POULTRY MEETING HELD

One hundred and thirty poultry raisers attended a poultry meeting in William Smith Hall, Washington College on Thursday evening of this week.

The meeting was arranged by Truslow Poultry Farm, Inc., assisted by P. M. Brooks and Metcalfe Bros.

Poultry specialists from the Purina FeedC o., staged an interesting dialogue, taking the part of the poultry raisers and the hatcher. This dialogue brought out the importance of proper care of eggs, feeding and care of baby chicks, pullets and hens, and the importance of feeding proper balanced rations.

Seventeen premiums were given to holders of lucky numbers by Truslow Poultry Farm, P. M. Brooks, Metcalfe Bros., and Wm. M. Culp.

Where are last year's Christmas Gifts

Some of them have simply disappeared—are not even a memory. Some of them have been stored away—almost forgotten. But some, a very few, are still delightful reminders of the giver, and of the happy Christmas that was the occasion for the gift.

Make your Christmas gift one of permanent remembrance. Let it be a living token of the wish for happiness that you bestow with it.
