ONLY 16 DAYS TO Christmas

WHICH MEANS ONLY 13 SHOPPING DAYS. SHOP EARLY AND SHOP LOCALLY.

A SUGGESTION TO CHRISTMAS SHOPPERS

We refer our Christmas shoppers to the advertising columns of this paper this morning and suggest to them to give to our local merchants the opportunity of supplying your Christmas wants. They have a large and varied stock to select from and every dollar spent at home means one more dollar is circulated throughout the community, while every dollar spent away from home makes your home community one dollar poorer and the foreign community one dollar richer. Does not common reasoning suggest that our first duty is to ourselves and our community? Cooperation means success and without cooperation success is at a discount. Every progressive citizen likes to see his community prosper and no community can go ahead if the citizens of that community spend their money away from it. Money is a circulating commodity and when judiciously used can make a town or a county prosperous and beautiful. The merchants of this county are entitled to the support and patronage of our citizens, they have as good stocks of merchandise as the average merchants of other counties and other towns, and there is no good reason for our people to spend their money elsewhere and by so doing leave our merchants with large supplies of Christmas and other goods on their shelves to be disposed of at a loss they cannot afford to stand.

POOR BOYS AND GIRLS TO BE REMEMBERED

Nearly a million boys and girls of poor and needy families throughout the United States are going to have a Merry Christmas through the generosity of a leading candy manufacturer of Chicago, says Harford Powel, editor of The Youth's Companion.

"In a signed article in our December number," Mr. Powel said, "Otto Schnering, president of the Curtiss Candy Co., offers to send at his own expense a Christmas gift box containing his Baby Ruth and other candy bars, and his new salted peanut product called Chicos, to every poor boy or girl whose name is sent to him by our young readers.

"All over the country, boys and girls are looking for children who will have no Christmas cheer at all, and are sending their names to Mr. Schnering on a special form printed for that purpose in our December number. Christmas without candy and nuts would be a dreary day, and Mr. Schnering's offer to supply them free of charge, by mail, is unique in American manufacturing and philanthropy."

Specal Baby Ruth gift boxes have been made up by Mr. Schnering for this nation-wide freed distribution, Powel added. These boxes, filled to the brim with goodies, and with a special Christmas card, will be malied in time to reach the recipients as a Christmas surprise.
