"WHAT SHE COULD DO."

A poor crippled woman, living in a tiny room on the ground floor of a dingy house, could only move on her hands and knees, and had not stood upright for fifteen years. A lady, visiting the sufferer, was pitying her for her utter inability to do anything in the world. While she spoke two merry little children clattered into the room and seated themselves by the scrap of fire. "Do these little children belong to you?" asked the lady.

"No, ma'am," was the reply, "They are my neighbor's children; she's just a poor washerwoman, and I look after her little ones to set her free to get a job of work. I can do just that, you see; thank the Lord!"

It is only about 256 years ago that Thanksgiving day was observed in this country. Old Massasoit and his ninety braves sat down to dinner with the Puritans. The Indians brought deer from the woods and the pale faces supplied fish, clams and corn. Ten years later when the last batch of bread in the colony was in Gov. Bradford's oven and starvation was staring our New England ancestors in the face, a good ship from Ireland appeared with provisions, and the day appointed for fasting was changed into a day of thanksgiving.

The smallest watch in America is said to be one which a Maiden lane (New York) dealer has just received from Switzerland. The dial and works are just the size of a silver half dime. It is a complete watch in every respect, is a stem-winder and stem-setter, and the works are full jeweled. It is inclosed in a hunting case of eighteen carat gold, and keeps accurate time. It was made in La Chaux-de-Fonds, Switzerland.

A young traveling man had been going to see a charming lady for a good while and had just proposed to her for the seventeenth time. "Can't you take no for an answer?" she inquired in a tone that showed decided annoyance. "No, not exactly," he replied, meekly. "But I'll try to get along with it till you can give me a better one."

—AT—

Oak Hall

As we present our circular to you, and as candidates for your favor, it is proper for us to state the platform upon which we rest our claims.

We believe in PROTECTION of customers from misrepresentation, over-charge and adulteration.

We believe in FREE-TRADE with the merchant whose selections of goods and prices are best adapted to the wants and tastes of the customer.

We believe in the PROHIBITION OF INFLATED VALUES—exorbitant prices charged for second-grade goods represented as first.

And a visit to our store will convince all that our PRICES HAVE REACHED ZERO, which means LOW TARIFF on all goods.

Behind all our promises stands the FINEST LINE OF DRESS GOODS, TRIMMINGS, SACKINGS, LADIES' JACKETS AND COATS, BLANKETS, FLANNELS, CLOTHING, Boots, Shoes, Carpets, Queensware, Jewelry, Silverware, Hats and Notions, of all kinds, to be had in a first-class store. We know our COMPETITORS envy us in the success we have attained in the extension of our Dress-Goods trade. We know, in our Shoe and Boot Department, there exists a jealousy, but we are happy. We have no inclination to change our line, as Evitt & Brother's Shoes stand to-day at the head of the list. If you want to see a beautiful line of Shoes, call at our place. Fine Dongola Shoes, especially adapted for tender feet. Dress Goods, all kinds, 5 cents up to $1.25. Henrietta, Dalma, Tricots, Clarrett, Cassimere, and a number of Fancy Cloths, all shades. Many thanks for past patronage. We hope our efforts this season to please will still be appreciated by you. Very respectfully,

(Pacific Churchman.)

THE CENTURY

MAGAZINE IN 1889.

WHY has it such an enormous circulation? Experts estimate that between two and three millions of people read each number.

BECAUSE THE CENTURY is above everything a leader. It led the development of wood-engraving in America and it has fostered American authors. It is alive to the issues of to-day. What it prints sets people to thinking and talking.

BECAUSE whatever other periodicals may come into the family, the great reading world has found out that "no household can keep abreast of the times without THE CENTURY." "Its success is explained by its contents."

BECAUSE the greatest writers of the world like to have their works read by the greatest number, and therefore to such a magazine as THE CENTURY the best naturally comes. It was for THE CENTURY that Gen Grant first wrote his reminiscences of important battles.

BECAUSE it is publishing the life of Abraham Lincoln, by his private secretaries. Of this it has been said, "The young man who is not reading it robs himself of that which he will one day hunger for." The coming year presents the most important part of this great history, which may be begun at any time.

BECAUSE it is printing those remarkable articles on "Siberia and the Exile System," by George Kennan, which are attracting universal attention and are being reprinted in hundreds of foreign newspapers, but are not allowed to enter Russia. The "Chicago Tribune" says that "no other magazine articles printed in the English language just now touch upon a subject which so vitally interests all thoughtful people in Europe and America and Asia." They are "as judicial as the opinion of a Supreme Court tribunal—as thrilling as the most sensational drama."

BECAUSE during 1889, THE CENTURY is to have a series of engravings of the greatest pictures of the old Italian masters, made by Timothy Cole, the leading wood-engraver of the world, who has spent four years in Italy on this work; a series of "Strange True Stories of Louisiana," by George W. Cable; occasional richly illustrated papers describing the scenes of the current International Sunday-school lessons; interesting illustrated papers on Ireland, and a series of humorous and pathetic Irish-American stories; a striking illustrated novelette, "The Romance of Dollard," by a new writer, and other novelettes to be announced later; supplemental war papers, untechnical and descriptive of special incidents; "Pictures of the Far West," by Mary Hallock Foote, etc., etc. We have not space here to announce all the new features. Let us send you (free) our "Catalogue of Special Publications," with original illustrations, containing full prospectus, special offer of back numbers to beginning of the Siberian papers, etc. The November number, which begins the new volume, is for sale everywhere after November 1st. THE CENTURY costs 35 cents a number; $4.00 a year. Address THE CENTURY CO.,

"It is simply the ideal young people's magazine, and holds the first place."—BOSTON JOURNAL.

St. Nicholas for '89.

AN ALL-AROUND-THE-WORLD YEAR.

THIS world-renowned magazine "for young people and their elders" is to have a great program for the new volume beginning with November, 1888. The editor, Mrs. Mary Mapes Dodge, calls it "an all-around-the-world year." Of course the bulk of the contents, as heretofore, will relate to American subjects; but young America is always glad to learn what goes on in the world outside, and these stories and descriptive papers are not of the dry geographical order, and they will be strikingly illustrated. We have space here for only a few prominent announcements.

AMERICA.

"Little Saint Elizabeth," by Mrs. Burnett, author of "Little Lord Fauntleroy;" "The Routine of the Republic, how the Government is carried on;" "College Athletics;" "Amateur Photography;" "Boys and the National Guard;" "The Girls' Crusade;" Indian Stories, School Stories, etc. "The Bells of St. Anne," a serial about Canada. South American Stories—"A Railroad in the Clouds;" "Indians of the Amazon," by Mrs. Frank R. Stockton, etc.

EUROPE.

Life in Norway, by H. H. Boyesen; "Holland and the Dutch," by Mrs. Mary Mapes Dodge; "The Queen's Navy," by Lieut. F. H. Smith, R. N.; "The Winchester School;" "English Railway Trains;" "Ferdinand de Lesseps;" German, Italian (art) and Russian papers, etc., etc.

ASIA.

Yan Phou Lee writes of "Boys and Girls in China," and there is a description of "Some of John Chinaman's Inventions." Mrs. Holman Hunt describes "Home Life in the East;" papers on Siam, Japan and other countries.

AFRICA.

"The White Pasha," by Noah Brooks, a sketch of Henry M. Stanley; "How an American Family Lived in Egypt;" "Sailor-Boy Dromios," a story of the siege of Alexandria.

AUSTRALIA.

A series of interesting articles imparting much novel and amusing information concerning the history, the animal and plant life, etc., of a wonderful land.

THE ARCTIC REGIONS AND THE SEA.

"How We made the Farthest North," by Gen. A. W. Greely, of the Greely Expedition; "A Dash with Dogs for Life or Death," by Lieut. Schwatka; "A Modern Middy;" "A Submarine Ramble," etc.

Subscription price, $3.00 a year; 25 cents a number. Subscriptions are received by booksellers and newsdealers everywhere, or by the publishers. Remit by P. O. money-order, bank-check, draft, or registered letter. The new volume begins with November. December is the great Christmas Number.

FALL AND WINTER

ANNOUNCEMENT.

DEVILBISS' RACKET STORE,

NEW WINDSOR.

THE TARIFF QUESTION

May stir the country from centre to circumference. It may agitate the minds of Statesmen of all parties, who may argue pro and con upon the beauties of Protection and Free-Trade. But regardless of political beliefs, we stand firmly upon the policy of giving to individual rights, securing for mankind a freedom from the emoluments of credit exaction, protecting them from unjust discriminations—loadstones, which tend to make the poor man poorer and the rich man richer. We believe in a Protection that gives the consumer merchandise deprived of credit valuations, placing in your hands the finest selection of DRESS GOODS that can be made in the New York market, where our full stock was purchased. Our styles and prices must please you. Best $1.00 Black Silk in the world. Henriettas in all colors and prices. It is our express purpose to be Headquarters on Dress Goods and Fancy Trimmings as well as on everything else. Others may Puff and Blow, but they don't get to the top. We get there! We get there quietly and efficiently—but oh, my! we can smile at the criticism of our methods; at the denial of our claims; at the slandering of our goods. We are liberal minded, and also believe in

FREE-TRADE.

This is a glorious country, a very land of freedom as designed by the framers of the constitution. But are you not held in shackles by monopolies and combinations? Are you not enchained by the exactions of a system that will forever hold you in bondage? Free-Trade, indeed! Call it slavery to men, who, from the divine right of self-protection in their business losses, place the whole weight upon your shoulders. We have no faith in this Free-Trade; but in giving you cash valuations, we quote good Calicoes 4 and 5 cents per yard; good Ginghams 5 cents; good Canton Flannels 7 cents; Tickings 9 cents; best Rag Carpet for 25 cents, and all other goods correspondingly low. We also stand upon the plank favoring

A TARIFF FOR REVENUE ONLY.

This gives the consumer blessings that only are vouchsafed by cash transactions. Our object is not how much we can get for an article, but how cheap we can place it on the counter. One reasonable profit and stop, marks the measure of our due. To cut the selling price more would be to cut into the cost price, and that would be digging the ground from under our own feet. Here we offer you Men's Solid Boots at $1.75 and $1.99 per pair. The Snag-Proof Rubber Duck Boot beats all others. We have the agency for the Douglas $3.00 Men's Fine Shoe and Slesinger's Tender Feet Shoes for Women. Pebble Button Shoes at $1.00. Best Women's Rubber Shoes for 25 cents. A large line of Cassimeres. Thompson, our tailor, stands on top. He guarantees a fit or no money. Try some of our good Chewing Tobacco at 29 cents per pound. We carry the largest general line of Merchandise in the county, and would be glad for you, who are looking around for bargains, to give us a call.

Yours Respectfully,
FRANK J. DEVILBISS,
Agent for Longman and Martinez Paints.
