DEMOCRATIC TICKET

For President,
ALFRED E. SMITH,
of New York

For Vice-President
JOSEPH ROBINSON
Of Arkansas

For United States Senate
WILLIAM CABEL BRUCE,
of Baltimore, Md.

For Congress from the First Congressional District
T. ALAN GOLDSBOROUGH of Caroline County.

CHAUTAUQUA WILL START in Chestertown next Wednesday and will continue for seven days. The program contains a series of lectures by able men, a series of musical concerts by leading musicians, a series of popular plays and other features. A season ticket entitles the holder to attend twelve programs, and those who intend to attend Chautauqua are urged to buy a season ticket. One hundred men and women of Kent county and nearby sections of Queen Anne's county have guaranteed a sum of money to the Chautauqua Association and made Chautauqua possible in Chestertown. This guarantee is made with an idea of community service and the sale of season tickets only apply on this guarantee. Season tickets are sold by the guarantee to cover this guarantee and only a large sale of these tickets can assure the continuance of Chautauqua in Chestertown.

DEMOCRATIC OUTLOOK

The outlook for a Democratic success in November is most promising. The most encouraging reports are coming from every section of the state as well as from Baltimore City. Those best posted in Democratic circles who were present at the Democratic gathering at the Rennart in Baltimore on Wednesday last were enthusiastic over the prospect of a complete victory. U. S. Senator W. Cable Bruce and Congressman T. Alan Goldsborough were present and both looked the picture of health and are in fine condition for the oncoming campaign. They are regarded by their constituents as among the most able and best qualified representatives in congress —fearless, aggressive and keen to the interests of their state and to the nation. They are men for every citizen of the state to be proud of, for it is rare that a state is as fortunate in is representatives as is Maryland at the present time.

POSTMASTERS MEET AT TOLCHESTER

The National League of District Postmasters of the Maryland branch held their regular summer conventon at Tolchester Beach on Monday, August 6th. At this meeting many postmasters from all parts of the state were present.

This meeting was called to order by the President, Mr. Wm. C. Dempsey, P. M., at Kennedyville, Md., and opend by singing the first verse of America after which Dr. Corkran led in prayer. Mr. John N. Bennett gave an address of welcome and welcomed all to Kent County and Tolchester Beach. Interesting talks were also give by Mr. Wright, P. M. at Easton, Md; Mr. Hayden, P. M., at Centreville, Md.; Mr. Nutter, P. M. at Denton, Md;

The Post Office Inspectors gave an address on Postal laws after which all entered into a discussion about different points which come up in post office and postal work. The president gave a short talk about the league and league work and made an appeal for more members.

The meeting adjourned at 1.30 p. m. All had a delightful dinner in the dining room at Tolchester Hotel then scattered for recreation on grounds and in the water.

—Fire, of an undetermined origin, completely destroyed one of the hatchery buildings, located on the Jarvis Poultry Farms property, on the Ocean City Boulevard, Berlin, about four-thirty o'clock Sunday morning. The loss has been estimated at around $30,000, partly covered by insurance.
