50TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

About two hundred guests gathered at the Hotel Rigbie on Wednesday evening, September 12th, to celebrate the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Capt. and Mrs. George W. Moore, of Betterton.

The Rigbie had been elaborately decorated with baskets of gorgeous dahlias and ferns, sent by friends of the couple.

At eight o'clock, Lohengrins wedding march played by Miss Naudain Moore, iano, and Master Emerson Moore, violin, grandchildren, announced the approach of the "bride and groom" as they descended the stairway, which was banked with flowers and ferns. They were preceded by Arthur Moore and Mildred Beardsley, grandson and grandniece, who strewed flowers in their path.

A blessing was then pronounced by Rev. C. W. Clark. This was followed by the congratulations. Special music and program features were furnished by the Chestertown Orchestra and relatives. A pleasing number of the program was a poem which had been written, in honor of the occasion, by Mr. Frank Ruth, of Galena. At the conclusion of the program, refreshments were served in the dining room. The guests of honor, who had recently celebrated their fiftieth anniversaries, were Capt. and Mrs. Horace Brice, Mr. and Mrs. Reese Young, and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Crownhart. The illness of Mr. Crownhart, prevented his and Mrs. Crownhart being present. The former guests were seated at the bride's table. The wedding cake was cut by the bride and presented to the guests as they left the dining room.

Over three hundred dollars in gold and many beautiful gifts were received.

An unusual and happy coincidence was that the family chain has been unbroken for fifty years.

"And, lo, behold, to them the gods bestow a prize
To still retain the unbroken chain be-
