FIRE IN PINEY NECK

A fire, which threatened the residence and valuable fishing nets in an adjoining field, destroyed the outbuildings on the small farm in Piney Neck, owned by Mr. James V. Burgess and occupied by Mr. Charles W. Beck.

A bucket brigade of local people saved the residence and when the fire truck of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Co., arrived water was pumped through 1000 feet of hose which completely extinquished the fire. A number of fishing nets in an adjoining sedge field were threatened before the arrival of the fire truck.

"THE BANK WHERE YOU FEEL AT HOME."

Notice To The Farmers

The Directors of the Third National Bank are arranging a method of financing the purchase of accredited herds of dairy cattle for those farmers in the county who may require financial aid in paying the cash in order to restock their herds, and the Bank officials have taken the matter up with Philadelphia milk distributors in an effort to secure their cooperation in a plan, the provisions of which will be set forth in this space in next week's issue.

If you are in need of funds with which to finance this phase of your farming operations, the Third National Bank will be glad to render every financial assistance possible.

Do not hesitate to call upon us at your convenience and we shall be glad to go over the matter with you.
