THE AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

HOOVER AS SEEN BY OTHERS

The Sentinel, a leading Republican daily of California, Mr. Hoover's home state, has the following to say about Mr. Hoover:

"As a forerunner of what may be expected of the State and nation next November the Dinuba Daily Sentinel announces that it has "gone Democratic." This does not mean that we are alone supporting Smith for President, but that we are supporting Fairweather for Congress as well, and all along the line.

Jumps Reservation

William Lacke, Daily Sentinel news editor and manager, joined the Democratic ranks before the Presidential primary, voting for the Walsh Presidential delegates. J. R. Lacke, editor and publisher of the paper, will definitely leave the Republican party at once and re-register as a Democrat and the Sentinel will be conducted as a Democratic party paper for an indefinite period at least.

"This decision comes after reading both platforms and reading and hearing both speeches of acceptance. We are convinced that in the Democratic party only is there hope for the farmer, the small business man and the freedom-loving, everyday American citizen working for himself or in the employ of others.

Hoover Dangerous

"Whatever danger there is in electing a 'wet' or a 'Catholic' or a 'Tammany man' is offset by the danger we are in of losing our free institutions altogether. Elect Smith and if we don't like him we can kick him out in four years, but elect Hoover and the strangle hold big money has on us all will be so tight that in four years there will be nothing to do but re-elect him, and when his second term is over he will remain in power, not perhaps as our President but back of Wall Street, or, in fact, as 'ruler of the world,' and, believe me, when he gets to be that ruler, no one will be allowed to even think out loud that does not think as 'the best minds' do.

"In fact, by that time they will be using machines to read our thoughts and have standardization and identification methods that will make us all slaves and chattels in fact as well as indirecty—will they not?"
