DEMOCRATIC TICKET

For President,
ALFRED E. SMITH,
of New York

For Vice-President
JOSEPH ROBINSON
Of Arkansas

For United States Senate
WILLIAM CABEL BRUCE,
of Baltimore, Md.

For Congress from the First Congressional District
T. ALAN GOLDSBOROUGH of Caroline County.

THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL committee, at the suggestion of Gov. Al Smith, Democratic nominee for President, has selected John J. Raskob, chairman of Democratic national committee. Mr. Raskob is chairman of the finance committee of the General Motors Corporation and connected with other large businesses.

THE DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENTIAL NOMINEE

There has been much talk around national election time about nominating a sound business man for President of the United States—one who has been accustomed to handling large jobs and is capable of conducting our government on sound business principles. If that is what the people want they now have an opportunity to vote for such a man in Gov. Al Smith, the Democratic nominee. Governor Smith has been elected Governor of New York State four successive times for two year terms and is at present serving his fourth term. The Governorship of New York is a large business and the mere fact of the Gov. being elected for four successive terms is an evidence of his ability to successfully and satisfactorily conduct the business affairs of the largest state in the union. The Governor is a man of unusual ability, is capable of handling the affairs of our goverment in a business way which it seems has not been done.

GOVERNOR AL SMITH IN CENTREVILLE

Leaving the executive mansion at Albany, New York, at 4.22 p. m. Friday afternoon, Governor Alfred E. Smith, chief executive of New York State and Democratic nominee for the presidency of the United States, arrived by special train at Centreville twelve hours later—at four o'clock in the morning—to attend the funeral services for William F. Raskob 2nd, twenty-year old son of John J. Raskob, chairman of the Board of Directors of General Motors Corporation and a life long friend of Governor Smith.

Accompanying Governor Smith were William F. Kenny, millionaire New York contractor, Dr. Lawrence S. Sullivan and J. J. Riordan, another contractor. All traveled aboard Mr. Kenny's special car, the "St Nicholas."

Governor Smith remained aboard the special during the early morning, dining there in the private dining car. At 9.15 o'clock, the Governor, accompanied by the rest of the party, left the car for a private limousine which took the cortege to Pioneer Point Farms, the Raskob's summer residence just outside of Centreville.

The boy had just completed his sophomore year at Yale University and was spending his summer vacation in Queen Anne County.
