FROM CONSERVATION COMMISSION.

In December, 1927, market meats were exposed in the markets of Baltimore City for sale, at which time, we called the attention of the dealers of Section 62, Chapter 568, Acts of 1927, which provides:

"It shall be unlawful for any person to hunt Otter or Muskrat within the State of Maryland, or have the meat or pelts in possession, if trapped, caught or killed betwen the 15th day of March and the 1st day of January following, in each and every year, both dates exclusive, whether same are trapped, caught or killed within the State of Maryland or any other State, Territorp or Country."

Therefore, it is unlawful to have muskrat pelts or meat in possession in Maryland at this season of the year and it is unlawful to have the meat of muskrat in possession whether same was kiled in this State or any other Territory or Country, except between January 1st and March 15th, both dates inclusive under a penalty of not less than $25.00 nor more than $100.00 for each and every offense.

The Department will be compelled to confiscate all muskrat meats in possession in Maryland, prior to January 1st, and will prosscute the person having same inpossession.

ANOTHER KENT BOY MAKES SUCCESS

DU PONT INTERESTS FINALLY ACCEPT REPRESENTATION ON THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Mr. Henry Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis, of Still Pond, has been elected a member of the board of directors of the U. S. Rubber Co., one of the largest corporation in this country. Mr. Davis has large interests in the du Pont Co., besides holdings in other large and successful Cos. He was raised near Still Pond, and for a while was a clerk in Wm. Med. der's store. Leaving there he went to Wilmington and took a course in a business college there and after graduating from that institution he took a position with the du Ponts with whom he has been connected most of his business life. Mr. Davis' success only shows what young men can accomplish if they prove valuable to their trusts. Besides amassing a fortune for himself he helped many young men to secure positions.

The New York Journal, a financial publication, published the following in a recent issue:

Election of Henry Davis, of Wilmington, Del., to the board of directors of United State Rubber Co. is the first evidence that the du Pont family has decided to take more active interest in affairs of the company, in which it is believed to have holdings of approximotely 250,000 shares of common stock, in addition to several thousand shares of preferred.

In view of the fact Mr. Davis is closely associated with the du Ponts in Wilmington, there is little doubt his electon is for the purpose of representing them on the board. As long ago as the late fall of 1927 the du Ponts were invited by U. S. Rubber officials to become represented on the directorate and ever since then one or two directorships have been in readiness, should the Wilmington family indicate its willingness to take more than a passive interest in the company.

Henry Rogers Winthrop, of Harris, Winthrop & Co., and William Wiseman, of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., were the other new directors elected to the board. Buhn, Loeb & Co., it is understood, will underwrite the issue of common stock which U. S. Rubber plans to sell to stockholders.
