Capt. Charles G. Miller, of Linwood, raised in his garden, the past summer, a raddish which weighs 11 pounds 4 ounces. It is on exhibition at Pfoutz & Bro's. store at Union Bridge. On 29 acres of the farm upon which he resides he raised 400 barrels of corn, a fraction less than 14 barrels per acre.

The pork killing season is pretty well over in this vicinity. Hogs of excessive weight are not grown as frequently as formerly, very few having been reported over 400 pounds, and only one or two above 500. In years gone by many went beyond the last named figures, and some tilted the beam at 600 to 800 pounds.

A colored girl named Ida Woodyard was terribly burned at the residence of Charles Richardson, at Wakefield, on Tuesday last. Mr. Richardson was butchering and the girl was stirring a kettle of fat at an open fire place when the flames caught her clothing, which was entirely burned from her person. Her injuries are not only of the most painful character, but are exceedingly dangerous and her recovery is doubtful. She is attended by Dr. John Buffiington, Jr., of New Windsor.

A dispatch from Chambersburg gives a prominent official of the Western Maryland Railroad as authority for the statement that it is in contemplation to extend the lines of that road from the junction of the Bachman's Valley road to York, Harrisburg and Marietta, Pa., to connect with the Reading system. We are indebted to Mr. D. M. Roop, of Birmingham, Alabama, for late copies of the Birmingham Daily Herald, containing full accounts of the tragedy enacted in that place, on Sunday last, and a detailed description of the scenes and events of the Hawes murder, which resulted in the lamentable occurrences of Sunday last. Those of our merchants who are specially prepared to meet the demands of the holiday trade are making it known to the public through the columns of the SENTINEL. Messrs. Hull Brothers, at the junction of Main street and Pennsylvania avenue, and John D. Bowers, Main street, nearly opposite the Catholic Church, are offering the choicest and finest groceries and confectioneries. Those who patronize them soon learn that the goods they purchase are always as represented. George C. Anders, of New Windsor, tells in our advertising columns of the splendid line of goods, suitable for the holidays, he is offering, in connection with his large stock of dry goods and notions. Those who know him do not require vouchers for his responsibility.

A subscriber to the SENTINEL in Kentucky writes us that he usually gets his paper on the Friday or Saturday of the week following its publication, although receiving a daily mail from Cincinnati and Louisville. The paper ought to reach him on the Tuesday following its publication. He says he is "always glad to get the SENTINEL, even if it is somewhat aged," and we are pleased to have his appreciation; but not with the inefficiency of the U. S. Mails. It is but justice to say that we are confident the paper leaves the Westminster postoffice promptly and that the trouble is elsewhere, either on the route, or at the office of destination.

Another subscriber, in Illinois, writes to renew his subscription and says: "We cannot do without the AMERICAN SENTINEL."

Double Pipe Creek Items.

Mrs. Wm. Stoner and two of her children are visiting friends in and around Union Bridge.

A word of warning to citizens in and around this place. Some of our people are so short-sighted, when they come to town with a horse and buggy, that they will stop at the stores and leave their teams standing crosswise in the road until it is blockaded so that passing travelers are put to the inconvenience of getting out and moving their teams before they can get through. Yesterday morning teams had to be moved before a heavily loaded wagon could get through. Not more than ten minutes afterward a horse attached to a wagon got frightened at a train of cars, and came dashing down Main street at full speed, but was caught just before reaching the blockade. If the horse had gone on through, some of our people would have paid very dear for their carelessness.

Riotous Conduct at Sandyville.

Dennis Dorsey, of the vicinity of Reisterstown, waived a hearing before Justice G. W. Crapster on Tuesday last and was committed for the action of the Grand Jury on a charge of riotous conduct at the hotel of John Christmas, Sandyville. In company with two tramps named Tim Brady and Hiram Jones he entered the hotel, and after drinking at the bar refused to pay. A row ensued, in which windows were broken and the three men mentioned obtained full possession of the premises. They threatened the family of the proprietor, who was absent, and let nobody else enter the house. Christmas finally made his appearance, and, although he is an old man, promptly knocked Dorsey down. Others then came to his aid. Officers were sent for and Deputy Sheriff Tyler arrested the rioters. Dorsey drew a knife and threatened to kill Tyler. The tramps had a further hearing on Thursday, when Hiram Jones, alias John Peterson, was committed to the House of Correction for four months and Tim Brady to jail for thirty days in default of the payment of a fine of $1 and costs.

The Old Game.

Mr. Wm. G. Bansemer, an elderly gentleman and retired grocer, of Baltimore, was the victim of a bunco-steerer, about the 1st inst., to the extent of $5,000. Mr. Bansemer married a lady in this county, where he is well known. The Baltimore Morning Herald, of Saturday last, thus describes the modus operandi of the robbery perpetrated upon him:

On Saturday, December 1st, Mr. Bansemer was accosted by a young man driving in a buggy, who introduced himself as Mr. Roberts, son-in-law of a well-known citizen. After some conversation on business and other topics, the old gentleman was induced to get in the buggy and drive down town. The young man said he wanted to get some copies of Bancroft's "History of the United States" from the office of the agent, and they drove to 121 Pearl street. They were told that the books had not arrived, but that Roberts had drawn $57 prize money with them. Attracted by this, Mr. Bansemer decided to try his hand, and was soon told that he had drawn $5,000, but that he must show an equal amount in order to prove his responsibility. The old gentleman secured a loan of $5,000 upon $6,000 worth of bonds. Roberts deposited a package supposed to contain $5,000, and Bansemer placed his money on the table. The money was counted by the agent, who said it was all correct, and then placed it in his pocket. Roberts punched the old man in the breast, prostrating him, and the two men rushed out, jumped in the buggy and drove rapidly off.

A man known as "Hungry Joe," whose real name is Francis Alvaney, has been arrested in New York, and recognized by Mr. Bansemer as the party who inveigled him to the place where he was robbed. The accused is held for a requisition from the Governor of Maryland.

Death of Mrs. John A. Koons.

Mrs. Georgiana S., wife of Hon. John A. Koons, of Frederick county, died at her home, on Thursday morning, 29th ult., after a lingering illness. Mrs. Koons was a daughter of the late John W. Since her marriage to Mr. Koons she has resided in Frederick county, near the Carroll county line, in the vicinity of Middleburg. She was an estimable lady and possessed the most excellent traits of womanhood in a high degree. Amiable, gentle, loving and charitable, her kind words and generous deeds will long be remembered. She was a member of Mt. Zion Lutheran Church, near Double Pipe Creek, from her girlhood, and her remains were interred from that sacred edifice on Sunday last, after funeral services by her pastor, Rev. S. A. Diehl, of Woodsboro, assisted by Rev. D. A. Souders, of the Reformed Church, Union Bridge. The Ladiesburg choir sang, on the occasion, "Nearer my God, to Thee," and "Asleep in Jesus," Mrs. Koons having requested it shortly before her death. The pall bearers were Col. David F. Shaeffer, Adam D. Birely, Joel Myers, John Biehl, Robert Barrick and Daniel E. Buckey.

Donation Party.

Rev. C. S. Slagle, the esteemed pastor of St. Paul's Reformed Church of this city, and his family, had a genuine surprise, on Friday night of last week, in a visit from the members of the church in a body, carrying baskets, bundles and packages and accompanied by two wagons loaded with flour, meat, potatoes, corn, oats, &c. A glance revealed the situation and then Mr. John H. Mitten, as the representative of the visitors, stepped forward and made a neat little presentation speech, informing the good pastor that the gifts were from his parishioners as a slight token of their love and regard for him and his family, and expressing the united wishes of the membership that the coming year might be as pleasant and happy as the past. Mr. Slagle responded feelingly and in his usual happy manner, extending his hearty thanks for the kind rememberance and good wishes of his people. A peep at the contents of some of the packages revealed a generous supply of dry goods, groceries, lard, sausages, puddings and other provisions, besides fancy articles, &c. The visitors spent an hour very pleasantly in conversation with their pastor and then retired, carrying happy hearts with them and leaving a happy home behind.

Jesse Magee has been appointed and commissioned postmaster at Carrollton, in this county.

Manchester Items.

At a joint consistory meeting of the Manchester charge of the Reformed Church, on Saturday last, the resignation of Rev. Dr. Rupp, as pastor of the charge, was accepted, in obedience to the Dr's. request. The change proposed offers so many advantages to the Dr. and his family that his people freely, though sadly, consent to the severance of the pleasant ties which have bound them so long. In his new field of labor Dr. Rupp will find many business and educational opportunities for his children, that this place does not afford. To-day, Thursday, he preaches his farewell sermon at Bachman's church; to-morrow night at Snydersburg; Sunday morning at Kroh's and Sunday evening at Trinity, in this place. On Tuesday afternoon he and his family will leave for their new home.

On Tuesday the remains of Miss Ellen Marshall were brought here from Hampstead, where she resided, for interment. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Rupp. She was a sister of Dr. J. Marshall and the only remaining daughter of an aged father who survives her.

At the annual election of officers of Daniel and Jacob Lodge, No. 23, I. O. O. F., on Saturday evening last, the following were chosen: N. G., H. E. Masenheimer; V. G., H. Boose; R. S., G. W. J. Everhart; P. S., E. A. Ganter; Treas., Edward Oursler; Rep. to Grand Lodge, Wm. F. Lucabaugh; Trustees, D. H. Hoffacker, J. C. Denner, N. Armstrong, C. J. H. Ganter, H. E. Masenheimer.

As C. Lucabaugh was about to descend the hill east of Alesia, one day last week, with his team and wagon, upon which was a cord of wood, the horses became frightened before he could draw the brake and ran away. The weight of the loaded wagon forced them forward at the top of their speed and when near the Main street of the town it collided with a wood pile and was overturned, throwing the wheel horses to the ground. One of them, a valuable animal, just purchased by Mr. L., broke its leg and had to be killed.

A carrier pigeon belonging to George Mowen, of Baltimore, was brought here on Friday last by Charles Falkenstein, and set free on Saturday morning from the residence of C. W. Motter. It first flew to the south end of the town, then to the north, and turning again alighted on the spire of Trinity Church, from which, after quite a rest, it spread its wings and flew towards its city home.

On the record of weights of slaughtered porkers we find the following: D. H. Hoffacker, three, 1090; N. Armstrong, two, 284, 301; Decimus Quintus, two, 337, 374; C. Miller, two, 450.

On Tuesday evening Expressman Ganter, upon returning from Greenmount, left a lamp burning in the stage after putting it in the shed. Presently noticing the smell of burning woolen goods he mentioned it to Mrs. Ganter, who went to the stage and found the inside of it in a blaze. It was quickly run from the shed and the fire extinguished. The loss includes several blankets and the curtains and lining of the vehicle.

Rev. D. J. Hauer, D. D., of Hanover, Pa., at one time pastor of the Lutheran Church of this place, is at the Eye and Ear Hospital, Baltimore, where a successful operation has been performed by Dr. Chisholm, for the removal of a cataract from one of his eyes.

The Lutheran Sunday School of this place is preparing to perform the Cantata of Emmanuel at its Christmas entertainment.

Bad colds and rheumatism are prevalent diseases among the children and the aged here, at this time.

The weather has become quite cool again and everybody seems willing to welcome it after so many mild and genial fall days.

Death visited our neighborhood again on December 4th and bore away from our midst one of our best friends and neighbors, in the person of Mrs. Annie M. Shipley, who had been sick for nearly five weeks with typhoid fever. The funeral services took place at Zion's Methodist Protestant Church near Shipley P. O., on Thursday morning, December 6th, in the presence of her many friends and neighbors, where she had been a member for five years. The pastor in charge, Rev. Wm. A. Crouse, conducted the services, and made many beautiful allusions to the friends of the deceased, from a part of the 13th verse, of the 14th chapter of Revelation, "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth." The deceased leaves a husband and five little children to mourn their loss. In her death the husband has lost a true and faithful companion; the children, a kind and affectionate mother; and the community, a good neighbor.

THE

New York Tribune

CONGRATULATES

Every American Farmer, Wage-Earner, and Business Man, the Union Volunteers, the Settlers of the Western Territories, every Young Man and Woman, the Freedmen of the South, our American Fishermen and Shipbuilders, and the Whole People Generally, on the

which was won at the polls on November 6th. In the prosperity, which is likely to follow, the men of both parties will share; but to the Republican voters, workers and press, is due the credit.

During Gen. Harrison's administration THE TRIBUNE will continue to advocate the great measures of public policy, with which its name is identified. Great responsibilities now rest, not only on the new administration, but on the Republican party and press, with reference to shaping legislation so as to give practical effect to the will of the people. It is no time now, for farmers, wage-earners, Union veterans, and others, whose interests have been imperiled by an administration of free-traders and rebel brigadiers, to relax their interest in public affairs, and let things take their course. On the contrary, it would seem to be the duty of all voters to co-operate earnestly in the advancement of measures undertaken in their behalf, and to lend their support to great newspapers, which are doing original and aggressive work to promote their welfare.

It is conceded by the entire country, that THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE has initiated a great variety of the valuable and successful popular discussions of the past year. Its labor for the farmers (not yet half finished) has been aggressive and effective. Its great exposure of the sham "reform" of the Cleveland administration was crushing and final; no attempt was ever made to answer it. Its position on temperance brought back numerous third-party voters to the Republican ranks. Its broadsides on the tariff and other questions have done much to prove, beyond question, that the Republican party is the best friend of the poor people of the country and of the settlers of the western territories. It fixed beyond controversy the responsibility for the defeat of much-needed pension legislation in Congress. On many other important questions THE TRIBUNE did loyal and successful work. It undertook, for the sake of the cause, many important, laborious and far-reaching tasks, involving immense research, and useful in setting in quicker motion the forces which won the victory. Its course in the future may be judged by the past.

THE TRIBUNE is not exclusively devoted to politics. It is a general newspaper, presenting the news of the world in each issue, together with fiction, miscellany, matters "for the Home Circle" and for "Young Folks," with excellent and accurate market reports, book reviews, and foreign correspondence, and two pages a week on Agriculture. For the family, it is absolutely unexcelled among newspapers.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.—Weekly, $1 a year; extra copy with every five. Semi-Weekly, $2 a year; extra copy with every five. Daily, $9.50 per year. Sunday TRIBUNE, $2. New subscribers receive the paper until Jan. 1, 1890.

PREMIUMS.—(1) Waverly Novels, complete in 6 vols. (2) Cooper's fascinating "Leather Stocking Tales," 6 vols. (3) Irving's "Life of Washington." (4) Ten one-dollar books, any one of which will be given for two subscribers, viz.: "Essays of Lord Bacon;" "Edgar A. Poe's Tales;" "French Revolution by Carlyle;" "Great Generals by Great Authors;" "Poems of Sir Walter Scott;" "Greek Mythology;" "Don Quixote;" "Arabian Nights;" "Robinson Crusoe;" and "Swiss Family Robinson." (5) Winchester Hunting Rifle, breech loading. (6) Remington breech-loading Shot Gun. (7) "New York Tribune's History of the United States and Pocket Atlas of the World." (8) THE TRIBUNE'S great "Book of Open Air Sports." (9) "Wood's Household Medicine." (10) Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. (11) Waltham Watch. Send for circular describing them in full.

LIBRARY OF TRIBUNE EXTRAS.

Every year THE TRIBUNE prints an Almanac and Index and several bound "Extras." It is proposed now to systematize the publication of these Extras, and to issue them, regularly, once a month, 12 numbers per year. The Almanac will be issued in its old form, only with new, valuable and extensive additions to the contents, the number for 1889, by the way, containing complete returns of the Presidential election. The other numbers will be made up with pages of about monthly magazine size. There will be one or two numbers, per year, devoted to the latest ideas in "knitting and crochet." Several will contain complete novels. Others will be made up of entertaining features of special and permanent value relating to Science, Society, Literature, Politics, etc. Single copies, 25 cents. Price, per year, for 12 numbers, $2.
