THE LATEST IN DOGS.

There is a new dog on the horizon, and from his description he is almost certain to reach us here. In fashion lately we have been going in for the foreigner. The fox-terrier has become almost too common. Japanese pugs are too stupid. French poodles are not to be seriously considered. There remain the Dachshund and the Danish mastiff, neither of them quite satisfactory. The new dog hails from the Low Countries, and is not so much a novelty as a revival. He has been rediscovered by the accident of the exhibition at Brussels. Dogs were to be an attraction there, and the great desideratum was to be patriotic, and, if possible, local. Of course the milk-carrying dogs would be collected in great force, and it seemed as if Flanders would have little else in the canine world to rely upon. Then it was remembered that generations ago, when railways were scarce in the land, there was a little black terrier called a Spitz largely used on the canal-boats that then carried on the commerce, and, indeed, the traffic of the low countries. His chief qualities—almost legendary—were that he was death on rats and unapproachable as a watchdog. He was a clever little fellow, too, vivacious and attached. But railways had driven him out. An attempt was made to procure some for the show. It proved that there was plenty of life in the old breed still. There are yet barges and canal-boats in Holland, and they had Spitz dogs still on board. A very good show was got together. The Spitz became popular, and we shall, no doubt, soon see him here.

CHANCES OF LIFE.

A writer in one of our leading magazines, recently gave some curious statistics referring to the chances of being hit by bullet or shell in modern warfare.

He quotes an old saying to the effect that "it takes a man's weight in lead to kill him," and he shows by the returns from more than one battle-field that the axiom is literally true. As a case in point, he alludes to the battle of Stone River, one of the greatest during the late war.

In the official report of this battle it is stated that the artillery fired 20,307 rounds of ammunition, representing a weight of 225,000 pounds. The infantry fired two million rounds, being a weight of lead which exceeded 150,000 pounds. These two weights combined are fully equal to the weight of the men killed or mortally wounded—who numbered 2,319.

Another calculation with regard to this battle takes note of the wounded, and is given in another form. Here it is stated that 20,000 rounds of artillery hit 728 men, and that the two million infantry rounds hit 13,832 men averaging 274 cannon-shots to hit one man, and 245 musket-shots to hit one man.

The old adage which states that "every bullet has its billet" would seem, therefore, to require some qualification. It is at any rate a comfort to consider that the modern soldier has so many chances against being shot, for, according to these figures, for every bullet which finds its billet, exactly one gross go astray.

BEST FINISHING WOOD.

As is known to every wood-worker, mahogany has no equal for durability, brilliancy and intrinsic value for any work which requires nicety of detail and elegance of finish. Cherry, which is a pretty wood for effect and extremely pleasing when first finished, soon grows dull and grimy-looking. Oak, which has been so much used of late, is attractive when first finished, but experience teaches that it does not take many months to change all this, and instead of a light, fresh-looking interior, one that has a dusty appearance is presented, which no amount of scraping and refinishing will restore to its original beauty. What applies to oak is yet more applicable to ash. Mahogany, however seems to thrive best under the conditions which are detrimental to these other woods. At first of a light tone, it grows deeper and more beautiful in color with age, and, although its first cost is more than these other woods, yet its price is much less than is popularly supposed, and the only objection that has been urged against it has been cost. What is more valuable, however, and what makes mahogany in reality a less costly wood, is the fact that, unlike the cherry, oak or ash, it is easily cleaned, because it is impervious to the dust or dirt, while it does not show wear, and, instead of growing duller, grows brighter and more pleasing in appearance.

The following preparation applied to the surface will prevent any rusting of plow or any other metal surfaces: Melt one ounce of resin in a gill of linseed oil, and when hot mix with two quarts of kerosene oil. This can be kept on hand and applied in a moment with a brush or rag, to the metal surface of any tool that is not going to be used for a few days, preventing any rust, and saving much vexation when the time comes to use it again.

As we present our circular to you, and as candidates for your favor, it is proper for us to state the platform upon which we rest our claims.

We believe in PROTECTION of customers from misrepresentation, over-charge and adulteration.

We believe in FREE-TRADE with the merchant whose selections of goods and prices are best adapted to the wants and tastes of the customer.

We believe in the PROHIBITION OF INFLATED VALUES—exorbitant prices charged for second-grade goods represented as first.

And a visit to our store will convince all that our PRICES HAVE REACHED ZERO, which means LOW TARIFF on all goods.

Behind all our promises stands the FINEST LINE OF DRESS GOODS, TRIMMINGS, SACKINGS, LADIES' JACKETS AND COATS, BLANKETS, FLANNELS, CLOTHING, Boots, Shoes, Carpets, Queensware, Jewelry, Silverware, Hats and Notions, of all kinds, to be had in a first-class store. We know our COMPETITORS envy us in the success we have attained in the extension of our Dress-Goods trade. We know, in our Shoe and Boot Department, there exists a jealousy, but we are happy. We have no inclination to change our line, as Evitt & Brother's Shoes stand to-day at the head of the list. If you want to see a beautiful line of Shoes, call at our place. Fine Dongola Shoes, especially adapted for tender feet. Dress Goods, all kinds, 5 cents up to $1.25. Henrietta, Dalma, Tricots, Clarrett, Cassimere, and a number of Fancy Cloths, all shades. Ladies' Coats in abundance, latest styles. Dress Trimmings, the very latest. Notions of all kinds. In Boots we start the season with a Solid Boot at $1.75; another at $1.85. A full Stock Boot at $2.50. We still sell the best Button Shoe in town at $1.25. Fine Dongola Shoes at $2.50; others get $2.70 to $2.75. We have a large assortment of Ready-Made Clothing for both men and children. Overcoats very cheap. Rag Carpet, 22 cents; Flowered, 25 cents. Oil Cloths all prices. Druggets, Rugs, etc. Domestics very low. Canton Flannels, 6¼ cents. Ginghams, 5 cents. Calicoes, 4 cents. Large line of Blankets. A 6-pound White Blanket at $1.25 per pair. A 7-pound Grey Blanket at $1.50. Comforts cheap. A job lot of Ladies' Coats at less than half price. Great bargains in Men's Clothing to clean up stock. WOLF ROBES AND BLANKETS all prices.

In conclusion, will say we invite our friends to inspect our Fall Goods. Bring your friends with you. Don't think of making your Fall purchases without calling to see our stock.

Our claim to having the finest line of Dress Goods, Trimmings, etc., in this part of the county, is not imaginary on our part; it has been so decided by all who visit our store. Many thanks for past patronage. We hope our efforts this season to please will still be appreciated by you. Very respectfully,

FALL AND WINTER

ANNOUNCEMENT.

DEVILBISS' RACKET STORE,

NEW WINDSOR.

THE TARIFF QUESTION

May stir the country from centre to circumference. It may agitate the minds of Statesmen of all parties, who may argue pro and con upon the beauties of Protection and Free-Trade. But regardless of political beliefs, we stand firmly upon the policy of giving to individual rights, securing for mankind a freedom from the emoluments of credit exaction, protecting them from unjust discriminations—loadstones, which tend to make the poor man poorer and the rich man richer. We believe in a Protection that gives the consumer merchandise deprived of credit valuations, placing in your hands the finest selection of DRESS GOODS that can be made in the New York market, where our full stock was purchased. Our styles and prices must please you. Best $1.00 Black Silk in the world. Henriettas in all colors and prices. It is our express purpose to be Headquarters on Dress Goods and Fancy Trimmings as well as on everything else. Others may Puff and Blow, but they don't get to the top. We get there! We get there quietly and efficiently—but oh, my! we can smile at the criticism of our methods; at the denial of our claims; at the slandering of our goods. We are liberal minded, and also believe in

FREE-TRADE.

This is a glorious country, a very land of freedom as designed by the framers of the constitution. But are you not held in shackles by monopolies and combinations? Are you not enchained by the exactions of a system that will forever hold you in bondage? Free-Trade, indeed! Call it slavery to men, who, from the divine right of self-protection in their business losses, place the whole weight upon your shoulders. We have no faith in this Free-Trade; but in giving you our cash valuations, we quote good Calicoes 4 and 5 cents per yard; good Ginghams 5 cents; good Canton Flannels 7 cents; Tickings 9 cents; best Rag Carpet for 25 cents, and all other goods correspondingly low. We also stand upon the plank favoring

A TARIFF FOR REVENUE ONLY.

This gives the consumer blessings that only are vouchsafed by cash transactions. Our object is not how much we can get for an article, but how cheap we can place it on the counter. One reasonable profit and stop, marks the measure of our due. To cut the selling price more would be to cut into the cost price, and that would be digging the ground from under our own feet. Here we offer you Men's Solid Boots at $1.75 and $1.99 per pair. The Snag-Proof Rubber Duck Boot beats all others. We have the agency for the Douglas $3.00 Men's Fine Shoe and Slesinger's Tender Feet Shoes for Women. Pebble Button Shoes at $1.00. Best Women's Rubber Shoes for 25 cents. A large line of Cassimeres. Thompson, our tailor, stands on top. He guarantees a fit or no money. Try some of our good Chewing Tobacco at 29 cents per pound. We carry the largest general line of Merchandise in the county, and would be glad for you, who are looking around for bargains, to give us a call.

Yours Respectfully,
FRANK J. DEVILBISS,
Agent for Longman and Martinez Paints.
