You'll never know how good your layers are until—

—and not until you give them the modern, perfected laying ration which in oft-repeated, practical, comparative tests has always produced more eggs than the leading home mixtures and commercial feeds. That egg-producing, money-making feed is

Larro Egg Mash

Years of work by scientists and practical poultry experts perfected the formula. The feed is manufactured by the exclusive LARRO method which guarantees uniformity in quality and percentage of ingredients, in chemical composition, in appearance and texture. No other poultry mash is so made!

LOCAL MATTER

—The Federal Land Bank has reduced its annual interest rate to all new borrowers from 5¼ to 5 per cent. annually, making the lowest interest rate ever offered to farmers in this community. See Mr. Thomas D. Bowers, sect'y. Treas. at his office on Court street regarding the provisions of a loan.

—Rehearsals started on Monday evening of this week for Chestertown's big novelty show, "Nic Nacs Of 1927," which is to be presented at the Lyceum Theatre on November 28, 29, 30, under the auspices of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Fire Company.

—The Chestertown Volunteer Fire Co., responded to a call at Church Hill on Friday evening of last week when a fire in the work-shop of the undertaking establishment of Mr. W. H. Good threatened a number of neighboring garages. The fire was extinguished by the Church Hill Fire Co., without the assistance of Chestertown.

—Mr. R. S. G. Cliff was badly bruised and shocked at Brooks mill this week when he became entangled in some shafting. He was rushed to Easton hospital where an examination showed that no bones were broken but that he was suffering from bruises and shock. His early recovery is expected.

—The Red Cross Committee of which Mrs. Selby is chairman is composed of the following ladies: Mrs. T. B. Durding, Mrs. Elmer E. Leary, Mrs. James M. Wood, Mrs. Joshua Thomas, Mrs. Lemuel Crouch, Mrs. John Wood, Mrs. W. O. Edmonston, Mrs. S. Elwood Burgess, Mrs. Notley O. Willson, Mrs. Frank Marriner and Mrs. T. Bennett Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ringgold, of Chestertown, while traveling in their automobile on a narrow road on Kent Island last Sunday were hit by a passing motorist and their car thrown into the marsh. The other car, which carried a Delaware license did not stop. Mr. and Mrs. Ringgold were not injured but had considerable difficulty getting out of their car and back on the road. It was necessary to get a derrick to pull the car out of the marsh.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HOLDS DINNER

The second semi-annual dinner of the Kent County Chamber of Commerce was held in the Washington College cafeteria on Thursday evening of this week.

Despite the stormy weather, about forty business men of the county were present, representing practically the entire county.

Mr. Thomas W. Perkins, president of the local chamber, presided and told of some of the work that has been accomplished and brought up the question of an improved schedule for the Tolchester Ferry. It was unanimously decided to continue working for this change.

Mr. Perkins then introduced Mr. George J. Clautice, Executive Secretary of the Baltimore Association of Commerce, who spoke on the proposed Chesapeake Bay Bridge, and what it meant to the Eastern and Western Shores. He stated that the permit for this bridge could be obtained but that it will require considerable work on the part of the various interested organizations. He told the gathering that an English marmalade manufacturing plant was to be built in Baltimore, the first unit of which will cost 1½ million of dollars. This plant will have an almost unlimited demand for fruits and with the Chesapeake Bay Bridge, it will open a market for Eastern Shore truck. Mr. Clautice stated that water front property on the Patapasco and Severn rivers was selling for $1000 per acre and pointed out how the bridge would make a demand for Kent water front property.

Mr. Perkins then introducted Mr. Chester Leasure, associate Editor of Nations Business, the official organ of the United States Chamber of Commerce, who gave a most interesting talk. His talk was very broad and covered many interesting subjects among which were: The danger of Government ownership; our present system of making laws; the overlaping of many governmental departments and the big work before the United States Chamber of Commerce.

In reference to the last subject Mr. Leasure said that the Chamber of Commerce council is composed of 400 big business men from all parts of the United States, engaged in different lines of business who meet frequently and discuss business from a national stand point.

Dr. Paul E. Titsworth urged every member present to join the local chamber and a number of those present became new members.

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas—It has pleased Almighty God, in his wise providence to take out of this world, the soul of our beloved member, Mrs. Henriette M. Roeder,

We the members of the Woman's Auxilliary, and Parish Guild, of Shrewsbury Church, desire to put on record, our deep sense of loss in her death.

We would express to her niece, Mrs. Henrietta Dukes, and her cousin, Mrs. Elizabeth Berens, our heartfelt sympathy.

We have lost one who had a sincere and helpful interest in all the work of the Church and Parish.

Resolved—That a copy of these resolutions be entered in the minutes of the Societies; be sent to her niece and cousin, The Eastern Shore Columbuous and the county papers.

COMMITTEE,
MRS. ROBERT W. LEWIS,
MRS. WM. R. CROW,
MRS. MARION PENNINGTON.

By an agreement reached between the Commissioners for Harford county and the Conowingo interests, that giant power project will pay State and county taxes for 1928, on over $5,500,000. This does not include the Cecil county section of the dam.
