BRAN FOR FEEDING.

From Flocks and Herds.

Bran is good feed for stock, and whenever it can be secured at fair prices, there are few farmers but that can use it to good advantage. It adds to the value of a number of materials raised upon the farm and used for feed, and at the same time adds to the value of the manure. In localities where more care is taken to secure not only the largest quantity but the best quality of manure, bran is purchased for feeding, and it is claimed it enriches the manure sufficiently to pay for the cost of the bran; it is profitable for feeding milch cows during the year both winter and summer. It is one of the best feeds that can be given to a sow near farrowing, and while she is nursing her pigs. It is a cheap food to give growing pigs to keep them in a healthy and thrifty condition. Bran increases the value of sheaf oats, hay, straw and corn fodder, if fed in connection with any of them, by making them more complete as food, and makes up a good variety, a desirable item in feeding stock if the best possible results are to be secured. Of course the price should always be considered in deciding whether bran can be used profitably or not. If other foods like corn and oats are high, bran can be used profitably at a higher price than if these materials can be secured at lower prices. If properly stored where it will keep dry, bran can be kept in good condition all winter, so that as is often the case, if the price is reasonably low in the fall it will not be a bad plan to purchase a good supply and then store for winter, to be used as needed. The most economical plan is as far as possible to secure a sufficient amount of feed in the fall. In a majority of cases it can be secured at a lower price so as to pay well for purchasing at that time. The feeding value of a number of materials may be considerably increased and a better gain at a less cost be secured.

WISE WORDS.

God's grace is as great as eternity and as vast as the sea.

Books are the ever-burning lamps of accumulated wisdom.

The day of Judgment will be to the saints the great coronation day.

The company in which you will improve the most will be the least expensive to you.

It is far more easy to acquire a fortune like a knave than to expend it like a gentleman.

Use charity with all—be generous in thought and deed—help others along life's thorny pathway.

The seed of sacrifice brings forth the fragrant fruit of love, and love always has in its heart the seeds of new sacrifice.

The bad fortune of the good turns their faces toward Heaven, and the good fortune of the bad bows their heads down to the earth.

Praise in the direction of one's truest ideal is stimulating and encouraging praise. Any other praise gives discomfort rather than satisfaction.

Every road which leads to a throne is delightful, were it bristling with thorns; every road which leads to a precipice is frightful, were it covered with roses.

If wealth comes, beware of him, the smooth false friend. There is treachery in his proffered hand; his tongue is eloquent to tempt; lust of many harms is lurking in his eyes; he hath a hollow heart; use him cautiously.

A man never gets over the influence of an early christian home. It holds him in an eternal grip. Though hes parents may have been gone forty years, the tears of penitence and gladness that were wept at the family altar still glitter in his memory.

The lark goes up singing toward Heaven; but when she stops the motion of her wings, then straightway she falls. So it is with him who prays not. Prayer is the movement of the wings of the soul: it bears one heavenward, but without prayer we sink.

GEMS FOR THOUGHT.

The million covet wealth, but how few dream of its perils.

Join the bright side of life. The fools are on the other side.

Cultivate forbearance till your heart yields a fine crop of it.

The office of liberality consisteth in giving with judgment.

No place, no company, no age, no person is temptation free.

It is not what we intend, but what we do that makes us useful.

Wickedness may prosper for a while, but in the long run he who sets all knaves at work will pay them.

When a rich quaker was asked the secret of his success in life, he answered, "Civility, friend, civility."

Speculation—purchasing something which you do not want either in your family or in the way of ordinary trade.

A coward in business is like the wise man's fool—his heart is at his mouth, and he knows not what is best to do.

FALL AND WINTER
ANNOUNCEMENT.

DEVILBISS' RACKET STORE,
NEW WINDSOR.

THE TARIFF QUESTION

May stir the country from centre to circumference. It may agitate the minds of Statesmen of all parties, who may argue pro and con upon the beauties of Protection and Free-Trade. But regardless of political beliefs, we stand firmly upon the policy of giving to individual rights, securing for mankind a freedom from the emoluments of credit exaction, protecting them from unjust discriminations—loadstones, which tend to make the poor man poorer and the rich man richer. We believe in a Protection that gives the consumer merchandise deprived of credit valuations, placing in your hands the finest selection of DRESS GOODS that can be made in the New York market, where our full stock was purchased. Our styles and prices must please you. Best $1.00 Black Silk in the world. Henriettas in all colors and prices. It is our express purpose to be Headquarters on Dress Goods and Fancy Trimmings as well as on everything else. Others may Puff and Blow, but they don't get to the top. We get there! We get there quietly and efficiently—but oh, my! we can smile at the criticism of our methods; at the denial of our claims; at the slandering of our goods. We are liberal minded, and also believe in

PROTECTION

FREE-TRADE.

This is a glorious country, a very land of freedom as designed by the framers of the constitution. But are you not held in shackles by monopolies and combinations? Are you not enchained by the exactions of a system that will forever hold you in bondage? Free-Trade, indeed! Call it slavery to men, who, from the divine right of self-protection in their business losses, place the whole weight upon your shoulders. We have no faith in this Free-Trade; but in giving you our cash valuations, we quote good Calicoes 4 and 5 cents per yard; good Ginghams 5 cents; good Canton Flannels 7 cents; Tickings 9 cents; best Rag Carpet for 25 cents, and all other goods correspondingly low. We also stand upon the plank favoring

A TARIFF FOR REVENUE ONLY.

This gives the consumer blessings that only are vouchsafed by cash transactions. Our object is not how much we can get for an article, but how cheap we can place it on the counter. One reasonable profit and stop, marks the measure of our due. To cut the selling price more would be to cut into the cost price, and that would be digging the ground from under our own feet. Here we offer you Men's Solid Boots at $1.75 and $1.99 per pair. The Snag-Proof Rubber Duck Boot beats all others. We have the agency for the Douglas $3.00 Men's Fine Shoe and Slesinger's Tender Feet Shoes for Women. Pebble Button Shoes at $1.00. Best Women's Rubber Shoes for 25 cents. A large line of Cassimeres. Thompson, our tailor, stands on top. He guarantees a fit or no money. Try some of our good Chewing Tobacco at 29 cents per pound. We carry the largest general line of Merchandise in the county, and would be glad for you, who are looking around for bargains, to give us a call.

Yours Respectfully,
FRANK J. DEVILBISS,
Agent for Longman and Martinez Paints.

As we present our circular to you, and as candidates for your favor, it is proper for us to state the platform upon which we rest our claims.

We believe in PROTECTION of customers from misrepresentation, over-charge and adulteration.

We believe in FREE-TRADE with the merchant whose selections of goods and prices are best adapted to the wants and tastes of the customer.

We believe in the PROHIBITION OF INFLATED VALUES—exorbitant prices charged for second-grade goods represented as first.

And a visit to our store will convince all that our PRICES HAVE REACHED ZERO, which means LOW TARIFF on all goods.

Behind all our promises stands the FINEST LINE OF DRESS GOODS, TRIMMINGS, SACKINGS, LADIES' JACKETS AND COATS, BLANKETS, FLANNELS, CLOTHING, Boots, Shoes, Carpets, Queensware, Jewelry, Silverware, Hats and Notions, of all kinds, to be had in a first-class store. We know our COMPETITORS envy us in the success we have attained in the extension of our Dress-Goods trade. We know, in our Shoe and Boot Department, there exists a jealousy, but we are happy. We have no inclination to change our line, as Evitt & Brother's Shoes stand to-day at the head of the list. If you want to see a beautiful line of Shoes, call at our place. Fine Dongola Shoes, especially adapted for tender feet. Dress Goods, all kinds, 5 cents up to $1.25. Henrietta, Dalma, Tricots, Clarrett, Cassimere, and a number of Fancy Cloths, all shades.
