THE TRANSCRIPT

NEVER BEFORE IN the memory of man has the Maryland Legislature been so occupied by investigations, as is the present session over the State roads matter. It seems that most of each session is taken up with charges and arguments over irregulaitis in that departmen of the state government. Senator S. Scott Beck of this county is chairman of the investigating committee, and it looks as though it will be some time before the committee finishes its investigation.

THE KENT COUNTY Chamber of Commerce have called a meeting of the citizens of Kent County this afternoon for a discussion of the road problem. This question is foremost in the minds of local citizens at the present time and this meeting should bring out some constructive ideas along this line. It is hoped that every citizen who can attend will do so and that the attendance will represent the opinions of the people of the county on a solution of the road problem. A large majority of the tax payers of this county would like to see the secondary roads more passable the year round without too great a sacrifice in taxes. Just what method of construction is best will be brought out at the meeting. The prospect of good roads should interest every business man in the county as well as those living on dirt roads and the future development of the county depends largely on the future condition of our secondary roads.

SPORTS OF WEEK

WASHINGTON WINS LOPSIDED VICTORY OVER ALBRIGHT—ST. JOHNS HERE LAST NIGHT—LOYOLA DEFEATED, LEADS STATE RACE.

BY POLK T. BRAMBLE

Loyola was defeated somewhat easily by Fordham College the other night in Baltimore, but the Baltimore aggregation still holds a good edge over all state rivals.

Albright proved no match for Washington College Saturday night and went down before the state champions of last year by the lopsided score of 51-31. Washington did not half try to play basketball. The opposition was not strong enough to make them eytend themselves. The locals jumped into the lead at the start and at half time was leading 25-13. Only once did Albright show any signs of being a real basketball aggregations, and this was against the second string men. Dobson led Wshington's scoring with 15 points, while Carrington showed a return to good form. Jacobs scored 8 points, while the speedy Giriatis was content to flash about the floor and let his teammates gather the scoring honors.

Giriatis, Washington's star has scored 157 points so far this season. His poor form against Loyola hurt his team considerably but he is now in good shape.

St. John's was here with their fine basketball team last night and the gymnasium was a sell-out long before the contest. At the time of going to press Washington was in good form for the contest and indications pointed to a hard fought game. The writer is of the opinion that the home club will win the contest.

Bobby Cavanaugh was here with his basketball aggregation from Pennsylvania High School last night as a preliminary to the Washington-St. John's game.

Adapted from the story "The Red Mirage" this picture is one of the year's biggest hits. An all star cast in a flaming drama—a double triangle of tangled lives in the burning desert. Love, Soldiers, Passion, Intrigue, Strife—with the most desperate, fearless, fascinating company of adventurers in the wide world "The Foreign Legion." Where the sun blisters the earth and men's souls are tried in the crucible of love and hate—a deceitful woman sets father against son—this and more in "The Foreign Legion"—don't miss it.

Added each night—the very best in short subjects—an extra big show and no advance in prices.

ADMISSION 15c, 20c, 25c, 30c

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 13
"Riley The Cop"
—with—
Farrel MacDonald

THURSDAY and FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 14th and 15th
Victor McLaglen
—in—
"Captain Lash"

Here he is again, the star of "What Price Glory" and "The River Pirate" in his greatest picture since "What Price Glory." If you like your men to be real "he" men then don't miss this picture. He was only chief stoker on a ship—but some man—knocked out a hundred men, and then a pretty blonde laid him low for the full count. Plenty of action, comedy, love and drama—played to packed houses in Baltimore just a few weeks ago—you will be sure to like it.

Special added attraction—Chalie Chase in his funniest comedy "Chasing Husbands" and Tiffany Color Classic, "Mothers."
