He was re-elected to Congress on Tuesday.

Messrs. John F. Warner, N. G. Harden and E. Gehr Smith assisted in transcribing the returns of election received at the Western Union office in this city, by the Republicans, on Tuesday night. Masters Willie T. Zepp and Herbert and Irving Morgan acted as messengers and carried the returns to the waiting crowd at Bowers' hall, where they were read by J. Edwin Weaver, Secretary of the Republican Club. They all deserve the thanks of the party for the fidelity with which they discharged the trust.

The Republican boys on Liberty street, under the leadership of Master Willie T. Zepp, Herbert and Irving Morgan, raised a Harrison pole, 63 feet high, on Monday. They threw a small American flag to the breeze, but subsequently, under the inspiration of the great victory on Tuesday, purchased material and the ladies in the neighborhood made them a large and handsome one, which now proudly waves from the beautiful shaft which was erected solely by the patriotic boys. We are pleased to chronicle such events. They show that the interest of the rising generation in the welfare and preservation of American institutions knows no diminution.

Caylor, Secretary. H. M. Clabaugh, Esq., of Westminster; L. M. Huggins, Esq., and Hon. Chas. L. Wilson, of Baltimore, delivered able and stiring addresses, which were frequently and loudly applauded. The Union Bridge Band furnished the music.

H. F. CAYLOR, Secretary.

Brummel Items.

Mexico (Brummel Postoffice) is a town of flags; there are not less than nine poles standing in the place, and nine flags waving over the village. Six of them are Republican and three are Democratic. Seven of these poles belong to the little folks. If every place in the county was of the same stripe as Mexico, Harrison would go to the White House by the largest majority ever given to any President. Wade L. Stout, a little boy nine years old, near this place, took his little ax and went to the woods, cut a pole 25 feet long; pulled it home on his back, and erected it in his father's garden.

Mrs. Mary A. Walker, of near this place, has lost over thirty chickens by the depredations of hawks and minks.

Mrs. Henry Snyder, one of our oldest citizens is seriously ill.

Mrs. Elizabeth Green has removed to Snydersburg.

Middleburg Items.

The protracted meeting which has been in progress in this place for more than a week, closed to-night, November 5th, with but one conversion. On account of bad order the minister thought it best to close it.

A very pleasant surprise party was given Miss Effie Hyde, of New Windsor, on Wednesday night, the 24th ult., by her numerous friends. Among those present were Misses Nettie Hyde, Annie Harman, Iola Lambert, Maggie West, and Gertie Harman, of New Windsor; Hallie Smith, of Warfieldsburg; Nettie and Nannie Norris, of Linganore; Sallie Ebbert, Emma Martin, and Annie Wilson, of Union Bridge; and Messrs. Charles and Willie Ebbert, Howard and Charles Winters, Will Caylor, Philip Baker and George H. Mitten, of Union Bridge; Charles Clingle, of Baltimore; Richard Norris, of Linganore; Arthur Englar and Harry Albert, of Wakefield, Albert and Will Harman, Ornie and Dorus Hyde and Rude West, of New Windsor. The evening was very pleasantly spent in games and conversation, after which the guests were invited to the dining-room where a large table of refreshments was awaiting them. At twelve o'clock the guests departed, all feeling well pleased with the evening's enjoyment.

Health of the community improving.

Snydersburg Items.

On last Saturday Master George, a seven year old son of M. S. Brilhart, raised a pole from which a beautiful flag and streamer wave in the air with the names of Harrison, Morton and Lang, in large black letters. Long before the hour arrived many little Harrison boys were there to participate in the pleasure, and with the assistance of a few men they soon had the pole erect, and as the flag was raised three cheers went up for Harrison, Morton and Lang. This lad is one of the strongest politicians we have. He was offered a new suit of clothes if he would put a Cleveland flag on the pole, but he said "No, I have a suit of clothes and when I want another I can buy it. It must be a Harrison flag, or none." If Harrison is not elected we hope this patriotic boy may live to see a Republican president. A certain man named——voted for Cleveland on the condition that some of the leading politicians of Westminster would try and collect money enough to buy him a pair of boots. Several years ago he was to receive two cords of wood for voting a Democratic ticket, but he has not yet seen the wood.

On Tuesday a Democrat wanted a Mr. S. to go and bring a certain sick man to the poles. Mr. S. replied that he did not like to go for a man that would probably die before he could get him home.

Some farmers are through husking corn, while others have barely made a commencement. Corn that was planted with a corn planter does not yield as well as that which was "checkered."

The singing choir of this place will give an oyster supper on next Friday and Saturday evenings, for the benefit of the choir, which is progressing finely under the leadership of Prof. Grimm.

Communion services were held in the Lutheran congregation at this place on last Sunday, by Rev. C. M. Eyster. The altar was nicely decorated with flowers.

Mrs. Henry Ruby who has had a severe attack of inflammation of the bowels is convalescing.

McKinstry's Mills Items.

A four year old son of the late Thomas Fogle died at the residence of William Fogle, near this place, on Wednesday evening, 31st ult., of typhoid pneumonia and was buried at the Bethel church of God, on Friday, 2nd inst. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Palmer. The pall-bearers were Masters Clarence Clemson, Robert Fogle, Hanson Fogle and Edward R. Fogle.

Mrs. Victoria Plessinger has been visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Thomas J. Haines, of this place, is confined to his bed with a severe attack of dysentery. Dr. Buffington is attending physician.

Robert Weaver, of New Windsor, spent Saturday, 3rd inst., with Thomas J. Haines.

Miss Annie Naill, of Washington county, who has been visiting at her uncle, John R. Keefauver's, of this place, returned home on Wednesday, 7th inst., much pleased with her trip and visit to Carroll county.

This vicinity has been well represented at the Unionville revival services held at the chapel by Rev. Belt, pastor in charge, at which several conversions have occurred.

Master Thomas Zumbrun, the 7 year old son of Mr. W. R. Zumbrun, of the White Rose Mills, with slight assistance from his father, raised a twenty foot Harrison pole, on the 3rd inst. As the stars and stripes floated out upon the breeze Master Thomas sent up three lusty cheers for Harrison, Morton and Lang.

At Mt. Olivet Hills, in Frederick county, near this place, on Saturday November 3rd, a Harrison, Morton and Lang pole was raised by the Republicans. It is 100 feet high. Our young friend, Dayton C. Senseney, was surprised to learn that he had been selected to superintend the raising. But he did not shrink from the responsibility, and promptly took the direction of the affair. By his order a hole was excavated but the owner of the ground interposed some objection and the pole was moved to another point where an excavation was made and the pole was soon standing perpendicular with the American flag, and an eight foot streamer bearing the names of Harrison, Morton and McComas floating in the breeze. It took just five minutes from the moment Mr. Senseney gave the order to pull away, before the pole was standing erect, and then the flag was hoisted to the accompaniment of the "Star Spangle Banner," rendered in beautiful style by the Band in attendance. Three cheers were given for Harrison, Morton and McComas, three for Mr. John Roop, who hauled the pole, at night, three cheers for Henry Lewis, who cut it at midnight and three for the gallant young gentleman, Dayton C. Senseney, who so skillfully engineered its erection. Hon. Peter Lugenbeel was then introduced by Dayton and made a telling speech. The Old Fields Band rendered some splendid music. Wm. Diggs treated the crowd liberally to some of his splendid cider.

Several junior pole raisings have taken place in our little town in honor of the Republican party, one by Master Sammie Keefauver, which is 22 feet high.

The following was intended for last week's issue, but was received too late for insertion:

For the SENTINEL.

Alesia.

Alesia is a small town on the B. and H. railroad about 36 miles from Baltimore, and occupies the extreme northeastern corner of Carroll county. The place has 12 houses, occupied by about 5 times as many people. A band of 14 persons do the blowing of the town under the name of "Alesia Cornet Band," and under the leadership of Prof. S. I. Hoffacker. Mr. Sandrick "strikes the iron while it is hot," and puts shoes on animals having four feet, while those which have two feet are provided for by Mr. J. P. Lucabaugh. Wheat is ground and logs are "boarded" at the grist and saw mill of Mr. Elijah Hoffacker. There is but one store in the town and that is kept by Mr. J. S. Blucher. The warehouse of Messrs. Wm. H. Hoffman & Son's paper mills, which are located 3½ miles from here, adjoins the station. "How does Alesia vote?" was the question asked the gentlemanly clerk of Alesia. "Votes democratic. It is the 'Long Corner,'" Carroll depends upon this corner to make her Democratic. There is not a single Republican in the town!!!!!! Words are palsied to express our pity, and we can only "wink at them." Next Tuesday will bring them sad news.

[Our correspondent was correct. It did.—ED. SENTINEL.]

Republican Mass Meeting in Westminster.

Although the battle is over and the victory gained it is fitting that a record should be made of some of the movements which marked the conflict. In this category the Grand Republican meeting, at the Court House, on last Saturday evening, takes its place. The large auditorium and bar were densely packed and many could not find even standing room. There were many ladies present and a score or more of the Harrison veterans of 1840. The meeting was called to order by Isaac E. Pearson, Esq., of the County Central Committee, and the venerable octogenarian, John Smith, Esq., of Wakefield, was elected by acclamation chairman. He made a short and enthusiastic address that was widely applauded. Dr. George T. Motter, Rogers Birnie, H. Wirt Shriver, Dr. S. N. Gorsuch, David Prugh, Dr. Luther Trump Henry Baile, Jno. G. Shunk, Grove A. Shipley, Chas. M. Murray, Wm. Y. Frizzell, Geo. W. Wilson, Nathan C. Baile, David Rinehart, and Dennis Doty, were elected Vice-Presidents, and Wm H. Painter and John T. Anders, secretaries. A very delightful feature of the affair was the singing of a glee club composed of the following ladies and gentlemen: Miss Mary B. Shellman, organist; Mr. N. G. Harden, leader; Misses Mollie and Annie Shriver, Fannie and Ida Fringer, Jennie Zepp, Grace Weaver, Carrie Wampler, Annie Haines, Lila Snider, Messrs. Austin Geiselman, Moritz Zepp, E. Gehr Smith, George H. Mitten, Harry Cootes and James Cassell. Standard-bearers: Masters Paul Reese and Louie Woodward.

Speeches were made by Col. Theo. F. Lang, the Republican candidate for Congress, and R. C. Thackery, Esq., of Cecil county and both were greeted with repeated and flattering marks of approbation. The meeting was a great success.

Taneytown Items.

On last Tuesday while Charlie, son of Hamilton Bowers, was trying to get into the wagon of Franklin Kephart, which was coming into town, his foot caught in the wheel breaking his leg above the knee.

A Home Missionary Anniversary will be celebrated in the Lutheran church, on Sunday, 11th inst.

P. B. Englar and Milton Yount have gone to Baltimore on business.

One of our professional men made a contract with a painter, that, if Cleveland was elected, the painter was to wheel the professional man through town on a wheelbarrow. If Harrison was elected it was to be the reverse. Now, since the professional man got left, he squeals, and says "that the contract is illegal it being made on Sunday." I suppose we will be deprived of this piece of political fun.

The Republican club of this place, about four hundred strong, preceded by the Taneytown band, and carrying a number of transparencies wended their way to Harney on Thursday, 1st ult., to attend one of the largest political gatherings ever held in that community. On Friday evening, 2nd inst., the club went in a body to Emmittsburg, to attend a political meeting there. Great enthusiasm was manifested by the people.

The Republicans held a torchlight procession and illumination in Taneytown, on Monday evening, which certainly eclipsed anything of the kind ever held at this place. It is claimed by our old people that it was the largest crowd ever in our town. It is estimated that fully one thousand people were in the procession and about 3,000 people were in town. A live bull was ridden by a young man. It was intended to represent John Bull's free-trade theories. One feature of the occasion was the beautiful manner in which the houses were illuminated. There were many transparencies in the line, some of them quite amusing.

The meeting was addressed by Col. Theo. F. Lang, Col. Wm. A McKellip, Hon. Milton G. Urner, Harry M. Clabaugh, and Capt. Chas. Miller. The best order prevailed. Great preparations are being made for the jubilee in honor of the victory to be held in the near future.

One of the grandest, most glorious, most enthusiastic meetings ever known in this community, was held last Saturday afternoon by the Democrats. So great was the enthusiasm that they could not raise three cheers. The attendance was very small.

Harney Items.

Our political meeting here, on last Thursday evening week, was the largest gathering of people that was ever in this place. The following Republican houses were brightly illuminated; S. S. Shoemaker, Daniel Hess, T. J. Hess, O. T. Shoemaker, J. J. Hess, J. W. Shriner, Mrs. M. L. Shriner, Geo. Shriner, Miss Mary Slaughenhaupt, Dr. J. C. Bush, Daniel Good, Jacob Newcomer, J. A. Frazier, John Ohler, David Yealy, Daniel Shoemaker, Harry Heck, Republican Headquarters, C. H. Hess, H. C. Shoemaker, Henry Kemper, John Rodgers and the following Democratic houses: Daniel Hesson, James Eckenrode, James Reaver and Mrs. Sell. Harry M. Clabaugh, Esq., and Col. W. A. McKellip delivered excellent addresses.

Pleasant Valley Items.

Samuel Lawyer, a prominent citizen of this village, died at his home here at 5 o'clock this morning. Mr. Lawyer was between 65 and 70 years of age and has resided in Pleasant Valley for twelve or fifteen years, previous to which he was engaged in farming in the vicinity. He was for a number of years postmaster of the village, and a most estimable citizen. He was for many years a member of the Lutheran church. In politics he was an earnest believer in the principles of the Republican party, and lived just long enough to hear and rejoice over Tuesday's great victory. He was a nephew of Mr. Wm. Lawyer, of Westminster. His death was caused by congestion of the lungs. The time of the funeral has not been fixed, but it will probably be on Sunday afternoon.

Farmers have about completed the husking of their corn, and find the crop very large and satisfactory.

Mr. J. P. Yingling made at his cider mill, at this place, for Mr. A. Kurtz Myers, of Frizellburg, upwards of 1300 gallons of cider during the past season; a very large quantity for a single customer.

The Democrats were very loth to credit the news of the great Republican victory, received here on Wednesday morning. The Republicans, of course, accepted it fully and were correspondingly jubilant. It was a blue day for the adherents of Cleveland and free-trade.

Bird Hill Items.

VALUABLE AND DESIRABLE

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1888,

The improvements consist of two large and substantial Dwelling Houses, one of brick and nearly new, the other frame, with porches to both; a large bank barn, 45x84 feet; wagon shed, carriage house, wash house, dry house, hog pens and other outbuildings.
