The first quarterly meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, of Middletown District, was held Friday, December 14, 1928, in the Sudlersville M. E. Church. The visiting auxiliaries were cordially greeted by the Sudlersville church women. The outstanding talk of the morning was that given by Miss Lena Lewis, of Greensboro, Supt., of Junior work in the district. She gave many helpful and attractive suggestions.

Miss Mary K. Mearns, of North East, Wilmington Conference Treasurer, gave a full report of the doings of the General Executive held in Los Angeles, California, in October.

After lunch, the roll call of the auxiliaies showed only two not represented.

The "Women's Quartet" of Sudlersville, sang a beautiful selection. Mrs. H. E. Woolever, of Washington, D. C., president of the Baltimore Branch, gave a very delightful and inspiring talk. She told of the growth of the work of the W. F. M. S. in the past 60 years. There are 19 different countries in which the Society is working. The one outstanding fact is the growing participation of the nationals. There are at present 6000 nationals employed in the missionary societies.

The Sudlersville Male Quartet favored the audience with a beautifully rendered selection. This was especially appreciated since these men left their places of business to contribute to the success of the meeting.
