DEMOCRATIC MASS MEETING

RALLY THURSDAY EVENING
SHOW DEMOCRATS ARE FOR SMITH

The Democratic Mass meeting, held in the Court House, Chestertown, on Thursday evening of this week, was one of the most enthusiastic political meetings held here for many years.

Ex-Senator W. B. Copper presided at the meeting and after endorsing the Democratic ticket presented Congressman Fritz G. Lanham, of Texas, who made one of the most eloquent and logical speeches ever heard in Chestertown.

Congressman Lanham compared the record, citizenship and executive ability of the two candidates for president. He pointed out the stand that Governor Alfred E. Smith had taken on all national problems as compared with the side-stepping on the part of Hoover. In attacking the religious issue that has been brought into the campaign, Congressman Lanham stated that he is a Methodist, having taught in a methodist Sunday School for the past twenty years, and that he is now preparing a religious address which he will make while presiding at his church while the pastor is in conference. He stated that he deplores the way that politics have been dragged into the church and how it is threatening to set the church back to a point where it will take years to recover.

In speaking on prohibition Congressman Lanham stated that he is an ardent prohibitionist, having stumped the state of Texas on that issue that has come before Congress. He believes that the Volstead Law will be better enforced under Gov. Smith than under Mr. Hoover, as the former will make an honest, earnest effort to enforce it as long as it is a law, while the latter says that it is an experiment and he will follow the system of enforcement of the present administration which everyone knows to be a force. He stated that he would like to see an honest, earnest effort to enforce the volstead law.

Congressman Lanham was followed by Congressman T. Alan Goldsborough, candidate for re-election in November who told of the wonderful records made by the Democratic candidates and the unblemished record of the Democratic party. He urged the people of this county to vote for Gov. Smith and Senator Bruce, pointing out the constructive legislation now in effect that was passed during the last Democratic administration.

Mrs. Gertrude B. Fuller, of Florida, and Pittsburg, was the next speaker who told of the corruption of the Republican administrations that have been carried on during the past eight years, of the lack of enforcement of the probition law and the prospect of rigid enforcement under Governor Smith.

Ex-Senator W. B. Copper stated that if the Democrats of Kent County did their duty, this county should give the Democratic candidate a majority of from 1500 to 1800.

WEDDING NOTES

Miss Marion Hess, of North Carolina M. P. Church, Washington, and Dr. E. A. Sexsmith, recently appointed pastor of Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, Md., were married in Washington on Tuesday. They will return to Chestertown next week and occupy the parsonage which is being newly papered and painted.

Mr. Thomas W. Perry, son of Mrs. Annie Wright, of Chestertown, and Miss Irene Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Porter, of Denton, Md., were married in Chestertown at the M. E. Parsonage by Rev. Cockran on Monday night, October 1st, 1928. The young couple will reside in Chestertown where the groom is employed.

A very pretty wedding was solomized at Kennedyville M. P. Church at 6.30 p. m. Wednesday evening of this week when Miss Anne Price Caldwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Caldwell, of Kennedyville, became the bride of Mr. William D. Umflit, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Umflit, of Wilmington, Del.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Henry T. Caldwell, of Burrsville, Md., a brother of the bride.

The bride wore a gown of white bridal satin, with a veil of tulle and lace trimmed with orange blossoms and carried a shower boquet of roses and lily of the valley.

The Maid of Honor, Miss Mary Caldwell, of Galena, wore a gown of blue velvet with bronze hat and shoes to match and carried a boquet of bronze dahlias.

The little flower girl, Miss Ruth Ann Ward, of Philadelphia, a niece of the bride, wore white georgette over pink, trimmed in pink rose buds and carried a basket of pink sweetheart roses.

The organist was Mrs. Wm. C. Dempsey, a sister of the bride, who played the wedding march. She was gowned in light brown satin with hat and shoes to match.

The best man was Mr. Ralph Vaughn, of Wilmington, Del., and the ushers, were Messrs. William Mink, of Wilmington, and Edward Caldwell, of Galena, a brother of the bride.

The church was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and ferns. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, immediately following the ceremony, after which the bride and groom left for a honeymoon tour through the New England States. Upon their return they will reside in Wilmington, Del.

MR. HOOVER AS SEEN BY OTHERS

What Hon. Gifford Pinchot, former Republican Gov. of Pennsylvania says of Mr. Hoover:

"Under Hoover the Food Administration was run mainly by and for the packers, canners, millers, and other great middlemen, whose subordinates—still paid by them—filled the offices while the men who paid them made such profits as they never had known before. The farmers were wholly left out."

Mr. Pinchot, it should be remembered, was associated with the Food Administration until disgust at Mr. Hoover's subservience to the packers led him to resign. In an open letter to the Los Angeles Herald, in 1920, Mr. Pinchot said:

"For a number of months I saw Mr. Hoover freguently. During the latter part of this time I never saw him without a part of the interview consisting of abuse of the farmers by him.

"I am little impressed by Mr. Hoover's progressive talk and suddenly acquired affection for the farmer. I saw him when he had a chance to do what he is talking about, and he did precisely the opposite.

"In my judgment, Hoover is wholly unfitted to be President because in action he has proved to be for the few against the great majority, because he has long been out of touch with America and the American people, because his is essentially a foreigner, and therefore is neither a real Republican nor a real American."

On the ninth of March, 1928, to the President of the Farmers' Union in Oklahoma, Gov. Pinchot said:

"I am against Mr. Hoover because of what I learned during my service under him in the Food Administration. I do not believe he is a friend to farmers of any kind, whether live stock men, grain raisers, or those engaged in mixed farming."
