KILLED AT RAILROAD CROSSING

A sad accident occurred at the railroad crossing at Roberts station on Thursday of this week when an automobile was hit by a freight train killing Mrs. William Williams age 70 years, and Mrs. Benjamin Rollison, age 55 years, almost instantly.

The automobile was driven by Mr. Benjamin Rollison who lives on the James W. Brown farm near Church Hill, he was not hurt. He stated that due to obstructions near the crossing he did not see the train and when he heard the whistle blow he put on the brakes, stopping the car on the tracks directly in front of the engine. The engine hit the rear of the car killing the two ladies who were on the back eat. Another occupant of the car on he front seat was, Mr. William Williams, who was unhurt.

A corner's jury rendered a verdict of unavoidable accident. This is the third casually at railroad crossings in Queen Anne's county within the past two weeks.
