WITH ONLY EIGHT more shopping days before Christmas, shoppers are urged to visit their local stores and see the large selection of Christmas goods on display. Almost any article for the home or for a gift for young or old can be selected from these stores, and early shopping will prevent the last minute rush where clerk service and proper time to examine merchandise carefully creates somewhat a handicap to both the buyer and seller.

KILLED AT R. R. CROSSING

Mr. William T. Keating, of Centreville, Miss Hazel Towers, of Denton, and the Negro chauffeur Alec Conyer, of Centreville, were instantly killed Tuesday afternoon when their automobile was struck by a southbound special train on the Clayton-Oxford branch of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The crash occurred about 5.30 p. m. at a crossing near Goldsboro station, Caroline county.

Mr. Keating, accompanied by Miss Towers, a saleslady in his employ, had left Centreville about 4 p. m. on his way to Denton, where he was interested in the Santa Claus Day program to be held there Saturday.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AS DATE RECORDER

The Kent County Chamber of Commerce has arranged to act as a clearing house for dates for all social and business activities in the county.

The Chamber will keep a calendar where each date as it is sent in will be posted. Every organization in the County is invited to take advantage of this opportunity. There has been such confusion heretofore regarding the holding of sales, church suppers, bakes, entertainments, dinners, etc., that it is believed that the Chamber of Commerce can render an efficient and valuable service to the community by establishing such a calender. All that is necessary would be for any person or organization to mail a postal card to the office, briefly outlining their date and program or advice by telephone, giving the same information. This, when received, will be entered on the calender so inquiries following, relative to a proposed date, can be answered accordingly.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE WINS OPENING GAME OF SEASON BEFORE GOOD CROWD—GEORGIA TECH, WINNER OF SOUTHERN TITLE, T OPLAY SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

BY POLK T. BRAMBLE

The basketball season opened at Washington College an Saturday before a large crowd. Washington won the contest, 33-27. The team was handicapped considerably by the absence of Giriatis, the star forward. The Philadelphia College of Osteopathy, as in past years, put up a good fight throughout the game. They were a good, clean bunch of fellows, who refused to give up.

Off to fine start the Washington quint established an early lead when Jacobs tossed through a pair of field goals to start the season's scoring. Washington was never headed although at one time near the middle of the second half the Osteopathy five drew up to within three points of the "Pentagon."

Playing smoothly in the first half the Washington drew away to a 22 to 14 lead at half time. Jacobs was playing a leading role in the Washington scheme of attack. Three times in the first twenty minutes he hit the cords for double deckers and at the same time was holding Ellis, Osteopathy ace, to a single two-pointer. So eager was Jocobs, however, that three times during the opening half he drew personal fouls because of close guarding, leaving the game shortly after the start of the second half when the fourth and disqualifying foul was to be called.

Captain Carrington played his usual steady game at forward and during the first half he tossed in four field goals. He followed with two more in the second half, and added a point at the foul line to establish himself as high scorer of the contest. His total was 13 points. Captain Carrington's opponent, Captain Warner, failed to register from the field but bagged a brace of foul goals.

The Chestertown High Shcool basketball team opened its season on Friday evening of this week when it journeyed to Easton for a contest with the five representing the Oxford high school. When the local school boys take the floor, led by Captain Fred Usilton, four letter men from last season's team will be in the starting five.

A most interesting basketbal game will be played on the local floor next Tuesday evening, when the Alumni of the College, composed of stars of the past, will play the Varsity team. Washington's team will have Coach Kibler, Coach Beatty, formerly of University of Maryland, Dumschoot, all coaches of this year's team, and Coaches Faber and Linkous, of University of Maryland basketball team. This should be one of the best games of the year.

Washington's quintest is on a trip to Pennsylvania which will last three days. Schuylkill, Juniata and Susquehanna will be played on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Kid Williams won from Caniano last Friday night at Centreville, again somewhat easily. Kid Williams, although rated as a has been, is one of the best little fighters in the game. Candiano has proven a disappointment.

Living up to pre-season predictions Coach Fred "Dutch" Dumschott put a fast passing, clever shooting Washington College freshmen quintet on the basketball floor last Saturday evening and watched them smother a picked team from the class league, 37 to 9.

Twenty-four players, the largest number ever to receive football letters in one year at Washington College, were awarded the varsity "W" and sweaters by the College athletic association at a meeting last week.

Receiving the awards were: Captain Marth, Captain-elect Burk, Manager Mahoney, H. Dean, J. C. Mandrell, Usilton, Alexander, Norris, Parcell, Dubin, Stevens, Robinson, Plummer Philips, Sherkey, Dickerson, Freeny, Griffin, Veach, Dopson, Clemente, Wilson, Badart and Lloyd.

The concrete roads built on either side of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal, at the expense of the Federal Government, between Chesapeake City and Pivot Bridge, approximately three miles, have been completed and opened up for traffic. The roads were built in lieu of the bridge across the canal at Pivot Bridge, which was removed shortly after the Government began enlarging and improving the waterway.
