IN MEMORIAM

Taylor, In sad but loving rememberence of my dear husband, Wm. H. Taylor, who departed this life June 29, 1926.

Two years have passed.
My heart's still sore,
As time flies on,
I miss you more.

You suffered hours, yes hours of pain,
To wait for cure, but all in vain
Till God alone knew what was best.
He saw you suffering here too great,

Sleep on dear husband and take your rest.
God called you home he thought it best,
He saw you suffering here too great,
And opened wide the Golden Gate.

Loving wife

IN MEMORIAM

In loving rememberence of my dear brother, Elmer Kendall, who departed this life three years ago, June 27, 1925.

Dear is the grave where my brother is laid
Sweet is the memory that never shall fade.
Heart of my life is buried deep
Under the sod where my dear brother sleeps.

Keep my brother in thy keeping
Until I reach that shining shore
Then O master let me have him
And love him as I did before.

The month of June is here again
To me the saddest of the year
For it was on a June day
That my brother passed away.

No words will ever be so sweet
As the words Elmer used to say
No day will ever seem so sad
As the day Elmer passed away

In my heart your memories linger
Sweetly tender, fond and true
There is not a day dear brother
That I do not think of you.

By his sister, Daisy Watson.
