THE TRANSCRIPT

JOHN J. MAHAN, for many years the Democratic leader of Baltimore City, died at his apartments in the Rhennert Hotel, Baltimore, Md., Tuesday last, June 19, aged 76 years. Mr. Mahon's political leadership of Baltimore City began at the death of Mr. I. Fresman Rasin and continued until about a year ago when his health demanded his retirement from all activities. No man in our recollection was a more complete political boss of any section of the state than was John J. ("sonny") Mahan, of Balimore City.

THE WITHDRAWAL OF Gov. Albert C. Ritchie as a candidate for the Democratic nomination as President of the United States has caused much disappointment to many of his political friends in this state, and we believe in some of the other states. It is believed by many well posted political leaders that Gov. Reitchie, if nominated, would be elected. The Governor has many strong points in his favor—he is resourceful, logical and convincing in his arguments and has the firmness and nerve of his convictions. He is the only Governor in the United States (if we mistake not) that has ever been elected chief executive of any state for three consecutive four-year-terms as Governor. During his terms as Gov. he has advocated and succeeded in passing though the General assembly of Maryland many progressive measures requiring constitutional amendments to be submitted to the voters of the state and passed by them before these measures could become effective—each of these amendments received the approval of the voters. This shows unusual confidence of our people, and attests the belief they had in and the willingness to follow him in those undertakings. He is a believer in states rights, which means, pure and simple, the right for each state to govern its own affairs without federal interference. He is a man of wide vision and far in advance of the times—nominate Gov. Reitchie at Houston, Texas, and we predict the United States will have a Democrat president in 1929.

The Wilmington Every Evening says Editorially:

"Governor Ritchie may always be depended upon to sacrifice self for the interests of the party with which he is affiliated and in which he has a birthright membership. His retirement as a candidate for the presidential nomination in the interests of Governor Smith is a gracious act and one that will still further heighten him in the esteem of fellow Democrats and Republicans alike.

"Perhaps his chances for the nomination were not such that would give any assurance of his being picked as leader by the Houston convention, but what he has done has contributed much to the preservation of harmony and unity in the ranks of Democracy.

"His services to the country in calling attention to the peril of centralizing our government in the presidency and his appeals to keep straight on the only safe highway of state rights have been of inestimable service to the country, and have greatly increased the appreciation of the Maryland governor in the minds of all who would check the menace of federal government encroachment. He has again shown himself a big man and his state will doubtless still further draft his service for the public weal."

Gentlemen:

The nine-foot road controversy in Kent County appears to the writer as a piece of officiousness on the part of a probably well-meaning but misguided county organization which proposes that all hard-surface roads in the future should be nine-foot and no more until the State sees fit to widen them. Nine-foot roads may be enough for some of the Necks where there is little or no traffic but even then you can get mired if you meet another car in an inconvenient place.

I should like to see a fifteen-foot road pass my own farm. I am a firm believer in the old adage, "What is worth doing at all, is worth doing well."

How do the promotors of the nine-foot road program figure out that twice nine is fifteen and therefore that they can have hard-surface roads in just half the time?

Personally, I believe in each section of the county deciding for itself in the matter. If some are satisfied with nine-foot, all right, but give the fifteen to those who want them.

Wide Roads.

The Third National Bank

OF CHESTERTOWN, MD.

The Only National Bank in Kent County

"THE BANK WHERE YOU FEEL AT HOME."

SERVICE to customers is the aim of banks. REAL SERVICE of any kind is rare. It can only come where there is training, intelligence and spirit. It must come from the heart as well as from the brain. It is not perfunctory, it is the result of vision and of seeking the best interest of others. Its reward is sure and its results are confidence and satisfaction. When a bank says that it gives its customers real service, it makes a large claim. It no doubt does give excellent service in certain cases, but, after all, its average service is what it will be judged by. To make THIS bank average above the average is the task this bank has set before it. That we have not always succeeded is manifest, but the earnestness of the endeavor has brought definite results. It has awakened in our staff the desire to serve. It has put a spirit into our contact with our customers which is apparently appreciated. The real problem is to serve our depositors as well as to advertise to them, and building up good will can only come as, with the passing of time, the public realize that this institution is able and willing to live up to its promises of services as advertised; Better, Broader and More Helpful.
