TRANSCRIPT'S MUISINGS

A PHILOSOPHER

To take things as they be—
That's my philosophy.
No use to holler, mope, or cuss—
It they was changed they might be wuss.

If rain is pourin' down,
An' lightnin's buzzin' roun',
I ain't a-fearin' we'll be hit,
But grin that I ain't out in it.

If I got deep in debt—
It hasn't happened yet—
And owed a man two dollars, Gee!
Why, I'd be glad it wasn't three!

If some one come along,
And tried to do me wrong,
Why I should sort of take a whim
To thank the Lord I wasn't him.

I never seen a night,
So dark there wasn't light
Somewhere about if I took care
To strike a match and find out where.
—John K. Bangs

I'll be glad, an everbody else will be glad wen dis campane gets over. Never herd so much politickin in my born days. An de radio's got it bad. No sooner dan you git the Gol Dust twins an sit back to lisen wen it starts a politic speech. An it is sich a deceiving campane. Dey say Mrs. Smith ain't fat. dat the pichars of her is wrong, and dat Hoover ain't got no hickry nuts in both his cheeks like he looks he has. What chance dues dey have to rejuce any way. When de people is always given dem lunches an sech like. Taint no fun to be a candidate no way. —Uncle Zech.

"I cannot dance the new dance
I learned some week ago,
For politics has captured
The fickle radio.
At eve I search the ether through
From Paterson to Dan,
And all I get is Senator Flue
Or a lady Congressman."

Fair Enough

A professor in one of the Big Three universities had been appealed to by powerful interests to give a certain student a mark of 50 per cent. required for a certain scholastic purpose. He did so and explained it this way:

"I asked him what color indigo was, and he said green. That was wrong. Then I asked him what aeons were, and he said he didn't know. That was right. So I gave him 50 per cent."

A Humane Man's Dilemma

Hatters take action against the fad of bareheaded.
"Eeeny meeny miny mo,
Shall a fellow hatless go,
Raising hair upon his head
While the hatters lack for bread?

Shall he wear a hat instead,
Causing baldness on the head?
Barbers, too, must eat, you know,
Eeeney Meeny miny mo.

A Rare Missouri Tree Is Insured

From the Paris Appeal

A redwood cypress tree in front of the E. W. Selbert residence on West Monroe, the only tree of its sort in Monroe county, is probably the only tree in Missouri on which insurance to the amount of $1,000 is constantly carried. One-half the policy is against fire and lightning, the other half against damage by wind. The tree is nearly 100 years old. The sprout from which it was grown was brought to Paris from California by Cephus Fox, owner of the first store in Paris.

A Lower Aim

From the Boston Transcript

That there's plenty of room at the top
Is a saying we're prone to ignore;
The object today, you cannot gainsay,
Is to get in upon the ground floor.

A Divided House

"Jack Spratt is Democrat.
His wife is not that kind,
So they have a Hoover plate in front
And an Al Smith plate behind."

SHEEP RAISING ON INCREASE

Twenty three hundred sheep have been brought into Kent county this year by two stock dealers aside from those brought in by private individuals. Of this number Mr. H. S. Startt brought in 1500 and Mr. Israel Heller brought 800.

A large part of these sheep came from high breed flocks and will be used to increase the flocks in all sections of the county.

One shipment of 480 from Montana consigned to Mr. H. S. Startt were enroute for fourteen days and only three died.

—One of the greatest pictures ever shown in this town, is coming to The New Lyceum Theatre soon. Intitled "The King of Kings."

AMERICAN LEGION WEEK NOV. 11, 1928

GOVERNOR RITCHIE ISSUES PROCLAMATION

Ten years ago this nation saw the birth of an organization that was destined to become an outstanding patriotic force. That organization, The American Legion. was conceived by the men who honorably served their country in the World War and who desired to continue, in some manner, that same service in time of peace.

The American Legion in the first decade of its history has demonstrated to the people of America that it is a power for good. It has made provisions for the treatment and rehabilitation of those who were disabled in the great conflit, looked after the welfare of the children who were left fatherless in the wake of the war, and exerted its energy towards the promotion of the best interests of the nation and in the promulgation of those splendid principles of citizenship on which our nation was founded.

Associated with the Legion in this great work is The American Legion Auxiliary, composed of the mothers, sister, daughters and wives of the Legionnaires. These two organizations have set aside one week, November 11 to 17, 1928, for a membership drive, in order that the Legion and the Auxiliary may be better equipped for the great objectives of the coming year.

Now, therefore, I, Albert C. Ritchie, Governor of the State of Maryland, do hereby proclaim the week beginning November 11 and ending November 17, 1928, as American Legion Week. and urge that every citizen aid the Legion and the Legion Auxiliary in its membership efforts. I particularly urge those who are not now members of the Legion or the Auxiliary, but who are eligible, to take this opportunity of enrolling and becoming associated in the great work of these patriotic organizations.

Given under my Hand and the Great Seal of the State of Maryland, at the City of Annapolis, this twenty-ninth day of October, in the Year of Our Lord, One Thousand, Nine Hundred and Twenty-eight.

ALBERT C. RITCHIE,
By the Governor.

MURDER CASE TRIED THIS WEEK

EDMOND HOWERY OF CECIL COUNTY GUILTY OF 2ND DEGREE MURDER

A murder case, removed from Cecil county, was called for trial in the Circuit Court for Kent county on Monday morning of this week and continued until 5.30 p. m. Tuesday when the jury brought in a verdict of murder in the second degree. The twenty four jurymen and seventeen tailsmen were questioned before a jury of twelve men were accepted.

The trial started Monday morning with Messrs. Henry Constable. States Attorney, of Cecil County; Stephen R. Collins, States Attorney for Kent County; and Wm. Pepper Constable, of Baltimore, representing the State and Messrs. Henry Warburton, of Elkton, and Harrison W. Vickers, of Chestertown representing the defense.

The argument of the State was that Edmond Howery shot and killed Crossley Cox in a truck while parked near Rising Sun, Cecil county, on the night of June 19th, 1928. Both men were formerly from Lloyd County, Virginia, moving to Cecil county about nine years ago. A large number of State witnesses testified while the only witness for the defense was the accused who stated that another man, whom he stated was in the truck at the time, shot Cox.

The Jury after a deliberation of two and a half hours brought in a verdict at 5.30 Tuesday afternoon, of guilty of murder in the second degree.

The defense council asked for a new trial and argument was heard before the court and a new trial refused. The prisoner was then sentenced by the court to 8 years in the Maryland Penitentiary. He was carried to Baltimore on the Tolchester boat and delivered to the Penitentiary authorities.

The last case tired was that of Powell vs. Kinsey for $690.00 for rent of farm. A verdict of $300.00 was rendered for Mrs. Powell. J. D. Urie. Esq., represented Mrs. Powell and S. R. Collins represented Mr. Kinsey.

THE BOND ISSUE

The voters will find a seperate ballot upon which to cast their vote on the jail bond issue. The question to be decided by the voters of the county is whether or not the county shall be bonded for $25,000 for improvements to the county jail.
