WEDDING NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Horace W. Beck, of Baltimore, formerly of St. Louis, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Catherine Beck to Mr. F. Maury Jones, of St. Louis. The wedding will take place in Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church, in Chestertown, Md., at noon on Thursday, July the twenty-sixth, following which they will immediately sail for Europe.

Miss Violet E. LeCates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James LeCates, of Chestertown, and Mr. Arthur Legg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Legg, of near Chestertown, were married at Easton, Md., on Saturday afternoon, July 14th, by Rev. Hearn.

A very pretty wedding was solomized by Mr. A. H. Covey at his home in Chestertown when Miss Viola Naomi Stevens became the bride of Mr. Herman Robert Yerkie, of Salisbury. Miss Stevens is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Stevens, of near Rock Hall, and Mr. Yerkie is the son of Mrs. Bertha Yerkie, of Salisbury.

Following the wedding a dinner was held at the home of the bride's parents. The attendants at the wedding were Mrs. Edgar Judefind, of Chester, Pa., an aunt of the bride; and Mr. John W. Yerkie, broher of the groom.

LOCAL SCOUTS MAKE RECORDS

At the Cermonial Campfire, at Camp Rodney, Scouts John B. Harris terton, received high honors. Scout and Howard B. Owens, both from Bet- John Harris was awarded ten totems for meritorius work while at camp. This was the highest number of totems ever won in one week by any boy except Scout Howard Owens, who also won ten in 1927. Scout Harris also won merit badges for Life-saving, Swimming, Athletics, and Leathercraft. In an athletic meet in which the entire camp took part Scout Harris won two second places and one third place. In cabin inspection for the entire period Scout Harris' cabin placed third against about forty others. Kent County deserves to be proud of the splendid showing made by his Scout.

Scout Howard B. Owens was made a member of the Order of the Arrow, the highest honor that Camp Rodney can bestow upon a Scout. It can only be obtained by unselfish service to ones fellow men. Scout Owens is at present Adjutant at Camp Rodney.

Scouts from Chestertown are also making a good showing and it is hoped that they will also make some good records.

GLUB HOUSE NEARING COMPLETION

The club house of he Chester River Yacht and Country Club is expected to be completed within the next two weeks and a committee of ladies are selecting furnishings.

The golf course has been opened for several weeks and the formal opening will take place in the near future.

While a very small part of Kent's wheat crop has been thrested, authorities predict a crop above the average.

The average wheat yield in the state of Maryland is 16 bushels to the acre and the average in Kent county is 18. Prediction of this year's crop shows 20 bushels to the acre.

—Smith & Robinson, of Still Pond, sold Mr. Elwood Wheat, of Worton, a fine tested cow last week. Mr. Wheat had the milk tested at Worton, and tested 6.8 butterfat. Those boys are finding some good ones.

The gross receipts from the Elkton Firemen's Carnival were given as $7,926.59, excluding those on the Hupmobile car. The net profits have not yet been ascertained or reported.
