THE TRANSCRIPT

THE DEMOCRATS ARE presenting to the voters of this county on November 6 candidates that to our thinking are far above the average men. Gov. Smith, four times elected Governor of New York, is the Democratic candidate for President. A man familiar with Governmental work and well qualified to administer the affairs of our Government. Hon. Wm. Cabell Bruce candidate for re-election to the United States Senate is regarded as one of, if not the most brilliant member of the Upper House of Congress, is asking the people of this state to return him to that body for another term. Hon. T. Alan Goldsborough, candidate for Congress from this district is too well known to our people to need any comment from us. He is an outstanding man of unusual ability and courage, never afraid to do his duty for his constituents.

CIRCUIT COURT PROCEEDINGS

SHORTEST SESSION IN YEARS—LITTLE CIVIL WORK

The October term of the Circuit Court for Kent County began its sessions here on Monday when called to order at 10 a. m. Associate Judge Lewin W. Wickes, Associate Judge Thomas J. Keating, Sheriff J. Thos. Hadaway and Clerk of Court Robert H. Shallcross were present.

After the July docket had been disposed of the following were drawn as the Grand Jury for the October term: Alwyn M. Culp, foreman, A. Lindell Beaston, E. B. Pennington, George W. Watts, C. Lee Gill, Roy T. Strong, Harry C. Willis, Morgan Browne, Liston Pennington, Frank A. Roeder, Charles W. Anthony, David B. Word, W. Reybold Willson, Albert B. Groves, S. Herbert Lusby, James P. Donohoe, Howard Clendaniel, Joseph M. Morris, A. L. Sparks, Walter R. Kendall, William M. Lewis, Henry Brown and Robert W. Johnston.

Petit jurymen were drawn as follows: James L. Caldwell, T. Bayard Crew, Ralph W. Barnett, John W. Harmon, Arthur G. Loller, Harry R Nichols, J. L. Roberts, George W. Glenn, Charles B. Nicholson, John W. Downey, Charles H. Skirven, Robert W. Walbert, J. E. Woodall, Jr., Walter Davis, Walter B. Harris, G. Allan Jarman, William P. Durding, James F. Hurtt, Edgar Strong, Thomas G. Wroth, William Clark, Lucian Massey, James Archibald, William A. Wheatley and George T. Whaland.

The Grand Jury brought in the following presentments: Alfred Forraker for desertion and non-support; John McKirley for larceny; Ralph Needles for larceny; William Butler for forgery; J. Stevenson, alias The Jew, for selling liquor; Clarence Taylor, for selling liquor; Mrs. John Phillips for selling liquor; William Butler for forgery; Romie Townsend for non-support; Vaunicious Barrett for larceny; Harry Gardner for rape; Mike Freeman for assault with intent to kill and James Thompson for rape.

The first case to occupy the attention of the Court was that of Alex Herzberg versus J. M. Lowe for a store bill. The case was an appeal from Magistrate Olin B. Stafford. The defendant chose a jury trial. Verdict for Herzberg for $18.41.

True bills were returned against Harry Gardner, Minnie B. Phillips, Wm. Bulter (3 cases) Tom Thompson, Wm. Butler, James Thompson, Romie Thompson.

Frank Hawkins was sentenced to 10 days in the county jail, on a charge of interfering with an officer. The case was appealed from Police Justice Charles R. Kerr. Hawkins plead not guilty and chose a jury trial. The verdict was guilty and the sentenced passed by the court.

William Patrick, Jr., was found not guilty on a presentment of assault with intent to kill Elmer Newton. The trial was before Court and the plea not guilty.

In the case of Homer Larrimore vs. Fred Williams, an appeal from Police Justice Charles R. Kerr, Larrimore confessed a judgement in favor of Williams for $15.

Harry Johnston, charged with assault, plead not guilty and elected a jury trial. Verdict not yet given.

Nathan Lieberman vs. Augusta Johnson. This was ejectment case. Verdict for Mr. Lieberman.

Case of Clarence Taylor for selling liquor. Plead guilty and fined $100.00 and costs or 30 days in jail.

Harry Gardner for rape. Plead not guilty verdict guilty and sentenced to 2 years in the Maryland penitentiary.

J. Stevenson, alias the Jew, for selling liquor. Plead guilty and fined $250.00 or 3 months in the Maryland House of Correction.

REPORT OF GRAND JURY

To the Honorable Judges of the Circuit Court, for Kent county, Maryland.

The Grand Jury for the October term of the Circuit Court of Kent County, State of Maryland 1928, beg leave to report the following on completion of their labors.

We have been in session three days, have examined fifty-six witnesses, made eighteen presentments and found fourteen true bills.

During most of the time that we have been in session, our time has been mostly occupied in examining witnesses in petty larceny cases, and as an example in one case the amount of money involved was only twenty five cents, and the majority of the larceny cases the amount was under five dollars.

We therefore recommend that the law be changed enabling the Justice of the Peace and the Police Justice to dispose of these cases.

We visited the jail and found twenty inmates, mostly colored men and boys. The sanitary conditions were about as good as we expected to find under the circumstances and things were clean in general.

Our attention was called to the fact that some iron bars have been ordered and had already arrived but had not been placed in the windows which was highly important at the present time and we therefore recommend that these bars be put in place as soon as possible. We also recommend that the jail building be remodled to provide more room and greater security for prisoners and also some privacy for the Sheriff's family.

Attention was called to the Grand Jury by the Sheriff and his wife, that they have been very much inconvenienced and annoyed by Magistrate trials being held at the office of the Justice of the Peace or Police Justice.

The Jury extends it appreciation to the Honorable Court, the States Attorney, the Sheriff, the Clerk of the Court, and all other officials for their courtesy and help extended to us during this session.

Respectfully submitted,

A. M. CULP, Foreman.

David B. Ford, Secretary.
Edmond B. Pennington, Asst. Secy.

The cases of Webster Hill, George W. Duyer, John W. Naylor and John Moffett vs. Arthur Mahan were tried before a jury Friday morning; verdicts was rendered in each case for the plaintiffs, which amounted to about $2,000. These were cases for money due for tomatoes which were sold to Mahan at his cannery at Lambson Station.

The case of Charles Gillis vs. Warren G. Painter; jury trial. This is a case for damages resulting from an automobile accident at Del-Mar last year and was on trial at the hour of going to press.
