LOCAL ITEMS.

New corn is selling on the streets at $2.00 per barrel.

Chas. Schwinderman has taken the position of day clerk at the city hotel.

Our merchants report a brisk trade, in their several lines, for fall and winter goods.

The brick work of the new building of Jno. T. Orndorff, on West Main street, has been completed.

Messrs. Roop & Zile, seedsmen, of this city, had a large exhibit at the Hagerstown Fair this week.

Charles Manahan informs us that after the 25th instant his cider mill will be shut down for the season.

John G. Shunk, of this city, caught 14 suckers out of Menges' mill dam, near Middleburg, on Saturday last.

The early spell of cold weather has kept our stove dealers quite busy in supplying the demand for heaters.

Lewis Kretzer has moved his grocery store to the room formerly occupied by C. J. Willet, on West Main Street.

Messrs. Roop & Zile, of this city, received a premium on their Chester White hogs exhibited at the Hagerstown Fair.

We are indebted to Dr. Geo. S. Yingling, of Tiffin, Ohio, for a copy of the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette of a recent date.

On Friday night of last week a hall lamp exploded at the residence of Jas. E. Smith, on East Main street, doing slight damages.

John Voshell, who has spent most of the summer at the Hotel Albion, in this city, has taken charge of a hotel at Chestertown, Md.

Mrs. Dr. Woodward, of this city, who had been ill with typhoid fever but was convalescing, has suffered a relapse and is now very ill.

The remains of Lucinda Smith, who died at York, Pa., on the 5th inst., were interred at New Windsor. She was in the 54th year of her age.

The colored Republicans of Freedom district will hold a meeting, at Johnsville, to-night at 7½ o'clock. Several speakers are expected from Baltimore.

The Baltimore American speaks in the most laudatory terms of Prof. McDaniel's new system of instruction in club swinging as explained in his book just published.

The Hagerstown Fair this week was a success and largely attended from all parts of the State. On Thursday 325 tickets to the fair were sold at the station in this city.

Mrs. George W. Stoner, Sr., of Stonersville, will please accept the thanks of the manager of the SENTINEL for four red beets which weighed, in the aggregate, 18¾ pounds.

Two very large pumpkins were stolen from the garden of John H. Baum, 146 West Main street, this city, on Wednesday night. The thief was probably a professional in that peculiar line.

At the late Annual Encampment of the G. A. R., at Columbus, Ohio, Col. Wm. A. McKellip, of this city, was elected a member of the National Council of Administration of that organization.

The pole-raising in the vicinity of Smallwood, last Saturday afternoon, was quite a success. Louis P. Hennighausen, Esq., of Baltimore, made a telling speech to a thoroughly interested audience.

Dr. D. F. Shipley is having the interior of the house at the corner of Main and Centre streets, purchased of Jos. A. Waesche, remodeled and repaired and will occupy it immediately as a dwelling and office.

George Dorsey, a well-known colored man of this city, while cutting off corn at the farm of Joshua Gist, inflicted a severe wound upon the back of his hand. He is suffering very much from the effects of the injury.

Samuel Angell, of the vicinity of Keysville, recently saw a stalk of corn, which was taken from the field of O. D. Byerly, near Double Pipe Creek, the length of which was 16 feet 8 inches. Mr. Angell saw it measured.

The Republicans of Melrose and vicinity will show their faith in the justice of their cause by holding a meeting at that place this afternoon at 1 o'clock. Several speeches will be made and a stirring time is anticipated.

So rapidly has Mr. John L. Reifsnider, of this city, recovered from the severe surgical operation recently performed at the Maryland University Infirmary, that it is expected he will be able to return to his home within a few days.

Benj. F. Payne and family, of Hopewell Centre, York county, Pa., are on a week's visit to friends in this county. They spent Thursday on an excursion to the Hagerstown Fair. Mr. Payne is a son of John Payne, of Shiloh.

Burns Post No. 13, G. A. R., will meet at Odd Fellows' Hall this, Saturday, night at 7 o'clock. A full attendance of the members is very earnestly desired, as business pertaining to the excursion to Gettysburg on the 25th inst., will be considered.

Mrs. J. Huffman Fuss, of Liberty street, this city, raised in her garden, during the past season, a red beet that measured 28½ inches in circumference and weighed 10½ pounds. If anybody can beat that beet the SENTINEL would be glad to know it.

A Children's Missionary Jubilee service will be held by the M. P. Sunday School of this city, on Sunday, to-morrow, evening, at the usual hour for evening service. A very interesting and attractive program has been prepared for the occasion.

The Evangelical Lutheran congregation of the Keysville Union Church has purchased the interest of the United Brethren denomination in that edifice. The church is therefore now jointly and equally the property of the Reformed and Lutheran denominations.

The annual Love Feast of the German Baptists, at Meadow Branch church, near this city, will be held this afternoon. The services will be of the usual interesting character and the attendance will probably be very large. A number of prominent ministers of the Church will be present.

John G. Shunk, auctioneer, sold, for Thomas A. Forney, trustee, on Saturday last, a lot of ground and brick building heretofore used as a machine shop in Union Bridge, belonging to the estate of the late Joseph Moore, for the sum of $1000. It was purchased by Mrs. Hannah P. Moore.

Under the head of political notices it is announced that the Republicans will raise a pole at Taneytown next Saturday afternoon, 27th instant. This means a grand demonstration of the overwhelming Protection sentiment of the old Taneytown district. A number of good speeches will be made.

Harry Gardner has been appointed mail messenger, in this city, vice Samuel Tubman resigned on account of ill health. Mr. Tubman has been a faithful and efficient officer and there is general regret at his inability to continue in the position referred to, as well as sincere sympathy for him in his affliction.

The Republican meeting and pole raising at Winfield, to-day, at 1 P. M., will be an enthusiastic affair. Winfield is famous for large Republican gatherings, and at this time the patriotic hearts of the Republicans of that neighborhood are deeply stirred concerning the important issues of the campaign. A large attendance is anticipated.

The Republicans of Freedom district have a flourishing club numbering not less than seventy-five members. On Friday evening of last week it met at Porter's and last night at Gist's. Great interest is manifested and the members are full of enthusiasm. The Secretary of the club would confer a favor by sending us the names of the officers.

A musical and literary entertainment, for the benefit of the new M. E. Church at Mt. Airy, will be given at Anderson & Co's hall at that place, on Saturday evening, 27th inst., commencing at 7 o'clock. The exercises will consist of organ and cornet duets, organ and violin duets, solos, quartettes and choruses by a choir of trained vocalists. Also recitations by Misses Minnie Hobbs and Cora Day. The entertainment will be under the leadership of Prof. G. W. Walker. Admission 15 cents; children 10 cents.

Governor Jackson has granted a pardon to Wm. Fisher, of this city, who was convicted at the May term, 1888, of the Circuit Court for Carroll county, of obtaining goods under false pretenses, and sentenced to be confined in the Maryland penitentiary for two years from 15th of last June. The Governor's action meets with general approval.

There is no special law for the protection of rabbits in Carroll county, but the general State law allows shooting and trapping between October 15th and January 15th. Partridges can be shot from November 1st till December 24th, under the general law; woodcocks from June 15th till February 1st; and Pheasants between August 15th and January 1st.

Joseph P. Yingling, of Pleasant Valley, is on a trip in the North and writes us from Buffalo, N. Y., that he found himself on Sunday quite lonesome without the SENTINEL. Things are a little lively in politics up that way just now, he says. The Republican Club, of Buffalo, is limited in numbers only by the capacity of its quarters. Buffalo is a Republican city.

A straw-stack containing about ten tons, on the farm of James Turfle, about 1½ miles from this city, on the Baltimore and Reisterstown turnpike, was destroyed by fire on Thursday. The wind fortunately carried the flames away from the buildings, so that no further damage was done. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it was probably due to a tramp and a pipe.

The excursion of Burns Post, G. A. R., to Gettysburg, on Thursday next, 25th inst., ought to be a grand success. The interesting ceremonies attending the unveiling and dedication of the Maryland monuments will well repay the excursionist for the expense incurred for the fare, which is placed at a low figure. For particnlars and time table see advertisement in another column.

On Friday night of last week a horse which Nimrod Green, of the vicinity of Carrollton, was riding, stumbled and fell, throwing Mr. Green to the ground and fracturing his left leg above the knee very badly. Drs. J. H. Billingslea and Jos. T. Hering were called and reduced the fracture. The patient is doing well, but from the nature of his injuries it will be some time before he will be able to get about.

The ladies of Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church, of this city, met on Sunday last and organized a Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society with a membership of 33. Mrs. Rev. P. H. Miller was elected President; Mrs. J. G. Shunk, Vice-President; Mrs. B. F. Crouse, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Wm. A. Cunningham, Treasurer. The regular meetings will be held on the second Sunday of each month.

An accident of which we have not heard the particulars occurred to Milton Devilbiss' huckster team and wagon, as he was en route to Baltimore on Wednesday. The horses became frightened at a railroad train in the vicinity of Arlington and in their struggles damaged the wagon to the extent of $50 and destroyed a large number of eggs, our informant thinks upwards of 100 dozen. The manner in which the damage was inflicted was not stated; but the wagon was probably overturned.

The price of wheat has receded from the rather startling figures to which it had risen under the operations of speculators. Yesterday the highest quotations at the warehouses in this city were $1.03 to $1.05. Under the stimulus of high prices large quantities are being received and there may be a still further decline. The steady advance, however, which preceded the flurry created by the corner at Chicago, was of a healthy character, and there is very little danger of a return to the low rates of last year.

The Department of Maryland, G. A. R., has received and accepted an invitation from the Gettysburg Monument Commission to participate in the ceremony of unveiling, on the 25th inst., the monuments erected by the State of Maryland to mark the position of the Maryland regiments that took part in the battle. The Governor of the State and his Staff, the 5th Regt. M. N. G., and other organizations will be present and participate in the ceremony. It will be a great day, and a great occasion for the Maryland soldiers who participated in the battle.

At the meeting of the Republican Club of Westminster, on Tuesday evening last, Dr. J. J. Weaver, Jr., of Uniontown, made a very interesting and effective speech. There was a large and attentive auditory, among whom were a number of Democrats. The Dr's. argument in favor of protection was cogent and forcible and the illustrations presented were, in many cases, such as have fallen under his own personal observation, or were received directly from others who were eye witnesses of the incidents and facts portrayed. The speech was not of the ad captandum style, but it elicited many manifestations of approval and applause.

Joshua J. Schweigart, of this city, has just returned from another voyage to England. He is more than ever impressed with the dangers of free-trade which threaten our people through the attitude of the Democratic party. He saw abundant additional evidence of the extreme proverty and wretchedness of the working people of England, which he describes in his own simple, but graphic way. He says Cleveland is very popular among them, and it isn't safe to say a word against him in their presence. They expect him to open the American markets to the products of English labor and improve their own condition by impoverishing the American artisan.

The young gentlemen of this city gave a very enjoyable hop at the city hotel on Tuesday night. Among those present were the following:

Miss Bessie Shriver, of Union Mills; Miss Parran, of Calvert county; Misses Bettie Reifsnider, Annie Shriver, Annie Cassell, Jennie Smith, Pauline Trumbo, Maggie Huber, Lottie Moore, Kittie Roberts, Rosie Reese, Mary Reese, Mary B. Shellman, Maggie Baumgartner, Winnie Smith, Julia McKellip, of Westminster; Fred D. Miller, Jno. H. Cunningham, Will Reese, Wm. H. Thomas, John Everhart, Jno. M. Roberts, Chas. B. Roberts, Jr., F. Neal Park, Clarence Wickert, Frank Miller, Will Everhart, John Miller, James Dugan, H. L. Stone, Howard Schaeffer, John Brundige, J. B. Stott, of Westminster; Chas. Dugan, of Baltimore; Messrs. McCurdy and Chas. Stouffer, of New Windsor; Mr. Shriver, of Union Mills; Fred Englar, of Linwood. Chaperones—Mrs. Geo. M. Pearce, Mrs. Chas. E. Stewart, Mrs. J. Upshur Stirling, Mrs. A. H. Wentz, Mrs. Orlando Reese.

The County Commissioners visited the site of the new bridge over Little Pipe Creek at Linwood, on Tuesday, and after careful inspection passed the bridge and ordered payment to be made to the contractors, Messrs. Nelson & Buchanan, agents of the Pittsburg Iron Bridge Company. The cost was $550, not including the masonry, which upon inspection was found to be somewhat defective, and payment therefore deferred until such time as the defect shall have been corrected.

Richard Beggs, a well-known and esteemed citizen of Westminster district died at the residence of his son, John W. Beggs, on Friday of last week, aged 78 years, 5 months and 12 days. Mr. Beggs was, at one time, a prominent business man, but in conseqnence of the infirmities of age retired from active participation in business affairs several years ago. He was formerly engaged in merchandizing at Stonersville. His remains were interred at Meadow Branch Church cemetery on Sunday, after services conducted by Elder D. D. Bonsack and others of the German Baptist Church, of which deceased was a member. He left but one child, the son at whose home he died.

Election at New Windsor.

A special election for Burgess and one Commissioner of the town of New Windsor was held at that place on Wednesday, 17th instant. The contest was not exciting, only 64 votes having been cast. The result was: For Burgess—W. S. Drach, 51, Peter Baile, 13; for Commissioner—Henry W. Geatty, 50, C. W. Woods, 11, scattering, 3.

The last will and testament of Sally Snyder, deceased, was admitted to probate.

Brummel Items.

As announced in last week's items from this place, a Harrison, Morton and Lang pole was raised here on last Saturday afternoon. A drizzling rain prevailed but did not quench the enthusiasm of the more than one hundred people who assembled to participate in the event. Lifted by strong arms the pole, which is a beauty, soon stood erect with the glorious stars and stripes floating to the breeze. Then the crowd gave three long and loud cheers for Harrison, Morton and Lang. Wm. McGee, acting President, then called the assembly to order and introduced Col. Wm. A. McKellip, of Westminster, who spoke for half an hour, and was followed by Capt. Chas. Miller of Union Bridge. These gentlemen directed their remarks to the great issue of the hour, protection against free-trade, and made a good impression on the audience. The Westminster Band was in attendance and enlivened the occasion with choice music. The stand was beautifully decorated with flowers and evergreen.

The Mount Union Sunday School closed for the winter on Sunday last. The occasion was marked by the annual treat which consisted of a choice lot of confectionery, and a number of beautiful cards and books.

A revival of religion is in progress at Mount Union Church and there have been a number of penitents at the altar.

A revival meeting has commenced at St. John's (Leister's) Church.

Drawing of Jurors.

On Monday last Hon. John E. Smith, Judge of the Circuit Court for Carroll county, drew the jurors for the November term of court, which commences on Monday, November 12th. The list by districts is as follows:

Taneytown, No. 1.—Aloysius Orndorff, Samuel Galt, Jr., Tobias H. Eckenrode, Samuel Null, Levi Flickinger, Charles W. Hess.

Uniontown, No. 2.—John Routson, Abraham W. Caylor, John W. Powel, Wm. H. Myerly, Milton A. Zollickoffer, Evan Haines.

Myers', No. 3.—Jonas Frock, Levi J. Motter, Henry S. Troxell.

Woolery's, No. 4.—Joshua F. Magee, Samuel P. Beam.

Freedom, No. 5.—James W. Gaither, W. Dorsey Brandenburg, John H. Conaway.

Franklin, No. 9.—Frank A. Baker, Raymond Barnes, George W. Chase.

Middleburg, No. 10.—Wm. J. Reifsnider.

New Windsor, No. 11.—Joshua Smith, Joseph A. Stouffer, Henry W. Geatty, John W. Hawk.

Union Bridge, No. 12.—Wm. J. Urner, John Englar.

Manchester Items.

The Grove Brothers are delivering the finest kind of white oak trees and bridge timber at Maple Grove, for which they find ready sale.

Wm. T. Everhart, of Woodberry, spent some days among friends here recently. William is on the rail in his campaign crowings for Harrison.

The members of Trinity Reformed Mite Society visited the home of Mr. Charles Grove, Germantown, on Monday evening and had a pleasant time. They enjoyed a beautiful moonlight walk and had a big collection.

John Warner found a heifer and an empty chop barrel in the feed entry of his stable, one morning recently. The heifer was none the worse for her apparently exaggerated meal, and the trick was too transparent to pass muster. A thief had stolen the chop and turned the heifer into the entry to cover his crime. It wasn't the cat that did it that time.

Some of the prominent Democrats of Manchester went to Lineboro on Saturday and clasped hands with their brethren across Mason and Dixon's line. Two Democratic poles were raised and speeches were made by Hon. Herman Stump and B. F. Crouse, Esq. The same gentlemen addressed a Democratic meeting in the Odd Fellows' Hall in this place at night.

An article in the Telephone Messenger last week concerning the projected Manchester Railroad, excited a great deal of comment from everybody, and a great deal of indignation on the part of the Mayor and Council, whom the writer charged with the long delay in putting the enterprise into operation. In this he was in error, as these officials have fully and punctually discharged all the duties imposed upon them in the matter, and have anxiously awaited such developments as would lead to the success of the undertaking. They are not amenable to censure in the premises and no blame should be attached to them.

As heretofore stated the Manchester cigar factory conducted by the Becker Brothers was closed last week. The stock and machinery has been removed to Baltimore. The last relic was sent off in smoke, a bon-fire having been made of the sweepings. This removal causes a loss of several families to the town, but from present appearances will occasion no diminution in its business. Several other factories are about to be started. A company of citizens has been organized and the requisite capital subscribed to put one in operation; while Mr. John Miller, of Tank, a practical man, is about to move his factory here and enter into partnership with Mr. Henry Hoffacker. Mr. Miller now employs 15 hands, which number will be doubled here, so that these two new enterprises will fully offset the loss involved in the removal of the Becker factory. In addition to these Chas. Brilhart & Bro. are building a new factory and will increase their facilities and the number of their workmen, while Messrs. Hoffman & Richards are just starting a factory on North Main street. The prospect, not only of maintaining but increasing the cigar manufacturing business here, is therefore very encouraging, promising employment to all our home workmen and bringing others among us.

DECIMUS QUINTUS.

Thos. Turfle is having a new pavement laid in front of the residence occupied by Mr. Henry Vanderford, on East Main street. He is also having the gutter substantially paved.

Personal.

Miss Bertha Strasburger, of this city, is visiting relatives in Baltimore.

Mrs. Eli W. Garrett, of Hanover, Pa., is visiting friends in this city and Bachman's Valley.

Mr. C. J. Willet has removed, with his family, from this city to Baltimore where he has obtained employment.

Miss Lizzie Buckingham, of this city, after spending some time with relatives in Frederick county, and in Union Bridge, has returned home.

Rev. C. S. Slagle, pastor of St. Paul's Reformed Church, of this city, has returned home from Synod, and will fill his pulpit to-morrow.

Mrs. J. P. Farrar and Mrs. Charles Barlow, of Lynn, Mass., mother and sister of D. L. Farrar, are visiting him at his residence on Liberty street, this city.

Mrs. J. Q. Stitely, of this city, who with her son Luther had been visiting another son at Minneapolis, Minn., returned home on Sunday last after an absence of about six weeks.

P. S. Helterbrick, of Rehoboth church, Northumberland county, Va., arrived here on Tuesday and spent the day with Theo. F. Englar, of near this city. In the evening he left for Taneytown to visit relatives at that place.

The venerable Rev. Littleton F. Morgan, D. D., supernumerary, of the M. E. church, has been the guest of Rev. Chas. A. Reid, of this city, this week. He preached at Centenary church, Sunday morning and evening, to large and deeply interested audiences.

Rev. Wm. J. Thompson, of Hampstead, spent several days during the early part of the week with his parents in this city. He left for Ellicott City on Wednesday to attend the sub district conference at that place. He was one of the speakers on the subject of Missions on Wednesday night.

For the SENTINEL.

Pole Raising at Hampstead.

HAMPSTEAD, MD., Oct. 15, '88.

Mr. Editor:—The Republican mass meeting in our town on Saturday last was an occasion of no ordinary enthusiasm, and after special efforts to ascertain the extent of its influence, we are prepared to report favorably.

In accordance with the programme announced in your last week's issue a Harrison and Morton pole was raised, from the top of which a large and handsome national flag, the handiwork of some of our patriotic ladies, was flung to the breeze amid cheers for Harrison and Morton, and also for Col. Theo. F. Lang, our candidate for the House of Representatives. The first address was made by Mr. W. L. W. Seabrook, who did honor to himself as well as justice to his cause in a well-timed discussion of the tariff and its important relation to the interests of the people. He was listened to with marked attention, and several times received the applause of the audience.

After music by the Band Col. Lang was introduced as the next speaker. He also spoke again at night and both addresses were pleasing and instructive to all who heard him. His matter and manner were so far above the ordinary politician as to impress clergy and scholars, ladies and gentlemen with his representative superiority. The Colonel's visit to Hampstead has made him friends if not votes; but we have evidence that it has made both. Very much will depend on his personal appearance in every election district in the whole county. He is a christian gentleman of a high type, and is worthy of the political endorsement of any true man.

SYZYGY.

Reported for the SENTINEL.

Wedding Bells.

LEE—KOHLENBURG.

A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Haller, on Court street, Frederick, Md., at 2 o'clock, P. M., on Tuesday, 9th inst. The contracting parties were Miss Laura Kohlenburg and Mr. Robert E. Lee, both of Sykesville, Carroll county. The bride was dressed in a cream Henrietta cloth and moire. She was attended by Miss Lulu Dreyer, of Monrovia, Md., whose dress was of a similar description. Mr. John Taylor, of Lewistown, Md., was best man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Osborne Ingle, pastor of All Saint's P. E. Church, Frederick. After the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the home of Mr. Wm. Taylor, the bride's uncle, at Lewistown, where a reception was given the newly-married pair. They returned to Sykesville on Saturday evening, where a reception was also given them, at the bride's home. Among those present on the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Phillinger, Mr. and Mrs. Flohr, Mr. and Mrs. Crook, Mrs. Kruger and son, Misses Lulu Dreyer and Emma Flohr, Mr. and Mrs. A. Kohlenburg, Mr. and Mrs. P. Lee, Messrs. Titus Day, Frank Flohr, and many others. Mr. Lee was formerly in the employ of Messrs. Herr Brothers, this city, and is well known here.

MENGEL—BITZEL.

A pretty wedding took place on Sunday afternoon last at the German Lutheran Church, near Smallwood, the contracting parties being Mr. John C. Mengel, and Miss Annie B. Bitzel, the pretty daughter of Mr. George Bitzel, both of the vicinity of Smallwood, Carroll county, Md. The time set for the ceremony was 3 o'clock, but long before that hour the little church was crowded with friends of the happy couple. Promptly at 3 o'clock the doors of the church opened and the wedding party marched up the aisle to the music of the wedding march, preceded by two little girls, Misses Ada Heinz and May Rempp, nieces of the bride. They were dressed in white and each carried a bouquet of flowers. Rev. George Zimmerman, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony. A sumptuous supper was served at the home of the bride's father, after the marriage ceremony was performed, and later in the evening the tables were again spread with good things, in the centre of which the wedding cake was conspicuous. The bride was the recipient of a number of handsome presents. Miss Mary Bitzel was bridesmaid, and Mr. George Mengel was best man. Early the next morning the young couple left for Baltimore and the East on a short wedding trip. Among those present on the occasion of the wedding were Mr. Henry Miller and wife, Mr. Wm. M. Heinz and wife, Mrs. Baltzer, Miss Crooks, Mr. E. A. Heinz, of Baltimore; Mr. Fred. Himler and wife, Mr. John Himler and wife, Mr. Henry Himler and wife, and Miss Katie Himler, of Westminster; Mr. and Mrs. Rosenberger, Mr. Philip M. Bitzel, Miss M. Bitzel, Mr. Henry Bitzel and wife, Mrs. Mengel, Mr. George Bitzel, Jr., and others, of Carroll county.

College Notes.

Miss Coghill, of North Carolina, has returned home on account of the severe illness of her mother.

Prof. Rinehart went to Chestertown Saturday and remained over Sunday to preside at the organ of the new M. P. Church of that place. The occasion was the dedication of the church, a magnificant edifice costing in the neighborhood of $30,000. The pipe organ upon which the Professor played cost twenty-five hundred and is an instrument from the Hagerstown pipe organ factory. Prof. Rinehart is enthusiastic over Eastern Shore hospitality.

Prof. McDaniel's new book on calisthentics entitled "Club Swinging by Note," is receiving many complimentary notices from men devoted to the science. It entirely discards the old uninteresting method of memorizing movements, and in its place gives something novel and fascinating to a high degree. We cannot say enough in praise of this ingenious and yet simple system. It possesses a charming interest.

Miss Blandon, the new vocal teacher who begins her work with us in November, will be the main figure in a music recital to be held near the close of this month.

The Freshman and Sophomore classes occupied the one-o'clock period yesterday with declamations, readings, etc.

We are now safe to say that very few chestnuts can now be found on the trees in the college grove.

Gamber Items.

Farmers are very backward with their fall seeding, owing to so much wet weather.

Joseph Willis, whom I mentioned as having purchased a shingle mill, has fitted it up and is about ready for work.

A. F. Gamber & Bro., of this place, are painting the new school house at Bird Hill. They are also at work on Emory Zepp's new house, near here.

Mrs. Margaret Easton and her daughter Sadie and children, from Wheeling, W. Va., are on a visit to Thos. Gorsuch's and other friends in this vicinity.

Mr. Robert Wheeler, who was seriously injured, as reported last week, is slowly recovering, and is able to get about the house.

A protracted meeting commenced here in the Methodist Episcopal Church last Sunday. Good congregations were out each night.

The trustees of Providence Methodist Protestant Church held a meeting last Monday evening to agree on a plan of making some alterations in the church edifice, at an early date.

The young Republicans are determined to raise a Harrison, Morton and Lang pole in this place and have set the time for Saturday, October 27th, at 1 o'clock, and invite all in favor of home protection and protection to the working men to take part in the same. They are making arrangements to unfurl a new national flag to the breeze on that day, their flag having been cut into pieces some years ago by some miscreants in the vicinity. Fifty dollars reward was offered for the conviction of the parties, at the time of the occurrence, and the supposition to-day is that part of the gang are still in the neighborhood. A vigilant eye will be kept on them.

Taneytown Items.

Charles A. Elliot has gone on a visit to friends at Hagerstown, Md.

Harry Cover, of Frizellburg, unloaded five car loads of cattle at this place Wednesday afternoon.

Rev. J. Stewart Hartman and wife, of New Holland, Pa., were visiting friends in our town this week.

P. S. Heltebrick, of Virginia, is visiting his brothers, Peter and Henry Helterbrick, in this community.

Josiah Adlesperger, of Frederick street, has been quite sick the past few weeks with dropsy.

Mrs. Milton Reindollar was in Baltimore this week laying in a new stock of goods for her millinery store.

Sylvester and Pius Fink went on a business and pleasure trip combined, to Reading, Pa., recently.

Harry M. Clabaugh addressed a Republican meeting at New Midway, on last Saturday evening.

W. Jesse Roberts has purchased a building lot on Middle street, and has broken ground for a new house, to be erected this fall.

John Baird, Jr., has broken ground on his lot on New street, for the purpose of erecting a house. This looks a little as if John intended to take unto himself a better half.

Holy communion will be celebrated in Grace Reformed church on Sunday, 21st inst. The pastor, Rev. H. Ditzler will be assisted by Rev. Prof. Krebs, of Littlestown, Pa.

The Republican Club met in Eckenrode's hall on last Saturday evening. About fifteen persons united themselves with the club. Joseph L. Haines, of Linwood, this county, gave the club an excellent address. After the speaking, on motion of Thomas D. Thomson it was decided to have an open-air meeting and pole-raising and a committee was appointed to act in conjunction with the executive committee. It was decided by the committee to have the meeting on Saturday, October 27th. A number of able speakers will be present. The pole will be planted in the same spot on which the Harrison and Tyler pole of 1840 stood.

In last week's issue of the Carrolltonian the correspondent from this place made what, we suppose, he would call one of his "spread eagle" displays, in reference to a bouquet of flowers which was sent to a certain store in this place. Now, it is not the habit of the SENTINEL's correspondent to go around to every little two-for-five hat store in town to see if some one has sent him a bouquet of flowers, as such an incident is an unusual occurrence. But the SENTINEL's correspondent is not ashamed of his literary pretensions. He has no desire, however, to go about the town sounding a trumpet and proclaiming to the inhabitants, "Here is a newspaper correspondent." Judging from the tenor of the letter in the Carrolltonian, its author must regard it as a master piece of literature and feel very much elated in the contemplation of his work as an extraordinary literary production. It looks, too, as if he were courting a compliment similar to that which has so freely stirred the muddy pool of his poor wit. He should bear in mind the scriptural declaration, "whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased."

A band of strolling musicians have delighted our citizens with some beautiful music this week.

Union Bridge Items.

A Republican pole raising will take place at Middletown on Saturday, 20th inst., at 1 o'clock, P. M. Addresses will be delivered by Hon. W. L. W. Seabrook, of your city, Dr. J. J. Weaver, Jr., of Uniontown, and others. The pole will be 130 feet in length. The Citizen's Æolian Band, of Union Bridge, will furnish music for the occasion.

A fair and festival was opened last Saturday night, in the rink, under the auspices of the Union Bridge Band, and has been held every night during the week. On Wednesday evening the Union Bridge Fire Company, headed by the Band, gave a full dress parade. To-night the Westminster Band, accompanied by a number of persons, will attend the fair.

The Union Bridge Band will attend a Democratic meeting at Frederick on Friday of this week.

Dr. S. R. Wright, who has been confined to his bed for some time past, with malarial fever, is able to be up again.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Little returned on Thursday of last week from their wedding tour, and were given a reception by the bride's mother.

Miss Lavinia Archer, who had been visiting relatives and friends in this city, returned to her home in Baltimore on Monday last.

Miss Lizzie Buckingham, of Westminster, is visiting relatives in this city.

Mayberry Items.

The Eldership of the Church of God, which held its annual sessions here, closed on Tuesday night. Although the weather was very unfavorable the attendance was quite large. The Sunday services were very interesting. An experience meeting was held at 8 o'clock, preceding the 10 o'clock morning service; Children's meeting at 2 o'clock, P. M. and preaching at night. The church was crowded at every service.

This neighborhood can beat the champion corn cutter of Harney. He cut an acre and a half in three-quarters of a day. Four men here cut fifty-five acres in six and a half days. They didn't work before day, and the corn was as heavy as any in the vicinity, while at least twelve acres of it was bent and down. The names of the men can be given if desired.

A hail storm passed over this neighborhood on Saturday last. The ground was white until the rain poured down and melted the hail away.

There is talk of raising a Harrison and Morton pole in this village. We hope it will be done.

We are glad to see Harry Fleagle out again, but very sorry to know that he has lost the sight of his eye.

Charles Babylon is having his house painted; Amos Fowble painter.

Harney Items.

H. Kemper is building a new house near here, on the road leading to Gettysburg.

J. H. Lambert and John Sterner are both erecting large hogpens and will feed hogs instead of steers.

Quite a number of farmers have commenced husking corn; although the corn is not as dry as it should be.

The third quarterly conference of the U. B. Church, Littlestown circuit, Pennsylvania Conference, will convene here on the 27th inst. Rev. A. H. Rice, P. E., will preside.

Edward Kean, of Greenville, has picked over a hundred bushels of apples from his orchard, and is not done. He picked fifty-four and a-half bushels while standing on the ground.

Mr. John Myers and Miss Carrie Good, both of this place, were married last Tuesday morning and left on a trip for Philadelphia. On their return they will stop at Baltimore and York. They have our hearty congratulations.

Woodbine Items.

Rev. J. S. Burton preached at Morgan Chapel on the 14th inst., to a large congregation.

The Sabbath school turn out at that place on Saturday last was a grand success. A large concourse of people from Howard and Carroll counties were on the ground. Revs. J. M. Kilgore, D. D., Edward Smith and J. S. Burton delivered able addresses. The recitations and dialogues by the teachers and children did them much credit. Professor Walker's choir rendered music that seemed to be faint echoes of the songs of the happy choristers in the spirit land. All hail to Sabbath Schools! We cheerfully give to the superintendent, W. H. Harrison, the encomium, "Well done good and faithful servant."

Bird Hill Items.

Death has taken away the baby daughter of Elias B. Shilling. She was ten months old.

Miss Julia Miller is in a dying condition and will probably have passed away before this appears in print.

Miss Ida J. Smith is slowly improving.

Lewis Jordan has lost a mare that had reached the age of 28 years.

The marriage of John Mengel and Miss Annie Bitzel occurred on Sunday last.

Pole Raising at Middletown.

The Republicans of Middletown will raise a Harrison, Morton and Lang pole to-day, Saturday, at 1 o'clock. Middletown lies in Union Bridge district near the borders of Middleburg, Uniontown and New Windsor districts, and the Republicans from each of them will participate in the event. Several speeches will be made and an enthusiastic time is anticipated.
