—Mrs. James T. Dixon, of Queen street, Chestertown, took her first airplane ride while on a recent visit to Logan field. Mrs. Dixon is in her seventieth year and reports that she enjoyed the ride very much.

—Mr. George Cooper, the up-town butcher, has moved from Queen street to the apartment over his butcher shop on High street. Mr. Tilden Hadaway, former occupants of that apartment has moved to his new home near Radcliffe bridge.

DEATHS

Mrs. Daisy Brice Welch, beloved wife of Mr. John D. Welch, died at her late residence on Queen street, Chestertown, on Friday afternoon, July 6th, 1928, aged 55 years.

She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Brice, of near Lankford, and has spent her entire life in Kent county where she was very popular among a large circle of friends and relatives both in the county and elsewhere.

Besides her husband she leaves two daughters, Miss Harriett Welch, of Florida and Miss Ann Welch, of Chestertown; also the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. Etta Fountain and Mrs. Dr. Charles E. Whaland, of Chestertown; Mr. Tilden Brice, of Fairlee; Mr. George Brice, of Far Hills, N. J.; Mrs. Herbert Skipper, of Baltimore; Mrs. James Brice, of Baltimore; Mrs. Welter, of Fort Worth, Texas; Mr. John Brice, of Rock Hall; and Mr. Joseph Brice, of Lankford. Mrs. Welch was a sweet woman, a devoted wife and loving mother. The funeral was held on last Monday morning at the home, conducted by Rev. C. L. Atwater and the interment was in Chester Cemetery.

The bearers were: Judge Lewin W. Wickes, Mr. Allan Goldsborough, Dr. H. C. Hughes, Mr. Herbert Hartman, Mr. Earle Nicholson and Dr. John Wethered. Mr. Wm. T. Hicks, undertaker.

Word was received yesterday of the death of Mrs. Sarah E. Hazzard, of Brooklyn, N. Y., widow of the late James F. Hazzard, formerly of Chestertown and Delaware, on Thursday, July 12th, 1928. She leaves three daughters and one son, Mrs. Hiram Brown, Mrs. Katherine Venn and Mr. Joseph Hazzard, of Brooklyn, New York, and Mrs. Sallie E. Colclazer, of Philadelphia. Interment will be made in Brooklyn.

JULY 4TH CELEBRATION AT ROCK HALL

The morning baseball game was won by Rock Hall 9-St. James 0. A parade was held in the afternoon consisting of automobiles, bicycles and horsemen; the following won prizes: Mrs. Elsie Dowling 1st, Miss Nellie Maslin 2nd, Mrs. Ella Thomas and Mrs. Herman Jacob, Jr., each 3rd. The committee awarded for house decorations Owen Clark 1st, Joseph Gagalski 2nd, Robert Shallcross 3rd. Horsemen—Charles Smith 1st, Leslie Clark 2nd, Bicycles—Joe Strong Downey 1st, J. Weaver 2nd.

The results of the games in the afternoon were as follows: Senior unlimited 100 yd. dash, Joseph Williams 1st, Cecil Taylor 2nd, Russell Harris 3rd. Girls 50 yard dash—Charlotte Hubbard 1st. Madeline Rash 2nd. Senior 220 yard dash—Francis Williams 1st, George Leary 2nd, Cecil Taylor 3rd. Women's 50 yard dash—Laura Porter 1st, Beatrice Donnelly 2nd, Alice Thompson 3rd. A girls 100 yard dash—Madeline Rich 1st, Dorothy Harmon 2nd. Junior boys 100 yard dash—Norman McClain 1st, Robert Taylor 2nd, W. Ashley 3rd. Broad jump—Francis Williams 1st, Norman McClain 2nd, Robert Taylor 3rd. Marble contest—Edward Hudson 1st, Robert Taylor 2nd. Basket ball throw—Elizabeth Leary 1st, Laura Porter 2nd. Tug of War—Joseph Gagalski, Sterling Kelley, Joseph Vespers, Jesse Copper, Grover Centor, M. Carr, John Weir, J. Baker and Franklin Carter. 12 lb. shot put—Joseph Williams 1st, Frank Jester 2nd. Baseball throw—John Wilson 1st, Norman McClain 2nd. The afternoon game of base ball with Westport, whose team came by Tolchester and were met by Emmett Wood, was stopped when about half over by a serious accident when one of the visitors ran into Thomas Tucker who caught the blow over the heart and was very ill for several hours and remained in bed a couple of days. Cecil Taylor, too, was overcome by heat while in a race and was attended by a physician at his home. In the early evening the Rock Hall band gave a program of patriotic music in the elementary school grounds and addresses were made by Mr. Max Alexander, Rev. C. L. Dawson and Rev. W. S. Grant. A fine feature of the day's pleasure was donations—$15.00 to the Fire Company by several ladies and $25 to the band by the town council. The evening was finished by a "Beano" party given by the Rock Hall Volunteer Fire Company in the elementary school grounds which were brilliantly illuminated by electricity. This is a popular pastime here.
