The little children have caught the spirit and enthusiasm of the hour. On Monday, 29th inst., Garfield Englar and Earnest Harbaugh, two seven year old Republicans, erected a pole and cast the American flag to the breeze at Pipe Creek Station. The Sentinel is indebted to Mr. H. B. Grammer for a copy of the genuine "Hagerstown Town and County Almanack" for 1889. It may look like a paradox to call an almanac for 1889 venerable, but everybody is aware that an air of antiquity, as well as reliability, hangs around this production. Every household needs one and it can be procured at Mr. Grammer's.

Geo. M. Hyder, optician and jeweler, has rented the house, on West Main street, left vacant by the removal of Mrs. John W. Wilmer, and will shortly occupy it as a dwelling and store. Miss Emma, daughter of Mr. John L. Nicodemus, died at her father's residence in Walkersville, Frederick county, on Tuesday morning last, after a lingering illness, of consumption. She was Mr. Nicodemus' only remaining daughter, her sister, Edith, having died about 18 months ago, of the same fell disease. Her remains were interred on Friday morning, in Mt. Olivit cemetery, at Frederick. She was well-known and greatly esteemed in this community. Her afflicted father has the deep sympathy of his many friends, in this sad bereavement.

From the Potter Building, New York, there is issued weekly the American edition of the Illustrated London News, a periodical devoted principally to matters of interest on the Eastern continent, but at the same time abounding in useful information to the dwellers of all lands. Its illustrations are equal to those of the best magazines published; nothing of the trashy nature, in this respect, being displayed upon its pages. In the issue of October 27th appears a beautiful double-page cut entitled "A Bulgarian Peasant Woman," fully worth more than double the price of the paper. Single copies can be purchased for 10 cents.

A subscriber, writing from Glyndon to renew his subscription to the Sentinel, says, "We cannot do without it, but wait anxiously for its appearance on Saturday mornings. Do not get it before that time as it has to go to Baltimore and return by the fast mail in the morning." The writer further says, "I had thought to say something of the political doings of this place but have changed my mind and will only say that we will join you in supporting the G. O. P. by polling a rousing vote for Harrison, Morton and Lang." The Sentinel appreciates the kind words in allusion to itself and hopes to be able to congratulate their author on a rousing majority for the Republican candidates.

Miss Bertie Keen was given a surprise party at the residence of her father, Mr. John H. Keen, West Main street, on Wednesday evening, by a number of her young friends of this city and vicinity. Refreshments in great abundance were served at 11 o'clock, and the young folks spent a happy and joyous evening. Among those present were Misses Bertie Keen, Annie Cassell, May Nelson, Rose Orendorff, Minnie Orendorff, Lizzie Nusbaum, Lillian Erb, Jennie Malehorn, Florence Malehorn, Mollie Shriver, Mollie Wickert and Annie Shriver, and Messrs. Frank Miller, John Miller, Wm. Everhart, Geo. W. Matthews, W. Clarence Wickert, Harry Keen, Wm. Devilbiss, Frank Grumbine, James Cassell, E. Gehr Smith.

We are indebted to Mr. John H. Chew, of Patapsco, for two copies of the Carrolltonian, published by Col. John K. Longwell in January 1837; also a copy of the Democrat and Carroll County Republican, published by Joseph M. Parke in March 1846, and several copies of the Political Examiner and Public Advertiser, published in Frederick-town in 1821. We have had only time to give them a cursory examination this week, but will hereafter make some extracts from them of an interesting character. On a single page of the Examiner, which, it will be observed, was published during the free-trade period following the war of 1812-14, advertisements of thirty Sheriff's sales appear; a practical illustration of the disastrous effect of that system.

Wednesday was opening day at the Arlington Driving Park near Baltimore. The attendance was large. Among the events of the day was a tournament in which eleven knights contended for the prizes. George Baesman, Knight of Freedom, won the championship and the first prize, $25, and crowned Miss C. Stella Meyers, of Baltimore county, the queen of beauty. Samuel Tracy, Knight of Fairview, who won the second prize, $15, crowned Miss Melissa Baesman, of Reisterstown, first maid of honor. Walter Noyes, Knight of Kenilworth, who won the third prize, $10, crowned Miss C. L. Uhler second maid of honor. Harry Allgire, Knight of Pleasant Grove, crowned Miss India Ruley, of Reisterstown, third maid of honor. The judges were John A. Smith and Wade H. D. Warfield. The marshal was Caleb S. Hobbs, of Randallstown.

The Mass Meeting To-Night.

With propitious weather the Republican Mass meeting to-night, at the Court House, will be largely attended. John Smith, Esq., of Wakefield, will preside, and speeches will be made by Col. Theo. F. Lang, the Republican candidate for Congress, and R. C. Thackery, Esq., of Elkton. A choir of ladies and gentlemen, under the leadership of Mr. N. G. Harden, have been practicing several patriotic campaign songs, which will be sung in excellent style. The Westminster Band will enliven the occasion with choice instrumental music. Let Protectionists come out in their strength to hear the free-trade heresy dissected, and if any be halting between two opinions let him come and hear a fair, candid and able presentation of the Protection case, and be convinced.

Pole Raising in Westminster.

The colored Republican club of this city erected a pole 100 feet high on Union street, on Saturday afternoon last. The weather was exceedingly unpropitious, but the enthusiastic gathering soon elevated the handsome shaft and threw the starry banner of freedom to the breeze. At night the club held a meeting at Bowers' Hall, at which the President, Richard Brown, presided, and Alfred Bruce, Jr., acted as secretary. The hall was crowded and many of the audience were whites, among them several Democrats. Samuel Sanks, of Baltimore, delivered a well-timed and able address and received frequent applause. The colored people thoroughly understand the importance of maintaining the system of Protection to American labor and will vote with hearty unanimity for Gen. Harrison.

Hallow Eve.

A singular custom in the observance of Hallow Eve prevails in this community. Groups of children and well grown youths and maidens promenade the sidewalks and throw handfulls of corn wherever an unprotected window invites an attack; they ring door bells and indulge in other pranks, generally of an innocent and harmless character. It is to be regretted that on the last occasion of this anniversary, which occurred on Wednesday night, an ebullition of youthful spirits led to the perpetration of some acts that were wrong and hurtful. Among these were the breaking of door bells, the destruction of signs, the removal of steps from doorways so as to endanger life and limb, and in one case the setting fire to several bundles of corn-fodder on the premises of Judge Wm. P. Maulsby. This looks too much like vandalism to pass for innocent amusement and in future it will be necessary to impose the restraint of the law to prevent a recurrence of these unpleasant proceedings.

Elizabethtown Items.

Woodbine Items.

Mrs. Bettie Penn, who had been lingering for six months with consumption, summoned her friends to her bedside, on the 26th ultimo, and after asking them to kindly care for her babe, extended her hand and said, "I am going to die," and, closing her eyes, the spirit took its flight to join company with those who have "washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb." The remains were interred in Ebenezer cemetery, after funeral services conducted by Elder Wm. H. Franklin. The deceased was in her twenty-third year.

The pole-raising at Day, on Saturday last, was a success, notwithstanding the inclement weather. A large number of Republicans were on the ground, and a number of our Democratic friends also. A hundred-foot pole was raised as if by magic, amid shouts from the vast assemblage, and the stars and stripes were thrown to the breeze. Mr. Wesley Gosnell was then called to the chair and a number of Vice-Presidents appointed. Col. Lovejoy was introduced and made an able address with good effect. The Republicans are all aglee and feel assured that Harrison will be the next President.

Union Mills Items.

Proposals are being received for the erection of a Dunkard Church in our village, the site of which will be on the lot now occupied by J. P. Myers' blacksmith shop.

We note the following improvements now going forward in our midst: Mrs. Wm. Tagg is putting a new roof on her dwelling, which which will be made somewhat higher; J. Wm. Earhart is remodeling the interior of his house; Ephraim J. Yingling is improving the appearance of his home by the application of a coat of paint, and G. W. Yeiser & Co. are making another enlargement of their store-room by adding to it a commodious back building, part of which will be used as a storehouse.

Election bets, to be paid with wheelbarrow rides from the Methodist church to a point on Pipe creek hill and return, have been made by three of our Republicans with as many of their Democratic friends. If Cleveland is elected the happy Democrats will be hauled by their opponents, and if Harrison is victorious the state of affairs will be reversed and the wheelbarrows will be occupied by triumphant Republicans. The wheeling will take place on Saturday afternoon after the election, and the occasion is expected to be productive of a considerable amount of fun and good humor. A brass band is talked of to head the procession.

Meeting of the Hampstead Republican Club.

Hampstead, Oct. 29th.

On account of the extreme inclemency of the weather on Saturday evening, the attendance at the Club meeting was not large. The Club was addressed by L. O. Meyls, of Baltimore, formerly of this county, who has never voted a Republican ticket, but has now declared for Harrison and Morton. He spoke for an hour and was frequently and loudly applauded. He was tendered a vote of thanks by the Club for the able and efficient manner in which he discussed the issues of the campaign.

Secretary of Club.

Boys Raise a Pole near Tannery.

Tannery, Nov. 1st, 1888.

Mr. Editor:—The boys of Lowe's school, in the 8th election district of Carroll county, near Tannery, raised a pole on Wednesday, October 31st, for Harrison, Morton and Lang. As there was no pole in this neighborhood we scholars, inspired by the spirit of the times, concluded to erect one.

It was a bright, sunny morning; the cool autumn wind swept lovingly over the brown fields and the bare forests, when we boys erected our pole and hoisted the glorious banner of liberty. The whole school burst out in cheering for Harrison, Morton and Lang. Two of our most gifted scholars made patriotic speeches wishing only to be old enough to participate in the Presidential campaign, although we hope that our candidates will be elected without our help.

Louis Anderfuhren, a Scholar

Gamber Items.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather on Saturday last the Republicans of Gamber and vicinity raised a handsome pole, 102 feet high, in front of Gamber's store. From it floats a beautiful national flag made by Misses Carrie and Florrie Wheeler, of this place, and the bunting for which was purchased by the young members of the Brooks Club. It is a splendid piece of workmanship and reflects great credit on the fair makers. A small flag floats from the very top of the pole. The pole which has one splice, was the gift of Mr. Geo. B. Gorsuch, and it was hauled by Mr. Joseph Willis. About 150 persons were present and the raising was performed without an error. Dr. Silas N. Gorsuch introduced Mr. Cox, of Hampden, Baltimore county, who delivered a strong and effective speech.

The protracted meeting at the M. E. Church is still in progress and well attended each night.

On next Sunday a protracted meeting will commence at Providence M. P. Church.

A young child of W. H. Criswell's died here on Wednesday night. It was buried in the M. E. cemetery on Friday.

Pole Raising at McKinstry's Mills.

Notwithstanding the adverse weather on Saturday last the Republican pole raising at McKinstry's Mills, was successfully accomplished. It was, however, an undertaking of considerable magnitude. The pole, as it lay upon trestles, measured about 140 feet in length. It was of oak and poplar, had two splices and was very slender and graceful in appearance. Under the skillful supervision of Mr. Joseph L. Haines it was erected in just four minutes from the moment the first pull was made on the ropes. After it reached a perpendicular the weight of a rope broke a small section from its top, without, however, marring in any manner, its symmetry. A large flag and streamer were thrown to the breeze, the latter bearing the name of the National and Congressional candidates. Among those present and participating in the raising were Messrs. Joseph L. Haines, Fred. Englar, Chas. A. Parrish, Capt. Charles G. Miller, Mr. Zumbrun, and others, of Carroll county, and Edward Saylor, of Johnsville. Master Dayton E. Senseny took an active part in the proceedings, and deserves much credit for the interest and energy manifested in the enterprise. The pole was erected on the land and near the dwelling of his grand-mother, Mrs. Parrish, the mother of Mr. Charles A. Parrish. The editor of the Sentinel was present and begs to return to Mrs. Parrish his hearty thanks for the generous hospitality he received at her home.

Harry M. Clabaugh, of this place, moved to Westminster, on Wednesday.

The Harrison and Morton pole was not raised last Saturday on account of the disagreeable weather. Notwithstanding the weather, however, the Harney delegation were on hand with their log cabin. The pole was raised on Wednesday afternoon. About five hundred persons were present. In precisely four minutes from the time they started the pole was standing erect in its place. A life-long Democrat who is going to vote for Harrison this fall, said, "that just as easy as that pole was raised, so easy Harrison would be elected." We think great praise is due to Daniel Fair and H. David Mearing, who so successfully engineered the enterprise.

The Republican club met in their rooms last Saturday evening. It was decided that the club go in a body to Harney, on Thursday evening. It was also decided to have a torch-light procession on Monday evening, November 5th. Plenty of music and good speaking will be one of the pleasing features of the evening. Clubs from Littlestown, Pa., Middleburg, Uniontown, Gettysburg, and other places will be present. A big time is expected.

College Notes.

The "recital" by Miss Florence Z. Blanton, of Tennessee, the new teacher of vocal music, on the evening of the 26th ult., was a delightful entertainment, and gave the college reason for congratulation upon having secured the services of so accomplished a musician. Miss Blanton's voice is a round, full soprano of considerable compass. The peculiar charm of her singing is in its admirable expression and feeling. Following is the program:

Overture: Der Schauspieldirector. — Mozart.
Primo, Prof. Rinehart:
Secundo, Miss Beeks.
1. The Angel's Serenade. — Braga.
2. Oh! Come, My Darling. — Gomez
Piano Solo: Fantasie on the Austrian Hymn. — S. Smith.
Miss Annie Shriver
3. Roberto o tu che adora. — Myerbeer.
4. Waiting, — Millard.

Accompanist, - Prof. T. F. Rinehart.

Rev. F. C. Klein, of the class of 1880, and wife, recently from Japan, where they have been engaged in missionary work for the last five years, came to the college from Baltimore last Saturday evening to attend a reception given in their honor by the Faculty and students. The entire corps of teachers, with the addition of Doctors Ward, Murray and Hering, were in waiting in the college parlor when Mr. and Mrs. Klein arrived. After a delightful supper, the visitors were taken to the Auditorium, where music, speeches by Dr. Lewis and Mr. Klein and a calisthenic drill by the students formed a pleasing impromptu entertainment, followed by several hours of social enjoyment.

Miss Hirata, our Japanese student, went to Baltimore Tuesday to attend a reception tendered Mr. and Mrs. Klein.

Prof. Schaeffer, who has been suffering for some time with severe ulceration of the throat, and who has been residing in Baltimore for the past two weeks in order to receive the treatment of a specialist, is improving, much to the satisfaction of his many friends.

Republican Meeting at Sykesville.

Sykesville, Oct. 31st, 1888.

There was a grand Republican rally here to-night under the auspices of the Harrison, Morton and Lang Club of Freedom district. It was held in Mr. Louis H. Schultz's Hall, which was handsomely decorated by Mrs. Schultz and her daughter, Miss Ella. The hall was crowded to its utmost capacity. Three splendid speeches were made. The speakers were Col. Theo. F. Lang, our candidate for Congress; Capt. Lovejoy, and Mr. George D. Day, Sheriff of Howard county. The subject of Protection to American industries and labor was thoroughly and ably discussed and the benefits of the system presented in the most forcible and unanswerable manner. Better speeches are rarely heard. They were frequently and loudly applauded. The meeting was, in every respect, a decided success, notwithstanding the Democrats made every effort to obstruct it by calling a meeting of their own, for the same time, after our meeting had been announced. We beat them, however, 4 to 1 in the number of our audience, although theirs was a "wet" gathering. We had the Warfieldsburg band and they had the Ellicott City band, so there was "music in the air." By the way, the Democrats have made several unsuccessful attempts to raise a pole at this place, and only the assurance of "free beer" at last drew a sufficient crowd to raise it; and then it broke just where they thought it was strongest, as their meeting did to-night. So the Republicans come out one "Day" ahead, because they all "Lovejoy" and are going solid for Lang. No Stump in ours, if you please. Freedom district will be painted red, not "Brown," as some anticipate at the approaching election.

THE CENTURY
MAGAZINE IN 1889.

WHY has it such an enormous circulation? Experts estimate that between two and three millions of people read each number.

BECAUSE THE CENTURY is above everything a leader. It led the development of wood-engraving in America and it has fostered American authors. It is alive to the issues of to-day. What it prints sets people to thinking and talking.

BECAUSE whatever other periodicals may come into the family, the great reading world has found out that "no household can keep abreast of the times without THE CENTURY." "Its success is explained by its contents."

BECAUSE the greatest writers of the world like to have their works read by the greatest number, and therefore to such a magazine as THE CENTURY the best naturally comes. It was for THE CENTURY that Gen Grant first wrote his reminiscences of important battles.

BECAUSE it is publishing the life of Abraham Lincoln, by his private secretaries. Of this it has been said, "The young man who is not reading it robs himself of that which he will one day hunger for." The coming year presents the most important part of this great history, which may be begun at any time.

BECAUSE it is printing those remarkable articles on "Siberia and the Exile System," by George Kennan, which are attracting universal attention and are being reprinted in hundreds of foreign newspapers, but are not allowed to enter Russia. The "Chicago Tribune" says that "no other magazine articles printed in the English language just now touch upon a subject which so vitally interests all thoughtful people in Europe and America and Asia." They are "as judicial as the opinion of a Supreme Court tribunal—as thrilling as the most sensational drama."

BECAUSE during 1889, THE CENTURY is to have a series of engravings of the greatest pictures of the old Italian masters, made by Timothy Cole, the leading wood-engraver of the world, who has spent four years in Italy on this work; a series of "Strange True Stories of Louisiana," by George W. Cable; occasional richly illustrated papers describing the scenes of the current International Sunday-school lessons; interesting illustrated papers on Ireland, and a series of humorous and pathetic Irish-American stories; a striking illustrated novelette, "The Romance of Dollard," by a new writer, and other novelettes to be announced later; supplemental war papers, untechnical and descriptive of special incidents; "Pictures of the Far West," by Mary Hallock Foote, etc., etc. We have not space here to announce all the new features. Let us send you (free) our "Catalogue of Special Publications," with original illustrations, containing full prospectus, special offer of back numbers to beginning of the Siberian papers, etc. The November number, which begins the new volume, is for sale everywhere after November 1st. THE CENTURY costs 35 cents a number; $4.00 a year. Address THE CENTURY CO.,

St. Nicholas for '89.

AN ALL-AROUND-THE-WORLD YEAR.

THIS world-renowned magazine "for young people and their elders" is to have a great program for the new volume beginning with November, 1888. The editor, Mrs. Mary Mapes Dodge, calls it "an all-around-the-world year." Of course the bulk of the contents, as heretofore, will relate to American subjects; but young America is always glad to learn what goes on in the world outside, and these stories and descriptive papers are not of the dry geographical order, and they will be strikingly illustrated. We have space here for only a few prominent announcements.

AMERICA.

"Little Saint Elizabeth," by Mrs. Burnett, author of "Little Lord Fauntleroy;" "The Routine of the Republic, how the Government is carried on;" "College Athletics;" "Amateur Photography;" "Boys and the National Guard;" "The Girls' Crusade;" Indian Stories, School Stories, etc. "The Bells of St. Anne," a serial about Canada. South American Stories—"A Railroad in the Clouds;" "Indians of the Amazon," by Mrs. Frank R. Stockton, etc.

EUROPE.

Life in Norway, by H. H. Boyesen; "Holland and the Dutch," by Mrs. Mary Mapes Dodge; "The Queen's Navy," by Lieut. F. H. Smith, R. N.; "The Winchester School;" "English Railway Trains;" "Ferdinand de Lesseps;" German, Italian (art) and Russian papers, etc., etc.

ASIA.

Yan Phou Lee writes of "Boys and Girls in China," and there is a descripti[illegible] of "Some of John Chinaman's Inventions." Mrs. [illegible]olman Hunt describes "Home Life in the East;" papers on Siam, Japan and other countries.

AFRICA.

"The White Pasha," by Noah Brooks, a sketch of Henry M. Stanley; "How an American Family Lived in Egypt;" "Sailor-Boy Dromios," a story of the siege of Alexandria.

AUSTRALIA.

A series of interesting articles imparting much novel and amusing information concerning the history, the animal and plant life, etc., of a wonderful land.

THE ARCTIC REGIONS AND THE SEA.

"How We made the Farthest North," by Gen. A. W. Greely, of the Greely Expedition; "A Dash with Dogs for Life or Death," by Lieut. Schwatka; "A Modern Middy;" "A Submarine Ramble," etc.

Subscription price, $3.00 a year; 25 cents a number. Subscriptions are received by booksellers and newsdealers everywhere, or by the publishers. Remit by P. O. money-order, bank-check, draft, or registered letter. The new volume begins with November. December is the great Christmas Number.
