A Republican Majority in Congress.

THE SOLID SOUTH BROKEN

Cleveland's Plurality in Maryland Reduced 50 Per Cent.

His Majority less than 1000.

Large Republican Gains in Carroll County.

The Democratic Majority Only 117.

GLUE IS STILL PROTECTED!

GORMAN SMILES A SICKLY SMILE.

THE REPUBLICAN STATES.

The election of Tuesday last resulted in a grand Republican victory, and the election of the patriot hero and noble christian gentleman, Gen. Benjamin Harrison, next President of the United States.

The returns from the States are, as yet, incomplete, but sufficient to place the result beyond all question. Following are some of the figures, which will, of course, vary somewhat when the official returns are received. Little has been received from the Southern States, but, as a rule, it is only a question of Democratic majorities in that section, and they will doubtless be generally as large as usual. West Virginia is in a doubt, and it may require the official vote to determine whether she has voted for Harrison or for Cleveland. Later returns give the State to Harrison.

Maine gives about 23,000 Republican majority.

New Hampshire is Republican by 4,000 or 5,000 and elects a full delegation of Republicans to Congress.

Vermont gives 28,000 or 30,000 Republican majority.

Massachusetts stands by the grand old party with 30,000 to 35,000 majority.

Rhode Island is firm with nearly 5000 majority.

New York is redeemed and chooses Harrison electors by 10,000 or 12,000.

Pennsylvania holds on to the doctrine that has developed and made her great. The majority for Harrison will reach 75,000 or 80,000.

Ohio remains faithful and gives about 20,000 for the grandson of the man who was elected President in 1840.

Indiana is taken out of the Cleveland column and transferred to Harrison by a majority approximating 5,000.

Illinois, which the Democrats claimed was a doubtful State and about which hopes were expressed even as late as Wednesday morning, gives a Republican majority of 20,000 to 25,000.

Michigan, another doubtful State—the Democrats said so, at least—goes for Harrison by about 22,000 plurality.

Iowa turns up as usual with something like 30,000 for the Republican ticket.

Wisconsin is set down at 20,000 Republican majority.

Minnesota another doubtful State according to Democratic forecast, gives 20,000 majority for Harrison.

Nebraska rolls up a majority of 35,000.

Kansas returns are meagre, but indicate figures in the tens of thousands for the Republican candidates, say 50,000.

Colorado sends greeting with 12,000 majority for Harrison.

Nevada is Republican by several thousand.

California is closer than it was four years ago, but Harrison will probably have several thousand majority.

West Virginia is claimed by the Republicans by 500 majority.

These states foot up 239 electoral votes, 201 being necessary to a choice.

The Democratic States are:

Connecticut, 400 or less.
New Jersey, about 5,000.
Maryland, 5,500.
Virginia, 4000.
North Carolina, 17,000.
South Carolina, 40,000.
Georgia, 25,000.
Florida, 4000.
Kentucky, 35,000.
Tennessee, 10,000.
Alabama, 50,000.
Mississippi, 40,000.
Louisiana, 18,000.
Missouri, 20,000.
Arkansas, 20,000.
Texas, 125,000.

A GREAT VICTORY.

The SENTINEL congratulates its Republican readers and those Protection Democrats who voted the Republican ticket in Carroll county, on Tuesday last, on the great victory won in favor of the principle of protection to American industries and labor. The SENTINEL, in common with the Republican press generally, has earnestly maintained the doctrine that a protective tariff is conducive to the welfare of the people; that it develops the resources of the land; fosters manufactures; gives employment to labor at remunerative wages; and creates a home market for the products of the soil and the factory. It has been no mere catch-penny scheme to wheedle voters, but a deep and earnest conviction. Its endorsement by the American people is a cause of devout thankfulness and unaffected gratification. The peril of free-trade is happily postponed, it is to be hoped for an indefinite period. Secure in this assurance renewed stimulus will be imparted to industrial and business enterprises; the rewards of toil will be maintained and peace and prosperity continue to smile on this goodly land. Let us "thank God and take courage."

THE PRESIDENT ELECT.

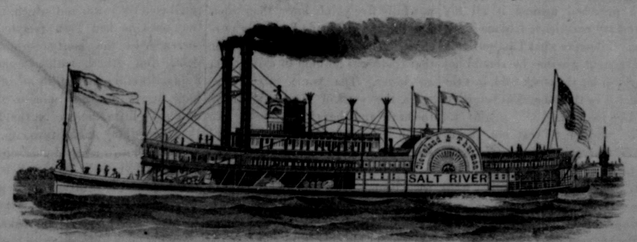

During the canvass the Democratic press generally referred to Gen. Harrison as a man of mediocre ability and negative character. It is pleasant to note, already, a change in the tone of their criticisms. There is a general concession, now, that the President elect is a statesman of great ability and a man of pronounced and emphatic character. That without pretence, or cant, he is an earnest, sincere christian gentleman, who will discharge his high trust with conscientious devotion to the interests and welfare of the country. It was, perhaps, only to be expected that the opponents of the Republican party should decry its candidate; but the treatment he has received, generally, has been ungenerous and unfair. He has displayed, throughout the canvass, a degree of talent that now forces a concession, even from his enemies, of his eminent fitness for the high station to which he has been called by the voice of the American people. His party friends may be pardoned if they become enthusiastic in admiration of their chosen leader, who made hundreds of speeches during the campaign, but never committed a blunder. That he will be an able and faithful executive cannot be doubted, and we predict that he will win and keep the admiration and regard of the whole American people.

The Sixth Congressional District.

The SENTINEL congratulates Hon. Louis E. McComas on his great victory, and also the Republicans and people of the Sixth District generally on the re-election of their able Representative. Mr. McComas is honored by this fourth endorsement at the hands of the people, and they are not less honored in the selection of one so worthy, in every way, to represent the district and to aid in enacting laws for the welfare of the nation. He will be a leader in the House and the whole State is honored by having him there.

"GOOD-BY, OLD GROVER, GOOD-BY!"

Presidential Electors and Members of Congress.

The following table exhibits the complexion of the electoral colleges and the 51st Congress as indicated by the latest returns. Complete returns may change some of the figures, but there appears to be no doubt that the Republicans will have a working majority in the House of Representatives.

*The House is composed of 325 members, exclusive of the territorial delegates. The four members unaccounted for in the above table of the Fiftieth Congress are Anderson, of Iowa; Nichols, of North Carolina; Hopkins, of Virginia, and Smith, of Wisconsin, who are classed as Independents.

*The 5th district of Maryland is still in doubt and claimed by both parties. It will probably be left to the House of Representatives to determine.

The Vote of Maryland.

Cleveland's Plurality 5,506.

Revised returns from all the counties of Maryland and Baltimore city gives Cleveland a total of 105,740; Harrison, 100,234; Fisk, 4,892, making Cleveland's plurality 5,506 and his majority over both Harrison and Fisk 674.

Of the congressional districts the democrats carry three, the republicans two, with one in doubt, the 5th, which is claimed by the Republicans and Democrats also. In the first district, Gibson, dem., has a plurality over Hodson, rep., of 492. The plurality of Stump, dem., over Lang, rep., in the second district, is 2,020. In the third district, the plurality of Rusk, dem., over Brinton, rep., is 5,416. McComas, rep., has a plurality over Douglas, dem., in the sixth district of 1,532.

Is The Solid South Broken?

The latest news from West Virginia gives that State to the Republicans by 400 to 700 majority. The Democratic State committee still claims that Cleveland has a majority, but the indications are favorable to the Republicans and we think it safe to put the electoral vote of the State in the Harrison column, thereby breaking the Solid South and electing Gen. Harrison without the vote of New York.

Col. Theo. F. Lang.

Col. Theo. F. Lang, the Republican candidate for Congress, in this district, having made a gallant and earnest canvass comes out of the fight with honor and credit. It was a hopeless contest from the beginning, Dr. Shaw's majority, two years ago, having been upwards of 3600. This, Col. Lang, in his canvass against Mr. Stump, has reduced by about 1700, a very large gain. Though defeated he deserves the united thanks of the Republicans for his faithful efforts in the contest.

The Fifth Maryland District.

The tables of the Baltimore American give Sidney E. Mudd, the Republican candidate for Congress in the 5th District, 1 majority, while the Sun's tables give Barnes Compton, the Democratic candidate, 3 majority. The question will probably be referred to the House of Representatives for its discussion.

The United States Senate.

The Republicans will have a majority in the next Senate. Delaware makes that certain, and West Virginia may help to increase it. With a Senator from that State the vote will be 40 Republicans to 36 Democrats. Without West Virginia it will be 39 to 37.

A Republican U. S. Senator from Delaware.

Delaware's electoral vote goes for Cleveland, but the Legislature is Republican and will elect a Republican United States Senator to succeed the Hon. Mr. Saulsbury.

Said a well known Democratic artisan, of this city, who voted for Cleveland, "Well, I am content with the result. I am a Democrat, but under the existing system wages are good and entirely satisfactory. It might not continue to be so, if the change proposed by the Democrats were to be adopted." And that was a very sensible conclusion. Holding the same views many a wage-earner took the best method of avoiding the proposed risk, by voting for Harrison.

Hon. Louis E. McComas sends congratulations to the Republicans of Carroll county on their splendid work of Tuesday last. He rejoices to know that they were not laggards in the great fight for Protection. Hon. Milton G. Urner also congratulates the Republicans on the great reduction made in the Democratic majority. The messages from these gentleman were received by Miss Mary B. Shellman, by telephone.

Louis McMurray, the great vegetable and fruit packer, of Frederick; and John W. Davis, of Baltimore, once State Treasurer, are dead.

Capt. John H. Suter, a well known Grand Army man, had the distinguished honor of carrying Baltimore city by upwards of 3,500 majority for clerk of the new court created by act of Assembly, against Mr. Morris A Thomas, of unsavory reputation. Brother Suter, the SENTINEL congratulates you on this happy event.

Henry Stockbridge, Jr., who will represent the Fourth Congressional District of Maryland in the 51st Congress, is a young man of approved ability, the worthy son of a noble father. He will be a credit to the city and the people who have chosen him.

At the election for members of the First Branch City Council of Baltimore, on Tuesday, 11 Democrats, 10 Republicans and 1 Independent Democrat, who will act with the Republicans, were elected.

At a Democratic pole raising in front of the Hotel Albion, this city, on Saturday last, Messrs B. F. Crouse and Thos O'N. Baumgartner delivered addresses.

A black rooster belonging to Mr. John T. Anders, of this city, which was on exhibition in the show window of Mr. C. A. Gernand's cigar store, spent Monday night crowing. During the first half of Tuesday night he was perfectly quiet and apparently depressed. During this time the returns of the election were rather disheartening to the Republicans. Towards midnight the outlook began to brighten and then the rooster shook himself, strutted about, commenced crowing lustily, and kept it up till morning. He must be of the same stock as the proud bird which graces the second page of the SENTINEL to-day—thorough-bred Republican.

Daniel G. Wright, who was elected Judge of the new court in Baltimore, on Tuesday, is a brother of Mrs. Jno. C. Frizell, of this city, and is well known in this community, having once, for a brief period, practiced law in the Carroll county court. He is an estimable gentleman.

Now, pay up your election bets. Grover didn't get there.

ALL IS OVER WITH Free Trade Grover

Pause Stranger: Beneath this shaft where The Wicked cease from Pernicious Activity and The Weary are in Innocuous Desuetude, lie the political Remains of

GROVER CLEVELAND.

He perished in an attempt to blow up the Gibraltar of Protection: The Gibraltar was not Blown up but Grover was: His last words were, "I'll never be as handsome as I was, but O, Dan, I'll know more."

In his assault upon the Protection fortress he had the assistance of the solid South and the (imported) West. John Bull for a season bade the world Farewell and the Cobden Club shrieked as Grover Cleveland fell: the Mugwumps turned aside to wipe The Scalding Tear and the Democracy proceeded to drown its sorrow in fluid protests against Sumptuary laws.

History will record that Grover was opposed on principle [Roars of Laughter] to the eligibility of a President for Re-election and that when it came to his own case The American People felt that way themselves.

The Garland that adorns his statesmanship was selected by himself and was Cabinet-finished, while the winding-sheet in which he was Done up was a Red Bandana once owned by a Late Lamented Old Roman.

Adieu, dear Grover, taking leave of thee
We use the sad initials R. I. P.
Don't mourn him, friends, why should you be dejected
Because a free-trade head lies unprotected?

—NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

Letter from Winfield.

An enthusiastic Winfield Republican writes to the SENTINEL as follows:

WINFIELD, MD., Nov. 7, '88.

To Editor Sentinel:—Let us shout! I say, let us shout! At this distance, let us grasp your hand! Thank God and the loyal legions of this free land of ours. Let us shout! American principles have come to the front! The old soldier element is gloriously alive; we are under the old flag once more; the bandana goes down. Thank the loyal men under God for the result! Let us have a grand organized shout. Appoint the time and place, and Winfield will respond in force. Hurrah for Harrison, Morton and our grand old flag. Glory! Glory!

The agony is over.

There were anxious faces at the hall of the Republican Club in the Bowers' building, until after 10 o'clock, on Tuesday evening. The dispatches up to that hour and later were mainly from Democratic sources and claimed a sweeping victory. But after midnight the current was reversed and by 3 a. m. of Wednesday, the Republicans were assured of victory. The policy of misrepresentation pursued by the Democratic National Committee was kept up to the very end and many a trusting Democrat throughout the country wagered and lost his money in consequence.

Messrs. Paul Yingling and Wm. Singer have stretched a rope from their dwellings over Liberty street, from which floats an American flag in honor of the great Republican victory.
