hepbron, Director of Baltimore Crime Commission, before the Chestertown Rotary Club and guests Monday evening.

Mr. Hepbron has made an intensive study of crime in all parts of America and has just recently returned from Europe where he has studied crime in the European Capitals.

The subject of Mr. Hepbron's talk was "Crime at Home and Abroad." He pointed out that there is considerable more crime in Baltimore than in London, the latter having eight times as many people as the former. There is more crime in Cook county, Illinois, than in the Dominion of Canada.

One of the causes attributed to the large amount of crime in America is the laxity of the Department of Justice. The incomplete records that are being kept, the sentimental effect on the jury in favor of the criminal, the challenging of hundreds of jurymen until a partial jury is secured, the effort on the part of the average American Citizen to dodge jury duty, the many chances that the criminal has of not being apprehanded and of getting off after the arrest.

Mr. Hepbron pointed out that in London a juryman is seldom challenged as it is considered the duty of every Englishman to serve on a jury in an impartial way. He stated that American citizens could help check the great crime wave that is sweeping this country by willingly serving on juries when called upon and rendering the verdict based on the facts in the case and not be influenced by the many sentimental agencies that are always in favor of the criminal.

Judge Lewin W. Wickes, Messrs. Herbert E. Perkins, Harrison W. Vickers, W. B. Copper were guests of the Rotary club at this meeting.

CAR STOLEN HERE SUNDAY

A Ford roadster, the property of Mr. David McMenamin, of Chestertown, was stolen Sunday afternoon from in front of Christ M. P. Church while the owner was attending Sunday School.

When Mr. McMenamin came out of the church at 3.30 p. m., and discovered that his car had been taken he immediately notified State's Attorney, Stephen R. Collins, and Sheriff Hadaway, who in turn notified the Maryland State Police. The sheriff then started a county wide search for the automobile.

The stolen car had bright yellow wire wheels and could be easily identified. A report was received that a car of that description was at Tolchester but investigation by the Sheriff proved that it was not the stolen car.

At 6.30 p. m. Sheriff Hadaway was notified that the stolen car had been found at State Roard, Del., near Wilmington by the Delaware State Police and driver arrested.

Sheriff Hadaway and Messrs. Randolph Waddell, David McMinamin and Williams Collins drove to State Road and brought the automobile and the thief back with them.

The automobile thief proved to be Roy Dutery, 26 years old, of Harrisburg, Pa., and he confessed that he had stolen a car in Harrisburg and abandoned it just across the Maryland line near Millington when the car ran out of gas. He then started for Chestertown and aside from a five mile lift, he walked the entire distance. He had a master Ford key with which he started the automobiles. According to his statements, he took the cars for the purpose of transportation and had no idea of selling them.

Dutery was tried before Justice Usilton Monday evening and was held for the action of the Grand Jury in April.
